DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

I wish to let my friends and customers see,
What destruction has happened to Sr William and me.
At the burning of Dock-street, I am sorry to say,
From my good natured partner I had to run away,
A warrior he was, and that you will know
From powder and balls he never would go;
When the flames they were raging to him I did say
Sir William come with me and make no delay,
A chieftain he was and a Scotchman so brave,
He died in the fire my fortune to save.
His courage was bold—his honor was good—
He fell by the fire and was burned up like wood;
It is for his remains I am searching in vain,
So faithful a partner I'll ne'er meet again;
It is five years and better since we went in Co.
The Blue Noses and Yankees to us were no foes,
A figure head he was—and that you may see—
He was put up at Auction, and knocked down to me. JOHN POOLE.

All persons having any legal demands against the Estate of the late Sir William, of this City, are requested to hand in their claims for adjustment, and all persons indebted, are desired to make payment without delay.

The New World,

A Weekly Newspaper, devoted to Home and Foreign Intelligence, Literature and the Arts.—Edited by Park Benjamin and Rufus W. Griswold, late Editors of the "Brother Jonathan."

ON Saturday the 19th October, was issued a specimen number of a new weekly sheet entitled "THE NEW WORLD," and on the 26th of the same month, commenced the regular publication, under that title, of the largest, cheapest, and most elegant periodical in America. Its Editors were the originators, and, until the commencement of the present publication, the conductors of the Brother Jonathan, and they bring to their aid the experience acquired in that popular journal, and greatly increased facilities, of every kind, derived from newly opened foreign and home correspondence, agencies, &c. In addition to all the popular periodicals of this continent, they will receive regularly from London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and other European capitals, the most celebrated literary journals, such as the Monthly Chronicle, the Monthly, the New Monthly, the Gentlemen's, Fraser's, Blackwood's, the United Service, the Asiatic, Tait's, and the University Magazines, Bentley's Miscellany, The Court Journal, The Court Gazette, La Belle Assemblee, The Era, The Satirist, The Age, The Examiner, the Writings of Dickens, the Quarterly, the Foreign Quarterly, the London, the Edinburgh, and the Dublin Reviews, &c. &c. &c.

From all these, and from every other new work of merit, the best selections will be given immediately after their reception, and thus the spirit of contemporary literature, in the Old World and the New, placed in the reach of even the poorest and most humble.

While the Editors will make the most early and copious selection from literary productions, they will not be forgetful of the necessity of presenting ALL THE NEWS of the time in a perfect and faithful digest. They will especially aim to make THE NEW WORLD worthy of its name from its perfect compilation of Domestic News as well as intelligence from all parts of the Western Hemisphere. Our newspapers, in general, contain full accounts of all that happens in the Old World, even to the most trivial occurrences, which can be of little or no interest to our people; while they omit or neglect much that is of consequence from the various countries of the New.

The editorial articles of THE NEW WORLD, while they will be rigidly free from all political or sectional bias, will generally be upon topics of immediate interest, and have direct reference to passing events—to the times and the country.

The Editors will carefully avoid the profligate tone which characterizes most of the journals in speaking of the returns of crime and wretchedness which fall under the eye of our municipal police. They can see nothing humorous or witty in such pictures of sinfulness and degradation. No ludicrous accompaniment of incident or language can make them smile at the frantic vagaries of intemperance, the dreadful examples of female prostitution, suffering and despair, or the penal violations of social order by the ignorant and the imbecile. They can only see in such "counterfeit presentments" the defaced and defiled ruins of what was made in the image of the Most High—the perverted and imbruted soul of man—its divine properties lost, its energies degraded and its celestial essence polluted with bestial slime.

With the most ample assistance in every department; with resources more than sufficient, and friends numerous and true; with a thousand incentives to exertion, and every evidence and assurance of the most triumphant success before it, THE NEW WORLD starts into life, and will long gladden and enliven the firesides of every portion of our great country.

Price of THE NEW WORLD, $3 per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be sent for $5 to any part of the city or country.

All letters relating to the editorial department of the New World, to be addressed to BENJAMIN & GRISWOLD; those intended for the publisher, to J. WINCHESTER.
