No. 1.

THE subscriber having erected a temporary Building on his old stand, has commenced business there. HENRY BLAKSLEE.

September 14, 1839.

A CARD.

THOMAS SMITH begs to return his grateful acknowledgements to his Friends who so kindly assisted him in the removal of his Property on the night of the late calamitous Fire,—and he now informs them and the public that he has resumed Business in the Store lately occupied by Mr. M'Namara in Mr. Sands' Brick Buildings, Prince William street. Aug. 31.

W. O. SMITH with feelings of gratitude tenders his warmest thanks to those kind friends who during his absence from the City so promptly and effectually rescued so large a proportion of his property from the late conflagration, and begs leave to inform them that through their kind services he is enabled to re-open his Drug Store in King street, next door to Mr. C. C. M'Donald, where he offers a supply of Drugs, Medicines, Patent Medicines, Instruments, Perfumery, Spices, Pickles and Sauces, Paints, Oil, Glass, Dye Stuffs, &c. &c. upon his usual low terms. Aug. 31.

BARLOWS & KETCHUM have taken the store occupied by Messrs. E. Barlow & Sons, corner of King and Prince Wm. streets.

Aug. 31.

THOS. M'AVITY & CO.

August 24th, 1839.

ATTENTION!

THE Subscriber having lost a large amount of Property by Fire on the night of 17th inst., would feel much obliged to his Customers by making early remittance of the amount of their Accounts. He has removed his place of Business to Ward street, over Mr. George Salter's Store—entrance from Mr. B. Tilton's alley.

24th Aug. J. W. M. IRISH.

CARD.

J. W. BEYNON begs respectfully to offer his best thanks to the public of St. John for the patronage he has received since his commencement in business in this City and to inform them that since the fire, he has removed his Confectionary Establishment to the new Store in Germain street, formerly occupied by the late Mr. Daniel Scott, where he keeps on hand a very extensive assortment of Confects, Pastries, Cakes, &c., of first quality and at reasonable rates.

VENILLA CREAM CANDY, a new and much approved article, not manufactured elsewhere in this City, always on hand.

Country Customers may be supplied at the shortest notice, and cheaper than at any other establishment in the City.

☞ J. W. B. would likewise tender his sincere thanks to those individuals who so kindly assisted him in the removal of his Goods from the Fire on the night of the 17th inst. Aug. 31.

THOMAS PRYOR, having resumed his business in premises erected on the site of his former Shop, which was destroyed by the late calamitous fire, begs leave to return his sincere thanks to his friends for the favours already received from them, and to solicit a continuance of them in future, which he hopes to deserve by diligence and attention. He has always directed his attention to SMITH WORK of SHIPS, and he hopes that the Gentlemen concerned in Shipping will give him a share of their orders, which he engages to execute with punctuality and despatch.

St. John, Aug. 31, 1839.

Boot and Shoe Establishment.

THE Subscriber begs to inform his friends and the public, that having lost, by the late Fire, his old stand in Dock-street, he has removed his Establishment to Prince William-street, in those premises next but one to the Bank of New-Brunswick, and solicits a continuance of that liberal patronage he has always enjoyed since his first commencement in business.

Sept. 7. DAVID PATERSON.

RICHARD CALVERT

OFFERS his services to the public in the line of his business: as kind Providence has deprived him of a dwelling in this City, and as the change is too great in his old age to flee to the woods for shelter, while he feels desirous to live and die among his kind friends in Saint John.—Although he is not capable of climbing about buildings as formerly, he may be useful to work at part of his trade, in Shop Work, such as setting Glass, &c.—As he wishes to put up a small House in the spring, (if he can do so without running in debt,) Joiners and Masons may find it convenient to change work. Not being at home at the time of the fire, all his former stock of Paints and Glass was burnt, with a great part of his Furniture. Friends wishing to employ him are requested to call at a Shed at the back of his ruins in Dock-street, where he stands day and night, to keep out cold and let in light.

September 7, 1839.

New London Clothing AND FANCY WAREHOUSE.

No. 16, King-street.

THE subscriber in again soliciting the attention of the respectable inhabitants of St. John and the public generally, to his Establishment, would beg to tender them his sincere thanks for that kind and liberal patronage and support which he has hitherto received, and hopes by unremitting exertion in executing all orders entrusted to him to merit a further extension of their liberality. Persons desirous of being fitted well and obtaining durable and fashionable clothing would find it their interest to deal with him. Large families in particular would save considerably beside deriving much satisfaction by giving him their custom, as their interests will be carefully studied, and their orders faithfully and punctually executed; his long practice and experience in business and his determination to use the strictest economy in furnishing all articles ordered from him, induces him to believe that he shall be able to succeed in establishing a trade more satisfactory and on terms more liberal than has hitherto been offered in this city.
