CARD.

HOLDSWORTH & DANIEL return their sincere thanks to their friends for the very kind and prompt assistance rendered at the recent Fire.

They have taken the Stone Store in Prince William street, owned by John Walker, Esq. where they hope to resume their business in a few days. 24th Aug.

W. G. LAWTON respectfully tenders his warmest thanks to those Friends who so kindly came forward and rendered their assistance in removing his property on Saturday night last.

Persons having property in their possession belonging to him will please leave their names at his store in Mr. Sands Building in Prince William Street. 24th Aug.

CHARLES PATTON returns his most grateful acknowledgments to his friends and the public in general, for their kindness in saving his Goods and Household Furniture from the destructive Fire on the night of Saturday last.

Mr. P. also begs leave to state that he has taken the Store formerly occupied by Mr. David J. Merritt, situate between the Commercial Bank and the store of Mr. J. Millar, Market Square. Aug. 24.

☞ A small lot of Corn Brooms, a Teakettle, and two or three Irons, the property of some person unknown, are in Mr. P's. possession, and may be had on proving property and paying expences.

CHARLES M'LAUCHLAN begs to render his warmest acknowledgements to his friends and others who so kindly came to his assistance, to rescue his Goods from the fury of the awful conflagration of Saturday night last; and who, though successful in saving but a very small portion thereof, displayed an alacrity and willingness which will long be remembered with gratitude by him.

☞ He has taken an office over the store occupied by Messrs. Adam & Davidson, South Market wharf, where he will transact his business as usual. 24th Aug.

ALEXANDERS, BARRY & CO. desire their friends and the public to accept this, their public acknowledgement of thanks due, for the kind and effectual assistance granted them during the late calamitous Fire. For the good feeling of the community displayed towards them on the above unfortunate occasion, they will merely for the present express their gratitude.

24th August.

JAMES EDWARD CHIPMAN wishes to express his gratitude for the extremely kind attention of his friends and the public in their readiness to assist, and kind wishes for his safety. His stock of Goods fortunately being recently disposed of, enables him to inform those anxious of his welfare, that is loss is of no great amount.

 His place of Business is at present at J. & J. Alexander's, King street. 24th Aug.

THE undersigned, in tendering his heartfelt and very sincere thanks to his Friends and the Public, for their able and persevering efforts to preserve his Goods and property from the devouring element, during the awful visitation of an Inscrutible Providence, on the night of the 17th inst. feels that any language of his would fall far short and be quite inadequate to express his gratitude for such noble exertions.

Having, very unfortunately, had no Insurance effected, he embraces this opportunity, most respectfully and urgently, ty request those persons indebted to him, promptly to come forward and adjust their accounts, which is now the only way left him to discharge his liabilities and to resume his former business. To a community constituted as St. John, this appeal, he trusts, will not have been made in vain by one whose chief pleasure and study has been, during a long residence in this city, to deserve the countenance and support of a discerning Public.

24th Aug. RICHARD CALVERT, Jun.

MR. W. A. ROBERTSON returns his sincere thanks to his numerous friends for their voluntary and useful assistance in endeavoring to save his property from the ravages of the destructive Conflagration of Saturday night, and for which aid he will ever feel deeply grateful.

St. John, Aug. 24, 1839.

BARLOWS & KETCHUM beg to thank their friends and the public generally, for the prompt assistance afforded them during the Fire on Saturday evening. 24th Aug.

JAMES LOCKWOOD & CO. return their warmest thanks to these friends who so kindly came forward on the night of the late conflagration to assist them in rescuing their property from the devouring element.—They would also beg to inform their friends and the public that their present place of business is in Sands' Brick Building, Water street, next door North of W. H. Street, Esq. There is also an entrance from Prince William street by the West door in the Arcade. 24th Aug.

THE Subscriber has removed his Counting House to the City Bank Building near the Commissariat office—Warehouse and Lumber Yard at York Point on the North side of York Point Slip.

24th Aug. JOHN ROBERTSON.

ALEXANDER ROBERTSON begs to render his public and grateful acknowledgements to those of his friends who came to his assistance, and through whose exertions a small part of his Goods were saved from the fire on the awful night of Saturday last.

☞ He has removed his business to the Store No. 2, South side of Peters' Wharf. Aug. 24.

MESSRS. RATCHFORD & BROTHERS beg to offer their most grateful acknowledgements to those of their Fellow Citizens, and of their Military Friends, by whose persevering exertions so large a quantity of valuable Merchandize was saved from their Stores, during the recent conflagration. 24th Aug.

RATCHFORD & BROTHERS have taken an Office and two Flats for Storage in their own premises on the South Market Wharf, hitherto occupied by Messrs. Owens and Duncan. 24th Aug.

THE Subscriber begs to return his most sincere thanks to his friends, and particularly to the Members of the "Protection Fire Club," for their prompt and efficient assistance on Saturday night last, and begs to assure them that their kindness will not soon be forgotten.

24th Aug. JAMES ROBERTSON.

THE Subscriber begs to intimate that he will for the present conduct his Business in one of Messrs. Kinnear's Stores, viz., No. 1, Peters' wharf.

24th Aug. JAMES ROBERTSON.

THE Subscriber begs to return his sincere and most heartfelt thanks to his friends who came forward so manfully and rendered him such material assistance in saving his property on the night of the 17th inst.—and also begs to say, that their kindness shall ever be remembered by him with the warmest gratitude.

The Subscriber has opened that Shop in Germain street, owned by Mr. Younghusband, and three doors north of Princess street, where he offers for sale the remaining part of his Stock, comprising China, Glass, and Earthenware.

August 24. HENRY BUXTON.

THE Subscriber has removed to the Store adjoining Samuel Gould, Esq foot of Duke-st. formerly occupied by James T. Hanford, Esq.

Aug. 24. JOHN V. THURGAR.

MR. THURGAR returns thanks for the assistance afforded him on the night of the 17th inst. in rescuing his Goods from the Fire.

August 24.

D. & F. LEAVITT, beg to return their unfeigned thanks to their numerous friends who assisted in endeavouring to save from the fire on Saturday night last, their property from destruction; and particularly to Messs. John Ford and Thomas M'Guire for their exertions in saving the Books and papers of the Firm.

Aug. 24.

HENRY BLAKSLEE takes pleasure in acknowledging the favours done him by a number of his friends, who kindly came to his assistance on the occasion of the late Fire, and thereby saved from loss a large part of his Goods.

In consequence of the late Fire, he has removed his business to the Store lately occupied by Messrs. D. & P. HATFIELD, Ward Street, and after acknowledging the many favors received from his numerous customers and the Public generally, he solicits a continuance of their patronage in common with others, sufferers by the late calamity and in return will endeavour to give suitable acknowledgements by liberal dealing and a just regard to their interests. 24th Aug.

REMOVAL.

THOMAS EDWARD MILLIDGE having been compelled by the late calamitous fire to remove from Nelson street, will continue business as Commission Merchant, &c. in the Office adjoining that of Messrs. G. D. Robinson & Co. on Peters' wharf.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF
His Excellency, Sir JOHN HARVEY, K. C. B. and K. C. H. &c. &c. and by Permission of His Worship the Mayor.

MR. RODGERS respectfully intimates to the inhabitants of Saint John that he intends to deliver TWO LECTURES on scenes in India, at the long room of St. John Hotel, to commence on Monday Evening next. Mr. R. feeling the importance of mingling delight with historical instruction, has provided an apparatus for introducing by illustrations about forty Paintings, taken from scenes of real life in India.

The above Paintings are exhibited on a canvass twelve feet square.

The first Lecture will treat upon the Situation, Extent, Population, Government, Soil, Climate, and Productions, with a description of Calcutta, and of the Manners and Customs of Europeans and Americans there, as well as of the natives.

The second Lecture will consist of a description of their Gods, Marriage and Burial Ceremonies, and of some of the barbarous Religious Ceremonies of these Idolators, and conclude with some brief and general remarks upon the subject of Missions and Schools.

Doors open at half-past 7 o'clock, and Lecture to commence precisely at 8 o'clock, on the evening of the 26th instant.

Admittance 1s. 3d. each evening, children half price.

TICKETS may be obtained at the different Book Stores in this City, and at the Saint John Hotel. Aug. 24.
