THE SCHOOL OF THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE

NOW OPEN.

THE following modified scale of Fees for Tuition of Classes formed under the patronage of the Mechanics' Institute, has been adopted by the Managing Committee.

Apprentices who enter the classes taught from 7 till 9, p. m. to pay 7s. 6d. per quarter for instruction in Penmanship, Arithmetic, and Mathematics.—Those who learn Drawing to pay 12s. 6d. per quarter, which will include the instructions above mentioned.

Master Mechanics and others who enter the above classes, to pay 10s. per quarter for Penmanship, Arithmetic and Mathematics. Drawing 20s. per quarter, which will also include the Literary Instruction, if required.

The Drawing classes will be instructed from 7 till 9 o'clock, and their studies will comprise all the branches of practical Mathematics, together with Mechanical and Picturesque Drawing.

Persons who may enter the Class assembling between 6 and 7 o'clock, p. m. for instruction in the French and English languages, to pay 5s. per quarter.

Persons who may enter into the Class assembling between 9 and 10 o'clock, p. m. for instruction in Mathematics and in the Greek and Latin languages, to pay 5s. per quarter.

The Directors of the Mechanics' Institute merely contemplated the formation of the Class assembling between the hours of 7 and 9; but to adapt the Seminary to the wants of all the members of our community, it has been found necessary to add to this, the Classes to be taught between 6 and 7 and between 9 and 10 o'clock.

☞The fees in all cases are payable, in advance, to the Treasurer of the Institute.

SCHOOL OF ARTS.

MR. FOULIS intimates to his Friends and the Public, that he has engaged that commodious Room in Horsfield-street, lately occupied by Mr. Gianinni, and known as the Friary, for the SCHOOL OF ARTS. He is now making arrangements for commencing the Second Session, and trusts that those Gentlemen who so kindly supported his exertions last winter will again enable him to meet successfully a respectable competition. Mr. F. begs to assure them that he is taking every pains to produce an extensive series of Experimental Illustrations, with a view to combine instruction with amusement, and excite a laudable curiosity for further research.

A sylabus of the Lectures to be given, will appear when the arrangements are completed.
