New London Clothing
AND
FANCY WAREHOUSE,
No. 16, King-street.

THE subscriber in again soliciting the attention of the respectable inhabitants of St. John and the publicegenerally, to his Establishment, would beg to tender them his sincere thanks for that kind and liberal patronage and support which he has hitherto received, and hopes by unremitting exertion in executing all orders entrusted to him to merit a further extension of their liberality. Persons desirous of being fitted well and obtaining durable and fashionable clothing would find it their interest to deal with him. Large families in particular would save considerably beside deriving much satisfaction by giving him their custom, as their interests will be carefully studied, and their orders faithfully and punctually executed; his long practice and experience in business and his determination to use the strictest economy in furnishing all articles ordered from him, induces him to believe that he shall be able to succeed in establishing a trade more satisfactory and on terms more liberal than has hitherto been offered in this city.
