DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

I wish to let my friends and customers see,
What destruction has happened to Sir William and me.
At the burning of Dock-street, I am sorry to say,
From my good natured partner I had to run away.
A warrior he was, and that you will know
From powder and balls he never would go;
When the flames they were raging to him I did say
Sir William come with me and make no delay,
A chieftain he was and a Scotchman so brave,
He died in the fire my fortune to save.
His courage was bold—his honor was good—
He fell by the fire and was burned up like wood;
It is for his remains I am searching in vain,
So faithful a partner I'll ne'er meet again;
It is five years and better since we went in Co.
The Blue Noses and Yankees to us were no foes,
A figure head he was—and that you may see—
He was put up at Auction, and knocked down to me. JOHN TOOLE.

All persons having any legal demands against the Estate of the late Sir William, of this City, are requested to hand in their claims for adjustment, and all persons indebted, are desired to make payment without delay.

VALUABLE PROPERTY

FOR SALE.

TO BE SOLD, that well known FARM at Sussex Vale, formerly belonging to the late Hon. George H. Hazen, at present owned and occupied by Thomas Corey, containing upwards of 300 acres and bounding upon the great Westmorland Road. Possession to be given on the day of sale. The Property is subject to two mortgages, amounting together to the sum of £900, besides some arrears of interest; but further time, if required, say 6 or 7 years, will be given for payment of the largest mortgage, £600, upon Bond being entered into by the purchaser for such payment, with interest half-yearly. Should the above property not be disposed of by private sale before the 28th day of October next, it will then be sold at Public auction on the premises. Further information may be obtained on reference to William Wright or J. H. Gray, Esquires, St. John, or upon application to the subscriber. THOMAS COREY.

SINGING SCHOOL.

Sacred Vocal Music.

MR. BENNISON announces his intention of opening a SINGING SCHOOL in the course of the ensuing month, but being unable for the present to obtain a suitable room, he is prevented from stating the precise time of commencement. Anticipating respectable patronage from the public generally, he would suggest the propriety of attending the first lessons of practice, as a thorough knowledge of the elementary part of Vocal Music is decidedly the most essential in producing good practical performers.

Evenings of Tuition—Mondays and Thursdays. Terms—12s. 6d. per Quarter, half in advance.

☞ Subscription paper at the store of Mr. JAMES BUSTIN. 28th September.

UNION HARMONY, &c.

THIS Work is now in press and will be ready for delivery in about two months.

MR. A. BEYER'S

Music Academy,

On Mr. Logier's system,

(FIRST ESTABLISHED IN ENGLAND IN 1816,)

IS open Daily for the INSTRUCTION of Pupils on the PIANO-FORTE, including Lectures on HARMONY and COMPOSITION.

This admirable system combines the best principles of the Art of Playing on the Piano-Forte, with the true theory of the Science of Music,—conveyed to the mind, even of the youngest pupil, by the most familiar and irresistible progression. From the practice of playing in full concert, the earliest habits of regularity in time, so difficult to be attained by any other means, are easily and speedily acquired; and by the judicious division of the classes every possible scope is given to youthful emulation.

DAYS AND HOURS OF ATTENDANCE.

The Pupils are divided into classes. Each class attends two days in the week, and remains two hours each day.

A preparatory class is now formed for Beginners only. A Reduction will be made in the Terms for the first year.

PRIVATE LESSONS

On the PIANO-FORTE and SINGING, at the Academy, or at the Pupil's residence.

Mr. BEYER will give lessons on the HARP GUITAR, VIOLIN, on Mr. Louis Spohr's system, (This system begins with the first rudiments of Music, and gradually proceeds to the most finished style of performance.) FLUTE, CLARINET, VIOLONCELLO, KEYED BUGLE, &c.

☞ PIANO-FORTES Tuned and Repaired.

N. B.—Mr. Beyer has for the present taken part of Mr. Merritt's House, in Brittain street, where further particulars will be made known on application. Orders for Tuning, &c. left at the Phœnix Book and Stationery Warehouse, will receive immediate attention.
