POSTSCRIPT.

By arrivals at New York on Saturday last, from Great Britain, we have been put in possession of dates from London to the 25th and from Liverpool to the 24th December,—Four Days later than previous advices.

The New York Commercial of the evening of February 2d gives the following summary of late intelligence:—

The steamer Liverpool arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 21st December, having sailed from New-York on the 6th. She carried out the President's Message. The Courier (Ministerial), remarks on that portion of it, relating to the invasions of Canada: "the language used with respect to Canada must be received as a satisfactory reply to the charges laid against Mr. Van Buren by party hostility."

The same paper pronounces the correspondence between Col. Worth and Col. Dundas, "creditable to the feelings of both officers."

The Liverpool made her passage in 14 days and 10 hours. The passengers presented to Captain Fayrer a gold snuff box, with a letter, in which they complimented him and his vessel very highly.

The Queen was enjoying herself at Brighton, while Lord Melbourne, mirabile dictu, was giving audience and transacting business in London.

The Manchester Chamber of Commerce, after a long debate, adopted an amended petition for the immediate and total abolition of the duties on corn. The original petition was for melioration of the corn laws.

Orders had been sent post haste to Ireland, for the immediate embarkation of troops—the 2d Dragoon Guards—for England, in consequence of the disturbances in the Northern counties. They were embarked in steam-packets for Liverpool.

The boy who pretended he had been concealed a year in the Queen's Palace, on his final examination confessed that he had got in only the day before.

The supply of Grain in the London market was short. The arrivals of foreign wheat were moderately large, and sales were made at an advance of one to two shillings per quarter on fine descriptions.

LORD DURHAM'S PLAN FOR CANADA.—A letter from Quebec is published in the Courier of the 24th, professing to give an outline of what Lord Durham intends to propose in Parliament, respecting the Canadas. Its principal features are:—To abolish the name of Canada, and divide the two Provinces into four, with the names of Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, and Toronto—these, with the Province of New Brunswick, &c. to bear the general name of British North America. This British North America to have a Secretary and office for itself in London, and be governed by a Viceroy. Each Province to have its own Legislature, and the whole country to be divided into Municipalities, the people thereof electing their own officers. The Clergy reserves, Jesuits Estates, and all funds for education to be thrown into one general fund, and distributed among the school districts. Each Province to send one or more members to the British Parliament. Great arrangements to be made for internal improvement and for steam navigation with England.

A correspondence is published between Sir Francis Head and Lord Melbourne, the former asking his Lordship's consent to publish the official correspondence which led to his (Sir F. Head's) resignation. Lord Melbourne replied very briefly, that Sir F. must consult his own pleasure, but that he (Lord M.) could not sanction a step so unusual and objectionable. To this the Baronet replied, that by the withholding of "sanction," he considered himself precluded from publishing the official correspondence.

Important informat on had been received from India, in a despatch, dated Simia, October 1, from Lord Auckland, Governor General.

The despatch sets forth the causes and objects of the recent military movements in India, and gives a full programme of the measures resolved upon by the Governor General, of which the following is an outline:—Shah Sujah to be replaced on the throne of Caubul. To this end a treaty was negociated with Shah Sooja and Runjeet Singh, by which the latter is guaranteed in his present possessions (part of them having been wrested from the Afghans) and on his part to co-operate in the restoration of Shah Sooja. The friends and enemies of either of the contracting parties to be accounted friends and enemies of all. A guaranteed independence to be tendered the Ameers of Sinde, and the integrity of Herat to be secured, under its present sovereign, Kham Ran. Shah Sooja to enter Afghanistan with his own troops, supported by a British army, the latter to be withdrawn when he is firmly established on the throne.

In pursuance of these stipulations, Mr. M'Naghten, Secretary to the government of India, has been appointed Envoy and Minister at the Court of Shah Sooja; and Capt. Burnes, the distinguished traveller, Envoy to Herat and other Courts, under Mr. M'Naghten's directions.

In France, M. Dupin has been elected President of the Chamber of Deputies, and Messieurs Calmon, Passy and Duchatel, Vice Presidents, by an Opposition which has been formed by the coalition of the Doctrinaires, Tiers Parti, and Gauche.

This coalition appears to have a decided majority in the Chambers, and it was believed that a new ministry would be formed, with the Duke de Broglie for its head. Thiers and Guizot would probably form part of it.

The evacuation of Ancona by the French troops had been carried into effect.

The Bank of Belgium had stopped payment—an event which caused no little alarm and sensation at Brussels, Antwerp, Leige, &c.

The death of Field Marshal Prince Wrede, of Bavaria, at the age of seventy-two, is announced.—He distinguished himself in the Napoleon wars.

The Speech of the Queen of Portugal at the opening of the Cortes on the 9th of December, presents nothing of interest.

The Handesblad (Dutch paper) affirms that the British Government has notified the Government of Belgium, that the first gun fired on its part will be considered a declaration of war against Europe.

The Steamer Liverpool had not arrived at New York on the evening of the 2d inst. at which time, had she started, she would have been 23 days out. Doubts are entertained of her having left at the supposed time, owing, it is said, to a new arrangement which was in contemplation being likely to take place.

LATEST FROM VERA CRUZ.—The French Brig Therese Louise arrived at New Orleans on the 17th ultimo, from Vera Cruz, with 106 French passengers, late residents, in the Mexican Republic.—The Therese Louise sailed on the 4th. Nothing important had occurred since the date of our previous advices. The English fleet of twelve sail, including two seventy-four's, were still at Vera Cruz and Sacrificios. The New-Orleans Bulletin states, on the authority of letters from Mexico, that Mr. Packenham, the British functionary who accompanies the fleet, so far from interfering in behalf of the Mexicans, "is about to join the French in making imperative demands of redress for spoilations committed on the property of British citizens and other grievances of a similar nature. The impression prevails generally, that if the demand is not immediately and satisfactorily answered, that the fleet of Her Majesty will co-operate with the French blockading squadron and coerce the semi-barbarians of Mexico into the payment of their honest debts. While England and France are thus earnestly pressing their jusr claims, would it not be advisable for Uncle Sam to look out for his own, and come in for a share of the plunder? A proposition we understand was made to our Executive to join the coalition with France and England, but was declined by the cabinet at Washington, from a reluctauce to become implicated in the politics of European sovereignties. The most perfect cordiality existed between the French ahd English commanders.

The Mexican Government, following the example of Admiral Baudin had issued orders prohibiting the landing of cargoes at Vera Cruz.

The deceased was interred in the burial ground of Saint Paul's Chapel, with the usual military honours due to his rank in the Army, attended by the Officers of the Garrison, and several highly respectable gentlemen of the Island. He was a gallant soldier and an honest man.—During the mournful ceremony, the Hercules sailed with the 36th on board, for Halifax—Barbadian.

At Barbadoes, on the 9th January, after an illness ot nearly three weeks, Captain POLKINGHORNE, of Her Majesty's Ship Crocodile. We have seldom had to record the death of a more meritorious officer or deserving man. Fond of his profession, and zealous and active in the discharge of nis public duties, his life was almost wholly passed upon the ocean. He ranked high in the estimation of his superiors in the Navy, and was warmly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.
