six steam vessels, with minor craft in full proportion, amounting to more than a thousand sail.—The manning of these ships, we remark by the way, is as follows:—first rate, all of three decks, 433 to 533 men; second, 80 guns and upward, 312 to 362; third, 70 guns, and less than 80, 309 to 359; fourth, 50 guns, and less than 70, 164 to 264; fifth, 36 guns, and less than 50, 124 to 144; sixth, 24 guns, and less than 36, 18 to 63; sloops, 18 to 16 guns, brigs, cutters, etc. 14 to 6 guns, 6 to 50 men.

The British force is, therefore, more than equal to the combined naval powers of France, Russia, and the United States. Against this vast array of strength, our own navy shows a poor contrast.—Its utter inefficiency for the protection of our coast or contention with the navy of Great Britain (and France too,) in case of war, is shown by the annexed statement.

The ships of the line are:—the Franklin, Washington, Columbus, Ohio, North Carolina, Delaware, Alabama, Vermont, Virginia, New York, and Pennsylvania; the three first named vessels carrying 74 guns, and the others 80, with the exception of the last named, which has 120. The Franklin and Washington require repairs; the Alabama, Vermont, Virginia, and New-York are building. Besides the razee Independence, then, there are of frigates of the first class:—the United States, Constitution, Guerriere, which is much decayed and requires to be rebuilt; Java, unfit for service; Potomac, requires large repairs; Hudson, unfit for service; and the Brandywine requiring repairs; Sabine, building; Cumberland, building; Santee, building; Savannah, building; Raritan, building; Columbia, new, and Saint Lawrence, building. The frigates of the second class, are the Constellation and Macedonian. The sloops of war are:—the Cyane, building; Levant, building; John Adams, Boston, Lexington, Vincennes, requiring large repairs; Warren, the same; Natchez, Falmouth, Fairfield, Vandalia, Saint Louis, Concord, Erie, Ontario, Peacock. The Hermaphrodite brigs are the Dolphin and the Porpoise. The schooners are:—the Grampus, Shark, Enterprise, Boxer, Experiment, Pilot, Fox, hulk, condemned; Sea Gull Galliot, receiving vessel; Relief, barque Pioneer, barque Consort, schooner Active. Thirty-one of these are in commission.
