DR. M'MUNN'S Celebrated Elixir of Opium,

IS a new chemical preparation of Opium, embracing all the medicinal qualities in a natural state of combination, to the exclusion of those which are deleterious and useless. It is superior to every other form of opiate, such as Laudanum, Paregoric, Morphine, Denarcotised Laudanum, &c. &c. as has been fully proved and now duly acknowledged by the most eminent Physicians, Surgeons, and Chemists, and a single trial will convince the most incredulous of its own intrinsic value. Its use is not followed by any of the disagreeable effects which invariably attend the ordinary preparations of opium, such as constipation, head-ache, tremors, nausea, and vomiting; but it may be taken in doses to allay all suffering with perfect safety and entire success. All who from necessity, or other causes are obliged to use an opiate, will find in the Elixir a most gratifying substitute, as it invigorates all the powers of nature without being followed by a corresponding state of depression. Dr. A. W. Ives, A. M., of New-York City, used nearly a hundred ounces himself during a very painful and protracted illness after every thing else had failed to give relief.—"His life was prolonged months by its peculiar virtues." For other similar communications, and its trials in hospitals, &c. see directions with the medicine. Sold wholesale and retail by A. B. & D. SANDS, Nos. 79 and 100, Fulton-street, and by most respectable Druggists in the United States, and at the Circulating Library, in this City, by A. R. TRURO, Agent for New-Brunswick.

CAUTION—Purchasers are respectfully requested to beware of all spurious imitations, and observe the written signature of John B. M'Munn on every vial, without which none can possibly be genuine. St. John, 11th January, 1840.
