To CORRESPONDENTS.—"No Stranger" has been received, but at too late an hour to be attended to-day; its publication, entire, would be startling to parties 'who live in glass houses,' but we will keep it in view next week, when, perhaps, we shall publish a part of it.

"Zebulon Skinner's" caustic and skinning communication on "the Statute of Limitations," did not come to hand until this morning. We feel obliged to him for his lucid article, and shall make use of it according to circumstances. As he has kindly promised to continue the subject, and to "enter fully, freely and fairly upon the matter in discussion," we shall at all times feel honoured by his attentions to our character and interest as public Journalists.

"Long Paw" may be just in his remarks on our Clerical friend, but still we beg in the mean time to withhold his well intended remarks. Our whole career has been devoted more to the elucidation of truth, than the rigid punishment of delinquents: "Every dog has his day."

☞ On Sunday next, (To-morrow,) a Sermon will be preached in St. George's Church, Carleton, by the Ven. GEORGE COSTER, A. M. Archdeacon of New-Brunswick, and Rector of Fredericton, on behalf of the "Church Society of the Archdeaconry of New-Brunswick," and after the Sermon a Collection taken up in aid of its funds.—Divine Service to commence at 11 o'clock.

Bridgewater's "Service" will be performed by the Choir.

A considerable addition has just been made to the Church, which will be open to the public, and every accommodation otherwise afforded to strangers.

Wilmot; Ben Nevis, Bryson, Liverpool, timber and deals—H., J. & D. Mackay; Harmony, Jamieson, New Orleans, ballast—S. Wiggins & Son; Abigail, Pickance, Liverpool, timber—Milby & Thomas.

Brig St. Mary, Pierce, West Indies, fish, lumber, &c.—John Hammond; Pink, Porter, Belfast, deals and staves—J. & H. Kinnear; Comet, Gilpin, London, oil, deals, &c.—James Kirk; Stillman, Allan, Greenock, deals and staves—Eaton, Burnham & Co.

Schr. Nile, Vaughan, Halifax, assorted cargo—Master.

Ship William A. Black, of this port, stranded on Wood Island, on the 24th ultimo, has been since got off, and towed into Grand Harbour, a place of safety, where she remains in the care of the Commissioner of Wrecks at that place. Her sails and part of her materials have been brought to St. John, and the cargo is yet on board. The ship is greatly injured, and it is doubtful whether she will be worth repairing.

Schr. Banner, Lingley, and ——— Patterson, hence, for Boston, put into Portland on the 31st ult.

Packet ship South America, at New-York, spoke on the 24th Nov., lat. 51, long. 8, barque Recovery, 7 weeks from St. John, for Bristol; she had had her decks swept of every thing; lost her sails and boat, and was short of provisions—had only seven pounds of beef on board: the S. A. supplied her.—Dec. 10th, lat. 44 22, long. 44 52, spoke brig Trusty, from Liverpool for St. John.

ANOTHER FORTUNATE RESCUE.—The packet ship Rhone, arrived on Sunday from Havre, when in lat. 49 10, long. 6 24, on the 22d November, fell in with the British barque Bolinda, of Troon, (Scotland,) Capt. M'Nichol, bound to Malta, with coal, and took off the captain, mate and ten men. It appears that on the 17th of November, while lying to in a heavy gale, the barque was struck by a tremendous sea on the starboard bow, which carried away the bowsprit, foremast and maintopmast, and swept the decks of the binnacle, both boats, stancheons, spare spars, and almost every article on the decks. The second mate, John Reid, and four of the crew were washed overboard at the same time—two of the latter were saved.—The second mate, and William Irwin, cook, and James Cummings, seaman, perished. The gale continued very heavy, and the barque unmanageable, up to the 22d, the sea making a complete breach over her. When the crew were taken off, the gale was still severe, and nothing but the lives of the unfortunate men could be saved; and this would not have been effected, it is believed, had it not been for Francis' life boat, which was used to take them off. This boat was stove in getting out by the sea, but owing to her buoyant properties, it made no difference, and succeeded in taking them off in two boat loads. It is believed that the barque went down shortly after the crew left.—New-York Sun, December 29.

SINGULAR ESCAPE.—A vessel was recently capsized near the Scilly Islands, so suddenly that she did not fill with water, the internal air being confined, and three men and a boy, who were in the cabin, were shut in, and remained three days without food, and were afterwards rescued.—New-York Standard.

Halifax, Dec. 31.—Arrived brig Helen & Eliza beth, M'Naughton, Newcastle, 56 days, coal, &c. bound to St. John, N. B.—short of provisions and water, lost jib-boom, &c.—Arrived schr. Hesperus, Melick, St. Peters, N. F. via Canso, molasses.
