

CANADA.

CANADA.—In the House of Assembly, on the 23rd of June, a long and spirited debate on the right of petition. Mr. Small offered a petition asking remuneration for the loss of a horse while on military service.

On fully selected committee to which the matter had been referred, reported in favour of subscribing for 500 copies of the Mirror of Parliament in which the debates are given at length.

Mr. Allan McNair gave notice that he should move an address to the Governor General, asking for a copy of the instructions he received on assuming the government of the Province.

The doings of the Parliament seem not to give much satisfaction. The King's Gazette says: "This day closes the third week of the sittings of the united Legislature, from whose exertions the country anticipated so much, and to whose labours it has been so long indebted."

Among the petitions presented on the 2nd, was one from the Rev. Mr. Small, praying for the restoration of his rights as British subjects, by the Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor General defining the limits of the Province, and praying to be restored to his privileges.

What has been done by the representatives of the people of Upper Canada at least, has been at once frankly and fully stated; and the machinery by which the administration can do its part, fully established.

Mr. S. B. Harrison was elected member for the town of Kingston, without opposition, no other candidate appearing.

To His Excellency Sir Wm. Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

The Humble Address of the Common Council of the City of Saint John.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, for this special purpose convened in Common Council, beg leave most respectfully to present to your Excellency, and to have the honour to represent, to welcome Your Excellency most cordially on your first visit to the commercial metropolis of New-Brunswick.

Yielding to no other part of Her Majesty's wide extended dominions in loyalty to the Throne and attachment to the Constitution, and which we have the happiness to live, it affords us much pleasure and satisfaction that Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to select a person of Your Excellency's acknowledged talents and ability to administer the Government of the Province, and we trust that your endeavours to render those institutions more useful and beneficial than heretofore may be crowned with success.

In conclusion we beg leave to recommend to Your Excellency's consideration the Trade and Commerce of our City; and feel assured that they will at all times receive your protection and patronage.

WILLIAM BLACK, Mayor. By order of the Common Council. JAS. PETERS, Jr. C. C.

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John.

Gentlemen.—The City of Saint John has been long distinguished for its Commercial enterprise, intelligence, and public spirit, that I have regretted my inability to visit it earlier period.

I am highly gratified by the confidence you express in my disposition to advance your prosperity and that of the Province at large, and I rely on this as an earnest of that support which I hope to receive in the prosecution of measures for improving the Institutions and developing the resources of the Province, as well as your liberal co-operation I hope to secure with you.

To extend the Commerce of the City, cannot fail to contribute largely to the general welfare, and I look forward with confidence to your community becoming, not less distinguished for its wealth, than for the spirit with which it is applied to objects of public and general improvement.

I request to return my sincere thanks for the Address which you have presented me, and which cannot be otherwise than highly gratifying to me as Her Majesty's Representative.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE. St. John, 15th July, 1841.

To His Excellency Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the President, Officers, and members of the Saint George's Society, beg respectfully to offer our congratulations to Your Excellency's safe arrival in the Province, and for the selection made by our most gracious Sovereign in appointing Your Excellency as Her Majesty's Representative for the administration of the Government of New Brunswick.

The public services of Your Excellency in the Colonies, have been recorded in the pages of its history, and for the selection made by our most gracious Sovereign in appointing Your Excellency as Her Majesty's Representative for the administration of the Government of New Brunswick.

The principal object of the Saint George's Society is, Charity, in providing means for the relief of the distressed, and in promoting the education of the poor, and in the selection of the most worthy and virtuous persons to fill the offices of the Government of New Brunswick.

Our sincere wishes are for the health of Lady Colebrooke, and the members of Your Excellency's family.

To the President, Officers, and Members of the Saint George's Society.

Gentlemen.—I have much satisfaction in recognizing the existence of a Society in this distant quarter of Her Majesty's dominions, with so benevolent an object as that for which you are associated. The character of its objects, and the great degree of estimation in which it is held, are a great recommendation to its success.

Accept my sincere acknowledgments for the welcome you have given to me as the representative of the Province, and for the services you repose in my disposal to be of service to you, and for the good wishes for the safety of Lady Colebrooke and my family.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE. St. John, 15th July, 1841.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the members of the Saint Andrew's Society of this city, beg to congratulate Your Excellency on your arrival in this Province, and your assumption of its Government.

We are desirous likewise of taking the earliest opportunity of expressing our warmest wishes and devoted attachment to your Majesty, and to the Government, and to the Laws and Institutions which form the mighty bulwark of our Nation, and which every true Briton is bound to revere.

Although the design and objects of our Society are confined entirely to charitable purposes, we cannot but be anxious to see the Province, and your Excellency's appointment to its administration, as a mark of the confidence and respect which the Province, and the people, have in your administration of its affairs will prove beneficial to the interests of the people, and the maintenance of Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative.

Accept my sincere acknowledgments for the welcome you have given to me as the representative of the Province, and for the services you repose in my disposal to be of service to you, and for the good wishes for the safety of Lady Colebrooke and my family.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE. St. John, 15th July, 1841.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Members of the Chamber of Trades of the City of Saint John, esteem ourselves most happy in having an opportunity of thus addressing you; in doing so we are fully aware of the importance of paying that respect to your Excellency which is due to the distinguished character and services which you have rendered to the Province, and we are fully aware of the value of our institutions; and for the confidence which you have reposed in us, we are fully aware of the value of our institutions; and for the confidence which you have reposed in us, we are fully aware of the value of our institutions.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Members of the Chamber of Trades of the City of Saint John, esteem ourselves most happy in having an opportunity of thus addressing you; in doing so we are fully aware of the importance of paying that respect to your Excellency which is due to the distinguished character and services which you have rendered to the Province, and we are fully aware of the value of our institutions; and for the confidence which you have reposed in us, we are fully aware of the value of our institutions.

We would respectfully beg to request your Excellency, that when Lord Selkirk visited this Province, a year since, he expressed a hope that the Mechanics of this City, whom he was pleased to compliment highly, should, at no distant period, become a chartered body, and that the most encouraging prospects for the Emigrant, and I cordially join with you in hoping that the settlement of so fine a colony, maintaining so constant intercourse with the United Kingdom, and by the opening of its shores all who are able to cooperate with you.

Considering the extent of territory to be reclaimed, and the magnitude of the undertaking, we are fully persuaded that the most encouraging prospects for the Emigrant, and I cordially join with you in hoping that the settlement of so fine a colony, maintaining so constant intercourse with the United Kingdom, and by the opening of its shores all who are able to cooperate with you.

On behalf of the Chamber of Trades. JOHN BARKER, President. JOHN BARKER, Vice President. JOHN BARKER, Secretary.

To the President and Members of the Chamber of Trades.

GENTLEMEN.—The mercantile and commercial character of the City of Saint John, and the enterprising spirit for which it is distinguished, have been calculated to raise the importance of every class of the community; and the interest of the public demand that such associations should be formed, and that their constitution is, to derive its strength and support from the equal protection it affords to its rights and interests in the impartial administration of the laws.

I am highly gratified by the confidence you express in my disposition to advance your prosperity and that of the Province at large, and I rely on this as an earnest of that support which I hope to receive in the prosecution of measures for improving the Institutions and developing the resources of the Province, as well as your liberal co-operation I hope to secure with you.

To His Excellency Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Magistrates and others, Inhabitants of the County of Westmorland, avail ourselves of the opportunity afforded by Your Excellency's visit to the County, to offer our congratulations on your Excellency's assumption of the Government of this Province.

The long and successful experience which Your Excellency has had in public life, with the interest already manifested by Your Excellency in the affairs of this Province, by this early visiting its different parts, and becoming acquainted, from local observation, with its agriculture, and the various sources of its wealth, afford us the strongest pledge that this Province will, under Your Excellency's administration, rapidly advance in the career of social improvement and prosperity.

As an object in which we feel a peculiar local interest, we would intimate to Your Excellency, that the most important and interesting objects of the County of Westmorland, are the improvement of the navigation of the Bay of Fundy, and we venture to express a hope, that this long contemplated and truly national object may, under Your Excellency's auspices, be undertaken and accomplished.

With anxious wishes for the safe passage and early arrival of Lady Colebrooke and family. Sackville, July 12, 1841.

To the Magistrates and others, Inhabitants of the County of Westmorland.

Gentlemen.—Although my visit to the several Counties of the Province, is not required to impress me with a conviction of its great resources, and of the disposition of its inhabitants, I have derived peculiar satisfaction in the opportunity it has afforded to me of estimating these from personal observation. A community animated by such a spirit and possessing so many resources, cannot fail to realize the prosperity which is so justly ascribed to it.

Accept my sincere acknowledgments for the welcome you have given to me as the representative of the Province, and for the services you repose in my disposal to be of service to you, and for the good wishes for the safety of Lady Colebrooke and my family.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE. Sackville, July 12, 1841.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Macbride Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Magistrates and principal inhabitants of the County of Kent, beg leave, most respectfully to present to your Excellency, and to have the honour to represent, to welcome Your Excellency most cordially on your first visit to the Province.

We approach the Representative of our most gracious Sovereign, with the warmest wishes and devoted attachment to your Majesty, and to the Government, and to the Laws and Institutions which form the mighty bulwark of our Nation, and which every true Briton is bound to revere.

Although the design and objects of our Society are confined entirely to charitable purposes, we cannot but be anxious to see the Province, and your Excellency's appointment to its administration, as a mark of the confidence and respect which the Province, and the people, have in your administration of its affairs will prove beneficial to the interests of the people, and the maintenance of Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE. Richibucto, 6th July, 1841.

To the Magistrates and principal Inhabitants of the County of Kent.

GENTLEMEN.—I receive with great satisfaction the Address which you have presented me on my arrival in this County. Although the time is short which I am at present allowed to devote to the Province, it has afforded me an ample opportunity of appreciating the resources of the County, and the spirit of its inhabitants.

Accept my sincere acknowledgments for the welcome you have given to me as the representative of the Province, and for the services you repose in my disposal to be of service to you, and for the good wishes for the safety of Lady Colebrooke and my family.
