OF the various Institutions for the Assurance of Lives, which have been established in this country, none have been attended with such complete and decided success as those based upon the principle of MUTUAL ASSURANCE, in which all the accumulated Profits belong exclusively to the Assured. The experience of nearly a century has proved, incontestably, that these Societies are perfectly safe, and do not require the aid of a permanent subscribed Capital. The same experience has shown that, when well regulated, they are capable of yielding large profits to Policy-holders, such as under no other system can be realized.

It is upon this tried and approved principle of MUTUAL ASSURANCE, that the GREAT BRITAIN LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY has been established. The object of its founders has been—not only to present to the public an Institution for the Assurance of Lives, in which the Policy-holders may enjoy all the advantages offered to them by the best regulated of these Societies—but also, by extending the principle of Life Assurance to cases wherein its application has been hitherto deemed impracticable, to afford the means of providing for a surviving family to those by whom so inestimable a benefit could not otherwise be attained.

The extension in question is effected—

By giving Credit (without security) to persons effecting Assurances, either on their own lives or the lives of others, for Half the Amount of the First Five Annual Premiums;—thus enabling them to secure a provision for their Families, or the repayment of a Loan or Debt, with the least possible present outlay, and at the same time enjoy, ultimately, all the advantages they could have derived by paying the full amount of premiums in advance, in the usual way.

By this extension of its principle, it is assumed that Life Assurance will henceforth be much more frequently resorted to by all provident members of the community, and that the superiority of the plan of this Society will be at once admitted and appreciated.

The Rates of Premium of the "GREAT BRITAIN" will be found not essentially to differ from the average rates of such Societies. They have been computed with great care and labour expressly for the use of this Establishment; and are sufficiently high to afford perfect Security, even under the most adverse circumstances, to the Policy-holders; whilst, under ordinary circumstances, it is calculated that the Profit or Surplus (after setting apart the amount required to provide for all outstanding liabilities) will be sufficient to enable the Managers to recommend a reduction of at least 40 per cent. on the future premiums payable on each Policy, after it shall have been in force during five years. In comparing these rates with those of other Institutions, it must be constantly borne in mind, that in every Life Assurance Office the ultimate security of the Assured must entirely depend on the sufficiency of the Rates of Premium;—that, in order to be safe, the rates must always exceed the amount necessary to provide for the sums assured; and that this excess, which, in Establishments differently constituted, is either wholly or partially lost to the Policy-holders, is, in a Society constituted like the "GREAT BRITAIN," set apart and eventually restored to them. The Profits of such a Society are, in fact, savings out of the contributions of the Members, and as such are accumulated in the best possible way, for their advantage. Nov. 20.—Obs & Chron.

THIS SOCIETY is established on the system most approved in England, and founded on a basis so sound, as to give the most effectual security to the Investor as well as the Borrower. The principal advantages of the Society are—

1st—No money is lent but on security on Real Property.

2d—New Members are admitted up to the time the Society will end, with equal proportionate advantages.

3d—Any Member may withdraw the amount of his Shares, with the compound interest thereon, at any time, with a month's notice.

4th—Members may invest their Money in PAID UP SHARES, which Money, at the termination of the Society, (11 years and 7 months) will necessarily be doubled—£60 at the commencement being worth £120 at the conclusion.

5th—Mortgages can be repaid at any time with proper notice.

6th—The Accounts and Bank Book are open for the inspection of members at every monthly meeting.

7th—Securities given by all Officers of Trust.
