MESSRS. CRERAR beg leave to say that it is their most anxious wish to secure an AFTERNOON MINOR CLASS, from 4 to 6 o'clock, exclusively for young Misses and Masters; knowing that, ultimately, it will prove the best test of their merits as teachers of Dancing. A few little Misses have already joined the Class, —and, with due deference, they would recommend to parents and guardians who desire to see their young people not only excel in the polite accomplishment of Dancing, but to have their natural and acquired defaults eradicated—to acquire a freedom of step in walking, an easy and becoming carriage and address—to send them forward as soon as possible, as it is of much importance to the advancement of pupils to have them early arranged in classes.

Where there are three or more of a family, a liberal deduction of fee will be made.

An EVENING CLASS from 8 to 10.

☞ Orders left at Mrs. PURDY's, Prince William street, or at the Book Store of Messrs. CHUBB & Co. where copies of CRERAR'S BALL-ROOM COMPANION may be had.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears from information which I have received from the Justices of the City and County of Saint John, that on or about the hour of Seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday last, the 4th instant, a murderous assault by stabbing, was committed in the streets of Portland, in the said County, by one THOMAS BOWES, together with some other person or persons as yet unknown, upon James Gough, James Earle, and Henry Kinney, Watchmen, then being in the execution of their duty; And whereas the said James Gough has since died from the effects of the wounds and violence inflicted on that occasion,—I do therefore publish this my Proclamation, and do hereby offer a Reward of Given under my Hand and Seal at St. John, this seventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven, and in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command.
J. S. SAUNDERS.
