Ten Pounds Reward.

WHEREAS we have been informed that Sergeant FARRAND, of the 33d Regiment, while passing from the Barracks to Fort Howe Guard, on duty, was assaulted when passing by York Point, about half-past two o'clock on Monday morning last, by several men, who pursued him down the street in the direction of Portland, and threw stones at him, two of which struck him, and he only escaped by outrunning them:

The above Reward will be paid by the Justices in Session to any person who will give such information before the undersigned as will lead to the conviction of the parties.

HENRY PORTER,
ROBERT PAYNE,
JAMES GALLAGHER,
Justices of the Peace, City & County St. John.
St. John, Sept. 25, 1847.

St. John, N. B., British North America, October 1st, 1847.

ON this day, eighty-four passengers, on board the Brig "Caroline," of Liverpool, which sailed from Limerick on the 29th of August—making a very quick passage of 32 days—assembled to testify to Mr. H. Thompson, owner, their unbounded gratitude for his kindness to them, to some of whom he gave a free passage, they having no means of paying for it. He had the kindness, also, to remain with them, on board the vessel, until she got to the entrance of the River Shannon, which is sixty miles from Limerick, and, at parting, gave orders to have every attention paid them during the voyage. He also sent on board provisions of the best quality for their use, which was given to them regularly.

The following is the address to the Captain and crew for their many services to the passengers during the voyage:—

We feel bound to acknowledge to Capt. Thos. Honey, of said brig, and Mr. Woods, the Mate, our sincere thanks and gratitude for their many services to us in ministering to our wants during our sea illness, with that sweetness of affability and demeanour which characterises the generous heart in the most feeling and Christian like manner—for if ever passengers on their voyage across the Atlantic were blessed by being on board a good vessel, guided by a Captain of profound learning, skilful experience, and exemplary good conduct, assisted by the Mate, a man of the same good qualities, who worked hand in hand for our comfort and happiness, in order that they might see us safely landed at our wished-for place of destination—we were doubly so.

We had, thank God, the happiness to be blessed with good health, for there was not a single person sick on board—it could not be otherwise, for the strictest order of cleanliness and regularity was observed during the voyage; and what was most to be admired and seldom to be met with, the captain, mate, and crew were temperate men, and not only so, but were the greatest advocates of the cause; and nothing that could give us pain or disappointment escaped their notice in regard to our welfare. The captain shewed himself like a father, going from berth to berth as if they were all his own family, preparing proper food and medicine for us with his own hands; even the fowls he had on board for his own use, he himself prepared to make broth for the most delicate and feeble of us, and more than that, he gave his own bed to one poor passenger who had none! O, what feelings of humanity! Where shall we find words to return thanks for such acts of generosity but in the outpourings of our hearts, animated with feelings of gratitude. May the God of Mercy prolong his days, and crown his labours with success in every voyage he makes, and may no evil or peril ever beset his course. And, as he is a man of family, and the father of children, may the Father in Heaven spare him long to give comfort and consolation to them, is the ardent prayer of every passenger on board.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

THE Subscribers have just received a supply of the publications issued by order of the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland, and now in use in the tuition of half a million children in that country, as well as in many of the most eminent Seminaries in Great Britain.

These Books are now in general use in Canada, and are about being introduced into the Parish Schools of New Brunswick. They met with the approbation of His Excellency Lord Metcalfe, late Governor-General,—of many influential Clergymen of the Church of England,—the Bishops of the Catholic Church,—as well as Clergymen of the Presbyterian, Congregational, Methodist, Baptist, and other Churches,—of many Teachers,—and of the Superintendents of Education for Canada East and West.

☞ Clergymen, Trustees of Schools, Teachers and others are respectfully requested to call and examine the several works, which are got up in good style, and will be sold at moderate prices.

☞ The Subscribers have lately printed a Second Edition of the NEW BRUNSWICK SPELLING BOOK, by WILLIAM CORRY, which, with many other Scholastic publications and requisites, will be disposed of at reduced rates. H. CHUBB & CO.

PURSUANT to Notice previously given, a Meeting in Bankruptcy will be held at the Office of Mr. DANIEL JORDAN, in the Commercial Bank Building in this City, at the time hereafter mentioned:—

To Ship Builders.

THE Subscribers are desirous of calling the attention of Shipbuilders to the article of improved YELLOW METAL BOLTS for Ship fastening. These have been thoroughly tested, and found superior to Copper, as they drive as well as Iron and clinch equally with Copper; and as vessels so fastened class equally with those fastened with Copper, the price being about 2d. per lb. less, will prove a strong inducement for builders to give them a preference.
