

POETRY.

THE FALLEN LEAVES.

By Mrs. Norton. We stand among the fallen leaves, Young children at our play...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In youth's enchanted spring...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In maidhood's happy prime...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...

We stand among the fallen leaves, In old age's peaceful years...
