SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1848.

The Royal Mail Steamship Acadia, arrived at Halifax last Wednesday night at half past nine o'clock, in 14 days from Liverpool, bringing English dates to the 27th of May.

The latest portion of the Mail for New-Bransford and Canada, arrived in this City by express, and is delivered last night, and brought us a copy of Willmer & Smith's European Times of the 27th ult. The newspaper has not reached here until half past one o'clock to-day.

The Halifax Courier states, that the Steamer Acadia, on her arrival, had on board a number of persons, whose destination is Pittsburg, U. S. The Acadia passed the Britannia, homeward bound, on the 27th ult.

It will be seen by our extracts that Mr. Mitchell has been elected to the office of Mayor, and is stated, will be transported to the city.

The Steamer Acadia, which left New York on the 10th of May, arrived at Halifax on the 13th, and reached Liverpool on the 27th.

Home has obtained his motion for Parliamentary business on Monday, in favour of Mr. Charles Fox, and on Tuesday, in favour of Mr. Charles Fox, and on Wednesday, in favour of Mr. Charles Fox.

We cannot report any improvement in the state of the West India market, as the market continues to be much restricted, and with the disposition of the Dealers to hold stock, so that few goods are offered for sale.

At our lowest quotations a few sales of New Brunswick Deals have been made; by a greater reduction in the price of the same, the market has been stimulated, and the rate of the cargoes on hand would have been raised, and pressure in the market has been relieved.
