COMMUNICATION.

To the Editors of the Courier.

GENTLEMEN,—When a writer assumes a signature as an indication of conduct, he should carefully examine their relative bearings: if "Fair Play" had observed this precaution, I would not have been called upon to expose the mis-nomer; I may now observe that I am prepared to prove that Foul Play is a more appropriate name for him. This writer refers to three petitions forwarded by the Divisionists to the Legislature: let us briefly notice them. The petition from the centre of the Parish, viz. from Union to Duke-streets, has nothing to do with the petition against the Division at Duke-street. The inhabitants within the central boundaries retain their Church, its property, and Clergy. Surely, then, it is not Fair-Play to array their names against the petition from the Southern district? The petition from the inhabitants North of Union street is not entitled to the slightest consideration as regards the division at Duke street.—With equal propriety might "Fair Play" bring forward petitions from the remotest parts of the Province for our separation. I am prepared to prove that one of the Vestrymen who carried round the petitions for division, did actually obtain in York Point the names of persons who belong to the Parish of Portland, and have no Church connexion with the Parish of St. John. Is this "Fair Play;" and did the conduct of the Vestryman correspond with the expressed declaration of the Vestry?—I unhesitatingly assert that it did not. The Divisionists and the Bishop desire to enforce integrity of division—that is Integrity as relates to the division of the present Parish into three distinct Parishes. Is this Fair Play? The petition to the Vestry from the section of the City south of Duke-street contains the names of fifty-three Pew-holders, and Communicants, who signed in strict accordance with the public appeal from the Vestry. The petition of the Divisionists from the same section contained forty-six names.—Is it Fair Play for the majority to give place to this minority? I am aware that objection has been made to the signatures of Females.—This objection is nugatory: the Vestry appealed to the wishes of Pewholders and Communicants, and not to their elective franchises.—The Divisionists complain that our petition contained the names of some who were not "heads of families;" they forget that many of their signers are neither "heads of families," Pewholders, nor Communicants.—Is it Fair Play to urge such an objection under such circumstances? But a person who is not the head of a family may be a "Pewholder and Communicant." The House, I am happy to say, has displayed more justice than the Divisionists: our petition has prevailed. "Fair Play" has accused the gentleman who carried round our petition, of making "wrong representations of facts." The assertion is incorrect; and "Fair Play" knows it. His own statements contradict him. The gentleman who carried the petition did state that the Southern section was to be cut off from all connexion with Trinity Church; and if the Bill had passed, such would have been the fact—"Fair Play's" quotation proves it. The word until in this quotation is declarative of it. This sophistry is too flimsy. And now, Messrs. Editors, in reference to the £10,000.—The gentleman who carried the petition did give it as his opinion, that it would cost that sum to erect a Building and endow it.—"Fair Play" knows that it will require this amount. One of the Divisionists, in the Vestry room, admitted that it would require such an amount—he said £3000 were subscribed. Upon enquiry, however, it appears that nothing is subscribed; but that A, B, and C said they would give for the erection of a Church. It is true that £60 a year was to have been given from the Northern Parish; but this is only a tenth part of the requisite amount, and the Northern Church cost upwards of £8000, and derives nearly £300 a year from Pew-rents.—This is fair play with a vengeance. £60 is small in the proportion to £300. I now ask "Fair Play" from whence are the funds to be obtained for the erection of a Church, after the division of the Parish? Would the Parishioners South of Duke-street have any claim on the property of Trinity Church? I answer, none—the amount must be raised by subscription;—and from whom, if not from those persons who signed away our claim upon Trinity? If the persons within the Parish are not expected to subscribe, will the persons out of it unpurse their cash to the tune of seven or eight thousand pounds? I trow not. If not, then has the gentleman accused by "Fair Play" made no "wrong representation of facts," and "Fair Play" must transfer the imputation to his own proceedings. I shall now close my remarks upon this subject, unless I am called upon by some of the opposite party to resume them.

"A Pew-Owner in Trinity Church."

March 18. HARRIS & ALLAN.

A SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, like every other disordered motion of the blood, is owing to corrupt and stagnant humors which, when floating in the general mass of the circulation, are the cause of the headach, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, and many other unpleasant symptoms, and when thrown upon the various parts of the body, are the cause of every malady incident to man. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are always certain to remove headach, giddiness, and every complaint, because they completely rid the body of all morbid humors, and every thing that is opposed to health.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, and therefore give health and vigor to the whole frame, as well as drive disease of every kind from the body.

A Lady in Troy, N. Y., who had been given up by her physicians, sends us the following:
Troy, May 15, 1846.

Mr. Fowle—

In October last, I took a violent cold, which settled on my lungs and produced a hacking cough, accompanied with night sweats, which reduced me very low. A few days after I was taken I employed one of our best physicians, but received no help; I tried another, but with no better success, and finally a third, still growing worse all the while. At this stage of the disease I was reduced so low as to be unable to turn myself in bed, or sit up while my bed was made. My physicians finally gave me up, and said that I had the consumption, and that there was no help for me. My friends advised me to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, but the Doctors objected, said that it would only hurry me out of the world; I finally procured a bottle, and by using three bottles I was restored to perfect health. MRS. SARAH LAWSON.

None genuine, unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.—☞ For sale by PETERS & TILLEY, King-street, St. John.
