

POETRY.

THE LOST FRIEND.

What seek'st thou here? o'er treasure gone,
A miser, do'st thou bend?
I seek for something I have known—
The figure of a friend.

I seek a smile—the sun is bright
And lovely to the eye;
But sunbeams are but drops of light,
No wonder that they die.

I seek a voice—the voice of bird,
It makes the ear rejoice,
But inward echo it ne'er stirred;
'Tis not a human voice.

His smile—by that I knew 'twas day—
His voice heard in mine ear,
Sweeter than bells on new-year's day,
Rang in to me new-year.

He loved me as few else could love,
For few had grieved as he;
He loved me when I needed love,
Nor asked for sympathy.

And ask'st thou what I seek that's gone?
Why like a miser bend?
Thou ne'er canst know who hast not known
The figure of that friend.—Tait's Magazine.

THE FUTURE.

Years are coming—speed thou onward!
When the sword shall gather rust,
And the helmet, lance and falchion,
Sleep in silent dust!

Earth has heard too long of battle,
Heard the trumpet's voice too long;
But another age advances,
Seers foretold in song.

In the past, the age of iron,
Those who slaughtering met their kind,
Have too often worn the chaplet
Honor's hand has twined.

But the heroes of the future
Shall be men whose hearts are strong;
Men whose word and acts shall only
War against the wrong,

But the sabre, in their contests
Shall no part no honor own;
War's dread art shall be forgotten,
Carnage all unknown.

Years are coming when forever
War's dread banner shall be furled,
And the Angel, Peace, be welcomed
Regent of the world!

Hail with song that glorious era
When the sword shall gather rust,
And the helmet, lance and falchion,
Sleep in silent dust!

VARIETY.

Sulphur preferable to Chloride of Lime.—Mr. Editor—Permit me to bear witness to the value of sulphur when sprinkled upon places where infection and deleterious gases and stench are likely to arise. While I should hesitate to tamper with my bowels by dosing them with it, I think it even better than chloride of lime for distributing in drains and other foul places.—Boston Post. HEALTH.

The New-York Journal of Commerce of Wednesday last says—"We to-day publish news only ten days and a fraction from Liverpool. Such a thing has never been done before. Had the fact been predicted twenty years ago, it would have been received with downright incredulity."

Railroads in Maine.—The directors of the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent. payable on the 18th inst. A new project is on foot to connect the Lewiston Falls, on the Androscoggin River, with the Rumford Falls, a distance of 43 miles. The estimated expences are about $525,640, or a trifle over $12,861 per mile.

The New Orleans Flood.—A map of the inundated district published in several of the American papers, gives the number of squares under water at 160; the number of houses flooded sixteen hundred; the number of persons living in them eight thousand.

The ship St. Lawrence, Bowers, 66 days from Liverpool for New-York, put into Newport on Tuesday, on account of sickness—having lost thirty of her passengers by fever, out of one hundred and seventy on board when she left Liverpool.

Quite a number of letters from California were received in Boston on Wednesday. They are as late as the 4th May and give glowing descriptions of the prospect of the present digging season. The cargo of the barque Annita had been sold at auction and brought high prices, especially lumber, which was sold for $510 per 1000 feet.

The Philadelphia Ledger states, from the record, that during the cruise of the U. S. ship Independance, which sailed from Boston, August 29th, 1846, and returned to Norfolk a few weeks since, forty-four thousand eight hundred and thirty-five lashes were given to the crew. This says the Boston Post is a national shame and disgrace—nay, such conduct would disgrace Russia, or the Hottentots.

The city of San Francisco is likely to be built in Trenton, New-Jersey. Fifteen houses, to form a street in the new city on the Pacific were shipped last week for their destination.

The Common Council of the city of Detroit have resolved that no Circus shall exhibit in that city without paying a license of $100 per day.

A Mrs. Booth of Wisconsin is stated to have given birth to a fine healthy boy at the age of seventy: her husband is eighty years old. Wisconsin must certainly be a great country.

The brig Vulture, at Boston, brings dates from Port au Prince to the 29th of May. A portion of the President's army was in barracks at Port au Prince, but there was no probablity of a renewal of the war. It has been ascertained that the Haytians had one thousand killed and starved in the late battle with the Dominicans.—Coffee was scarce. The currency was thirteen and a half dollars for one of silver.

THE POTATO CROP.—Although there are yet no just grounds for positive alarm, it cannot be denied that there are already sufficient indications of the existence of the fatal disease to apprehend to some extent, a recurrence of the disaster which has pressed so heavily on this country during the last three years. In some of the gardens about Dublin, where the greatest attention has been paid, and no expense spared in the selection of the seed, most unmistakable symptoms of the re-appearance of the blight have manifested themselves, and this notwithstanding the fine and genial weather with which we have been favored throughout one of the most critical periods of the season. The Belfast Northern Whig states that in the counties of Antrim and Down, and in the neighbouring counties there has been a large breadth of potatoes planted which has progressed, without exception, very favorably till within the past week or so, when some cases occurred which, unfortunately, leave little doubt of the prevalence of the distemper. The instances, however, are so far not numerous. With this threat of another partial visitation pending, it is gratifying to learn that up to the present there are no complaints of failure from the western counties, all the crops, green and cereal, being in a highly flourishing condition; throughout a district 10 miles round Galway there has not been such a prospect of abundance for many years past.—Times Correspondent.

The number of emigrants from Liverpool during May was 19,181, same month last year 13,336. The emigrants this year are of an improved character, many of them being Welsh.

On Monday, Brighton was visited by a terrific hail storm, which broke many thousand panes of glass.

A widow named Kirkham, and her four daughters and two nieces, were burnt to death in a shop in Poulton on Monday night.

The Countess of Blessington died at Paris on the 4th. She dined with the Duchess of Grammont the day before, and returned home in her usual health. Next morning, however, she felt unwell, and died in a few hours after, of apoplexy.

The most prominent subject of discussion in India was the anticipated increase of the army in consequence of the annexation of the Punjaub. It was expected that some extensive reforms would be introduced by Sir C. Napier.
