In Bankruptcy.

In the matter of HUGH O'TOOLE, of the City of Saint John, in the Province of New-Brunswick, Merchant Tailor, a Bankrupt.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I appoint a further General Meeting of the Creditors of the above named Hugh O'Toole, to be held on Monday, the twenty-fifth day of November instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Office of Daniel Jordan, Esquire, Provisional Assignee of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt, in the Commercial Bank Building, in the City of Saint John, for the purpose of receiving proof of, or of allowing or contesting any claim presented against the said Estate, at which meeting the said Bankrupt may be examined on oath, touching his Estate and dealings, and such other business relating to the Estate will be then and there transacted as may be deemed necessary.—Given under my hand at the City aforesaid, this second day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
ROBERT F. HAZEN,
Commissioner of the Estate and Effects of Bankrupts, in and for the City and County of Saint John.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court for the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

JOHN A. UNDERWOOD, of the City of Boston, in said county, late a Lieutenant in the United States service, respectfully libels and gives the honorable Court to be informed, that on the twenty-seventh day of October, A. D. 1839, at St. Andrews, in the British Province of New-Brunswick, he was legally married to MARY CASE, who is now his lawful wife; that your libellant and the said Mary have since said marriage lived together as husband and wife in said Commonwealth, but that the said Mary now resides or is living out of said Commonwealth; that your libellant since their said intermarriage has always behaved himself towards said Mary as a faithful, kind and affectionate husband; yet the said Mary, wholly regardless of her marriage covenants and duty, at said Boston, on or about the fifteenth of October, A. D. 1849, did commit the crime of adultery with a man whose name to your libellant is unknown; and that said Mary, at divers other times and places, as well as said Boston, did commit said crime with other men whose names are to your libellant also unknown.

Wherefore your libellant prays right and justice, and that he may be divorced from the bonds of matrimony between him and the said Mary.
JOHN A. UNDERWOOD.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
SUFFOLK, ss. SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT, March Term, 1850.

UPON the foregoing libel it is ordered, that the libellant give notice unto the said Mary Underwood to appear before this Court to be holden at Boston, within and for the County of Suffolk, on MONDAY, the twentieth day of January next, by adjournment from the second Tuesday of November next, by publishing an attested copy of the foregoing libel and of this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Daily Evening Journal, a newspaper printed in said Boston, and in the New-Brunswick Courier, a newspaper printed in St. John, in the Province of New-Brunswick, the last publication to be thirty days at least before said twentieth day of January next, that she may then and there shew cause why the prayer of said libel should not be granted. By the Court.
GEO. C. WILDE, Clerk.
October 15, 1850.
A true copy of said libel and of the order of Court thereon.
Attest, GEO. C. WILDE, Clerk.

BLAKE'S
Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THE subscribers have received per schooner "Columbine," from New-York, a further supply of this singular and valuable substance. In addition to the slate color, they have a beautiful chocolate or brown, resembling the sand stone now in use and so much admired for fronts of buildings.

Its principal ingredients are Silica, Alumina, and Prot. Oxide of Iron, which, in the opinion of scientific men, satisfactorily accounts for its fire-proof nature, the two former substances being non-conductors, and the latter acting as a cement to bind the whole together, and make an adhesive and durable Paint.

For use it is mixed with Linseed Oil, and applied with a brush the same as ordinary Paint to Wood, Iron, Tin, &c. It hardens gradually and becomes Fire Proof. It is particularly recommended for roofs of buildings, steam boat decks, fences, &c. A roof coated with this substance is equal to one of Slate, at a vast saving of expense.

Specimens may be seen at the Office of the subscribers. The price is 3d. per pound.

We annex two of many certificates sent us.
ALLISON & SPURR.
St. John, Sept. 29, 1849.

"This may certify that we have been acquainted with "Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint" for some years, and are well assured that it is really what its name indicates—FIRE PROOF.—We consider it a better Fire Proof than Tin or Zinc, and will insure buildings well covered with it at a much lower premium than those covered with the above mentioned metals.

MR. BLAKE.—Dear Sir,—We last Spring covered the roof of the "American" with your Fire Proof Paint. We now find that it has become as hard as slate; and the almost constant tread of the servants, (who use the top of the house for drying clothes,) does not affect it in the east, and it proves all that it was recommended.

The Great Exhibition of 1851
(Patronized by PRINCE ALBERT)

IS fast approaching, when people of all nations will flock to London. The main consideration for visitors is to secure early accommodation, as the influx will then be so enormous that neither Hotels nor Lodging Houses will be able to supply the demand; consequently the charges will be prodigiously high. Ladies and Gentlemen may now secure for themselves and families, on moderate terms, suitable apartments for the occasion, by writing, stating what they require, what rent they will give, what length of time wanted, and in what locality most wished, addressed to SIMMONDS & CO., Old Established Colonial Agents, 5 Barge Yard, City London, enclosing a bill or remittance for rent, and 5 per cent. Commission for selection and engagement.

CURE OF A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Smith, of No. 5, Little Thomas Street, Gibson Street, Lambeth, dated December 12th, 1849.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.
SIR,—I beg to inform you that for nearly five years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, suffering from extreme weakness and debility, with constant nervous headaches, giddiness, and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of spirits. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of whom, after doing all that was in their power, informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of cure, together with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that nothing could be done for me. One day, being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised, and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curiosity than with a hope of being cured, however I soon found myself better by taking them, and so I went on persevering in their use for six months, when I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.
(Signed) WILLIAM SMITH.
(frequently called EDWARD.)

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND STOMACH WHEN IN A MOST HOPELESS STATE.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.
SIR,—Your valuable Pills have been the means, with God's blessing, of restoring me to a state of perfect health, and at a time when I thought I was on the brink of the grave. I had consulted several eminent Doctors, who, after doing what they could for me, stated that they considered my case as hopeless. I ought to say that I had been suffering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing, which during the last two years got so much worse, that every one considered my condition as hopeless. I as a last resource got a Box of your Pills, which soon gave relief, and by persevering in their use for some weeks, together with rubbing night and morning your Ointment over my chest and stomach, and right side, I have by their means alone got completely cured, and to the astonishment of myself and every body who knew me.
(Signed) MATTHEW HARVEY.
