New-Brunswick CLOTHING STORE,

WATER STREET,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN LAMB.

THIS old Established House, with the additional sign of the GOLDEN LAMB, thus publicly gives notice that it still continues its principles of the strictest economy in business, and firm determination of not allowing any other House in the City to outvie in GOODS at low prices, as the subscriber is enabled to do so for the true and simple reason—the Stock is imported direct from the manufacturers, and made up under the inspection of an experienced Foreman and Cutter, whose capabilities are well known for the last four years—The SUMMER STOCK of CLOTHING is now complete, consisting of FROCK and DRESS COATS—black, blue, invisible, and other shades;

PALETOT, GLENLYON & SACK COATS, in superfine Broad Cloth, Cassinett, Cashmarett, Russell Cord, Tweed, Drab, D'Arcola, Imperial, Merino, Cassimere, Belmont, California, and Cadet Tweed Cloths, made in a superior manner, and the prices defy competition!

SHOOTING COATS of every description, texture, and quality, and prices uncommonly low;

PANTALOONS, in Black Cassimere, Superfine Broad Cloth, Doeskin, Drill, Buckskin, Satinett, and Kaffir Cloths;

VESTS, in Embossed Velvet, Plain and Figured Satins, Plain and Embroidered White Toilinett, Ottoman, Barathea, Cassimere, &c. &c.; a splendid assortment;

TAILORS' TRIMMINGS constantly on hand; Gent's and Youths' HATS and CAPS, of all the different shapes, styles, and qualities.

☞ The above Stock is the largest and best in the Province, and cannot be denied by any as a truth;—this I assert not as a newspaper falsehood, like some advertisements in the Clothing Trade. The public should beware of trading with parties in the habit of making false representations; for, if they should happen to call on such places and not see such goods as expected, and wish to retire, such shops endeavour to persuade, even with false statements, against the will and inclinations of the parties calling, who are thereby treated very unhandsomely.

The New-Brunswick Clothing Store,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN LAMB,

is well known to the respectable community of the City and County of St. John and elsewhere, to be the Cheapest, Largest, and best Stock in the Province; and the subscriber shall continue to attend on customers as heretofore, in a civil and respectful manner. SAMUEL NEILL.
