POETRY.

LINES ON THE DEATH OF THE QUEEN DOWAGER.

BY THE REV. J. D. SCHOMBERG, B. A.,
Vicar of Polesworth.

William's lov'd Queen, on earth, exists no more,
Deeply we mourn whilst we our loss deplore!
No incense burn, no costly spice prepare—
Her deeds of charity perfume the air:
No fragrant waters sprinkle on her bier—
Fresh with the orphan's and the widow's tear:
No regal tomb, no sculptured trophy raise—
England's wide realm her monument of praise:
Rear no escutcheon to enhance her fame—
Each town, each hamlet, glories in her name:
Blest Saint! whilst here below, the grace was thine
Fulgent in Christian purity to shine!
In humble faith thy Saviour's steps to tread—
The power derived from him, thy living Head!
Now safe at rest, thy storms and fears are o'er,
Thy bark rides tranquil on that peaceful shore
Where winds are hush'd and tempests rage no more.
Great God! to Thee our souls delighted move,
To share these triumphs of thy sovereign love:
To live on earth a life almost divine,
And through a long eternity to shine!

From Papers by the English Mail.

The Weekly Chronicle, in alluding to the existence of a rumour that the Government is about to yield to the annexation clamour in Canada, says:—"For some time past rumours have been prevalent in various political circles to the effect that Her Majesty's Government are prepared to yield to the noisy but unsubstantial movement for annexation, and to abandon the Canadas. We are in the best position to state that no such intention has been entertained, although a certain degree of credence has been attached to the story, owing to the persevering efforts of its propagators, in whom the wish was no doubt father to the thought. However desirable it may appear to certain persons south of the St. Lawrence, whence these rumours are derived, England will not consent to press her connection with her ancient dependencies, which are now engaged in trying the experiment of independent local legislation, nor will she impede or check the manifestation of popular opinion in Canada. At no time has a more perfect understanding existed between Her Majesty's Government and the Canadian Legislature than at the present."

The Observer, in a leading article, denies the truth of the announcement put forth in the Globe a few evenings ago, respecting the "opening of negociations by Her Majesty's representative at St. Petersburgh, with a view of increasing the commercial relations of this country and Russia."

The same paper also asserts that the Russian and Turkish question is fully and satisfactorily settled.

The Queen has presented 100 guineas towards the relief of the bereaved families of the unfortunate pilots who were drowned at the mouth of the Tyne, in attempting the rescue of a vessel wrecked on the Herd Sands on the 4th instant. The corporation of Newcastle have also forwarded 100 guineas, and the Master and Brethren of the Trinity-house have subscribed the same sum.

It is now definitarily arrranged that Lord Denman will be succeeded in the chief justiceship of the Queen's Bench by Lord Campbell. Mr. Shiel, it is rumoured, is to have a seat in the Cabinet.

Official Reductions.—A lord of the treasury, and the assistant-secretary to the treasury, Sir C. Trevelyan, are about to be appointed as members of a committee, for the purpose of further revising the public departments, with the view of effecting reforms or reductions.

The steam-ship Niagara arrived at Liverpool from Glasgow on Saturday, Dec. 22d, after receiving full repairs.

Rapid Passage.—The ship Queen of England, Capt. Cawkett, arrived in the Mersey on Friday last, from Calcutta. She performed the voyage out and home in seven months and twenty-three days.

Bronzes, jewellery, and other works of art, to the value of £30,000,000, have recently been exported from Paris within a fortnight.

Mr. Dargan, an enterprising capitalist, has taken 2,000 acres of land at Kildinan, near Rathcormac, for the purpose of forwarding the cultivation of flax, and introducing the linen manufacture amongst the farm and labouring population of Munster.

[illegible] Rush, in Ireland.—On the 13th December from four to five hundred paupers attended at the Kilrush union, in order to seek either admittance to the workhouse or outdoor relief. But alas! their supplications were fruitless, and after spending the day (a most inclement one) in a miserable state of suffering, they were obliged, when evening came, to return unrelieved to their homes, some of these being from eight to ten miles distant from Kilrush.

Within two miles of this town there is a ferry, about 200 yards wide, over which a number of these starving creatures were obliged to cross. Too many crowded into the boat, and she sank on the passage, when about 48 men, women, and children perished, five only being saved.

Language fails to describe the sad state of this doomed union. The guardians have neither funds nor credit, and are in debt £18,000. There are 13,000 paupers actually starving.

The number of bodies found during this day are 33, five of whom are not as yet claimed by any friend. Many of the bodies, though not quite 24 hours in the water, are so mutilated that it was with difficulty they could be identified. There are 12 others yet missing. The fatal row-boat has been for many years in the service, and has been heretofore employed as a horse-boat, but, being found too weak, was used as a passenger boat. She belonged to a man named Williams, who has for the last three years let her at a weekly rent to the boatman who worked her, both parties neglecting her repairs; consequently this sacrifice of human life. The description given by the surviving boatman of the accident is, that when within about 60 yards of the beach the boat split from the bows down by the keel and began to fill with water, when the passengers leaned to the side favouring the swell of the sea, when she upset with crew and passengers—49 or more human beings, as the precise number lost cannot be yet ascertained. There were four persons saved by another ferry boat's crew. An inquest was held. The verdict returned was:—

"We find that Jonathan Brew and 32 other persons came by their deaths on Wednesday, the 12th instant, by drowning, whilst crossing the ferry at Comogue, on their way home from the Kilrush workhouse, through the mismanagement of the boatmen and passengers."

Progress of Pauperism.—The accounts of the increase of pauperism are most deplorable, and the general opinion is that all the Unions are rapidly hurrying into a state of bankruptcy. As one instance, we may mention that in the Ballinasloe Union the amount of rate collected is nihil, and the debt on the Union is £23,735 12s. 5d.

Diabolical Act of Matrimonial Delinquency.—The following fact in relation to the elopement after marriage of a Mr. A—— K——, of the town of Banagher, in this county, to America, taking with him the lady's fortune, may be relied upon as substantially correct. This person, through art and misrepresentation, procured an introduction into a family of some respectability residing at Kingstown; and, after an acquaintance of a limited period, he proposed for the hand of Miss M——, residing at the house of Miss C——, in the suburbs of the above-named submarine village. With such tact had this heartless wretch played his part with the unsuspecting lady and her innocent friends, that, without much injury, a consent was agreed upon for a marriage union, the lady obtaining for a fortune the sum of £400. The preliminaries being all arranged, the nuptials were all celebrated some day within the last fortnight; immediately upon the performance of which this unprincipled bridegroom received the marriage portion in four Bank of England notes of £100 each. Relatives and friends assembled by invitation to enjoy the cheer of a good dinner upon the evening of the marriage-day, and, to appearance, none felt more happy or enjoyed with more pleasurable delight the festive scene, than did this disgraceful, discreditable human monster. So complete had this deceiver made his arrangements, that under the pretence of a legal consultation with his attorney, he absolutely had the accomplished effrontery to tell his bride and her immediate relatives that he should go into Dublin by the nine o'clock train, and could not return that night, as an alleged case at his suit against certain parties was to come on for trial the next day in the Court of King's Bench. He went, but never returned, alas.—King's County Chronicle.

The Britannia Bridge.—The operation of raising by the hydraulic machines the second monster tube, of 1800 tons, to its intended elevation of one hundred feet above sea mark, was commenced by the engineer on Tuesday, fourteen days only having elapsed since the day on which it was successfully floated. The action of the hydraulic presses in the towers was found to be most perfect and precise, as in their first play on the stupendous mass communicating with the chains it was worked six feet upwards. Immediately after the bricklayers and masons entered the recesses of the towers, and built it up firmly beneath. The instant the masons left it another six feet lift was taken, and in this manner the operation is being carried on without intermission day and night, during the latter period with the assistance of large lights and fires. With about fifteen more of these lifts, should no unforeseen contingency occur, the tube will have attained its permanent level, and be joined on to the great tube in the Britannia tower. The greatest energy is being displayed in every department, and the majority of the workmen on the relay system have been engaged for some months past from night to night. The first express train is expected to pass through before the middle of March.—Dublin Evening Herald, Dec. 24.

Keating's Cough Lozenges.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF ROYALTY, AND THE AUTHORITY OF THE FACULTY.

NOTICE.—No Opium or any of its Preparations in these Lozenges.

A CERTAIN Remedy for disorders of the Pulmonary Organs—in Difficulty of Breathing—in Redundancy of Phlegm—in Incipient Consumption (of which Cough is the most positive indication) they are of unerring efficacy. In Asthma, and in Winter Cough, they have never been known to fail.

Keating's Cough Lozenges are free from every deleterious ingredient; they may, therefore, be taken at all times, by the most delicate Female and by the youngest Child; while the Public Speaker and the Professional Singer will find them invaluable in allaying the hoarseness and irritation incidental to vocal exertion, and consequently a powerful auxiliary in the production of Melodious Enunciation.

Prepared and Sold in Boxes and Tins, by THOMAS KEATING, Chemist, &c. No. 79, St. Paul's Church-Yard, London. Sold retail by all Druggists and Patent Medicine Venders.

N. B.—To prevent spurious imitations, please to observe that the words "Keating's Cough Lozenges" are Engraved on the Government Stamp of each Box.

Agents for St. John—Messrs. Henry Chubb & Co.; Fredericton—Mr. Coy, Druggist; Halifax—Messrs. Morton & Co.; John Nayler & Co. Druggists; St. John's, Newfoundland—Mr. S. Knight, Merchant.

TESTIMONIALS.

Copy of a letter from "COLONEL HAWKER," (the well known Author on "GUNS & SHOOTING.")

Longparish House, near Whitchurch, Hants. October 21st, 1846.

Sir,—I cannot resist informing you of the extraordinary effect that I have experienced by taking only a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough for several weeks, that denied all that had been prescribed for me; and yet I got completely rid of it by taking about half a small box of your Lozenges, which I find are the only ones that relieve the cough without deranging the stomach or digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your humble servant,
P. HAWKER.
To Mr. Keating, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard.

Medical Warehouse,—Halifax, Nova Scotia, August 15, 1846.

Sir,—In mentioning the receipt of your last letter, with second consignment of Lozenges, by the "Racer," we are gratified in being able to inform you that they have given very general satisfaction here, (having proved singularly efficacious in the removal of COUGHS AND COLDS) of which the increasing demand is a sufficient evidence. We shall probably require for the winter a further supply of FORTY OR FIFTY DOZENS, which you can forward at first convenience by one of the Cunard Steamers, via Liverpool, for Your's respectfully,
MORTON & CO.
To the Proprietor of Keating's Cough Lozenges, 79, St. Paul's Church Yard, London.

FROM MR. MURLEY, LATE A PRACTITIONER IN CHELTENHAM.

Huntley, Gloucestershire, 3d Nov. 1848.

Dear Keating.—It affords me much pleasure to learn that the sale of your Cough Lozenges is so extensive. Being acquainted with their composition, I am fully persuaded of their efficacy for promoting gentle expectoration, and allaying pulmonary irritation. In cases of Catarrhal disorder, it is most desirable to combine a class of medicines which may calm without the deleterious effects of Opium, and this desideratum is, I believe, effected by the ingredients in your Cough Lozenges. I well remember the very high opinion which a late eminent surgeon of one of our London Hospitals had of this preparation; he frequently told me that it was the only medicine which afforded relief to his wife, who had suffered for many years from Asthma.

If you consider the testimony of a retired Practitioner, (after thirty-six years of extensive practice,) of any advantage, you are quite welcome to avail yourself of this recommendation.

With best wishes, believe me, dear Keating, faithfully yours, S. H. MURLEY.
To Mr. Keating, St. Paul's Church Yard.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF ASTHMA.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Benjamin Mackie, a respectable Quaker, dated Creenagh, near Loughall, Ireland, dated September 11th, 1848.

To Professor Holloway.

Respected Friend,—Thy excellent Pills have effectually cured me of an Asthma, which afflicted me for three years to such an extent, that I was obliged to walk my room at night for air, afraid of being suffocated if I went to bed by cough and phlegm. Besides taking the Pills, I rubbed plenty of thy Ointment into my chest night and morning.

(Signed) BENJAMIN MACKIE.

CURE OF TYPHUS FEVER, WHEN SUPPOSED TO BE AT THE POINT OF DEATH.

A respectable female in the neighbourhood of Loughall, was attacked with Typhus Fever, and lay for five days without having tasted any description of food. She was given over by the Surgeon, and preparations were made for her demise. Mr. Benjamin Mackie, the Quaker, whose case is referred to above, heard of the circumstance, and knowing the immense benefit that he himself had derived from Holloway's Pills, recommended an immediate trial, and eight were given to her, and the same number was continued night and morning for three days, and in a very short time she was completely cured.

N. B.—From advice just received, it appears that Colonel Dear, who is with his Regiment in India, the 21st Fusileers, cured himself of a very bad attack of Fever by these celebrated Pills. There is no doubt that any Fever, however malignant, may be cured by taking, night and morning, copious doses of this fine medicine. The patient should be induced to drink plentifully of warm linseed tea or barley water.

CURE OF DROPSY IN THE CHEST.

Extract of a Letter from J. S. Mundy, Esq. dated Kennington, near Oxford, Dec. 2d, 1848.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—My Shepherd for some time was afflicted with water on the chest, when I heard of it, I immediately advised him to try your Pills, which he did, and was perfectly cured, and is now as well as ever he was in his life. As I myself received so astonishing a cure last year from your Pills and Ointment, it has ever since been my most earnest endeavour to make known their excellent qualities.

(Signed) J. S. MUNDY.

☞ Sold by the Proprietor, 244, Strand (near Temple Bar,) London; and by S. L. TILLEY, Provincial Agent, No. 2, King street, Saint John, N. B.; James F. Gale, Fredericton; W. T. Baird, Woodstock; Alexander Lockhart Quaco; James Beck, Bend of Petitcodiac; O. E. Sayre, Dorchester; John Bell, Shediac; John Lewis, Hillsborough; John Curry, Canning; and James G. White, Bellisle;—in boxes, at 1s. 9d., 4s. 6d. and 7s. each. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients are affixed to each pot. March 3, 1849.

DR. LA'MERT

ON THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF YOUTH AND MATURITY.

Fortieth Edition, with Forty Colored ENGRAVINGS.

Just Published, and may be had in French and English, in sealed Envelope, 2s. 6d., or post-free, from the Author, for forty-two stamps.

SELF-PRESERVATION:

A MEDICAL TREATISE ON THE PHYSIOLOGY OF MARRIAGE, and Disorders of Youth and Maturity usually acquired at an early period of life, which enervate the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the energies of Manhood. With practical observations on the Treatment of Nervous Debility and Indigestion, whether arising from those causes, close study, or the Influence of Tropical climates; Local and Constitutional Weakness, Syphilis, Stricture, and all Diseases and Derangements resulting from Indiscretion. With Forty Coloured Engravings, illustrating the Anatomy, Physiology and Diseases of the Reproductive Organs, explaining their structures, uses and functions, and the various injuries that are produced in them, "by solitary habits, excesses and infection."

BY SAMUEL LA'MERT, M. D.
No. 37, BEDFORD-SQUARE, LONDON,
Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, Honorary Member of the London Hospital, Medical Society, &c.

CONTENTS OF THE TREATISE:

Chapter I.—On the Philosophy of Marriage, with its Hindrances and Obligations, and on Infelicitous and Unproductive Unions.

Chapter II.—On the Anatomy and Physiology of the Generative Organs, their functions, structures, and secretions, proving that great Mental and Physical powers are dependent on their healthy action.

Chapter III.—On Solitary Habits; their various effects on the Animal Economy; the concealed cause of Debility of the functions of the Stomach, Lungs, and Brain, and general Weakness of the Mental Faculties.

Chapter IV.—On the Secret Disorders of Youth and Maturity, and the Treatment of Nervous and Local Weakness, Mental Debility, and Premature Decay.

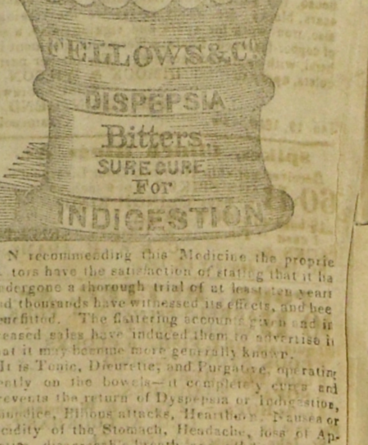
Chapter V. and VI.—On the Disorders arising from indiscriminate Excess, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other Diseases of the Urethra.

REVIEW OF THE WORK.

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil, which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness, be raised, and its true source in every instance disclosed, in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointments. Excesses are always injurious; the gift, which when used in moderation is fraught with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of mischief, and of greater or less injury to the constitution and vital powers. The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise professes to dilate, are productive of greater misery to the human frame, than any other to which it is subject. This Work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions in health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the work, the means of escape, as well as the nature of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligible language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical capabilities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortunately happens, that the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and vicious habits, whether acquired in early life, or from the follies of advanced age, while suffering from their invariable consequences, unwisely entertains a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief. Shame and the dread so frequently but erroneously entertained that these complaints are beyond the reach of art, alike restrict him, and prevent his seeking for assistance where alone it can be procured. In acting thus, he forgets that accurate discrimination in ascertaining the causes of disease, sympathy with the sufferer, and above all, secrecy, invariably characterize the intelligent and practical physician, and to the medical man, who can show by his possession of the requisite legal qualification that he is entitled to esteem and respect in his professional pursuits, the utmost confidence should be extended. Dr. LA'MERT has obtained the highest medical honours, as his diplomas testify, and the great extent of his practice for many years is a guarantee for his professional experience, which has reference almost solely to the treatment of these diseases.

The work may be had in St. John, of H. Chubb & Co., price 2s. 6d. Stg.; Halifax, Messrs. Morton & Co.; Quebec, Mr. Neilson.

August 4, 1849. 25t



IN recommending this Medicine the proprietors have the satisfaction of stating that it has undergone a thorough trial of at least ten years and thousands have witnessed its effects, and been benefitted. The flattering accounts given and increased sales have induced them to advertise it that it may become more generally known.

It is Tonic, Dieuretic, and Purgative, operating gently on the bowels—it completely cures and prevents the return of Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, Heartburn, Nausea or Acidity of the Stomach, Headache, loss of Appetite, disagreeable breath, and all diseases arising from irregularity of the Bowels.

Any quantity of reference can be given when required. Try them.
