In the matter of the Estate of SAMUEL KIERSTEAD, late of the Parish of Kingston, in King's County, deceased.

WHEREAS James Kierstead, Administrator of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said Samuel Kierstead, has applied to me by petition, according to law, shewing therein that the Personal Estate and Effects of the said deceased are insufficient to pay the debts of the said deceased, and praying that a License may be granted to the Petitioner to sell such parts of the Real Estate of the said deceased, as to me might seem meet and necessary to pay off his debts: I do therefore cite the Heirs, and all persons interested in the said Estate, to appear before me, Edward B. Smith, Esquire, Surrogate Judge of Probates in and for King's County, at the Court House in the said County, on Tuesday the second day of April next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to shew cause why the prayer of the said Petition should not be complied with. WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS,

SUGAR FROSTED!

THE Proprietor of this popular Family Medicine, thankful for the extensive and increasing favour with which it is received, and feeling desirous of making every improvement in his power, begs leave to announce, that he has added an outside frosting of pure white sugar, whereby everything disagreeable to the taste and smell is removed, without in the smallest degree affecting, in other respects, the excellent qualities of the medicine. The want of an innocent and convenient medium of disguising the Pills, so generally felt, is thus supplied, and it is confidently anticipated that the frosting will prove highly acceptable to the public.

The occasional use of medicine is a matter of necessity with the great majority of mankind. Whatever, therefore, is done to remove its disagreeable associations, is a public benefit. The value of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills is well understood. Innocent and efficacious, free from minerals of every description, and adapted to all the circumstances and conditions of life, they are esteemed beyond all other remedies, as the greatest family medicine of the day. The frost-covering is an addition intended merely to conceal the taste and smell.

The Pills will also continue to be prepared without the frosting, as heretofore, so that all who prefer them in their original state, may still be accommodated.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.—The ordinary dose for a grown person is from two to four Pills; but in cases of violent pain, in any part of the body, the medicine should be taken in large doses, and repeated every night on going to bed (or oftener, if the suffering is great), until pain or distress of every kind is removed; after which, the medicine should be taken merely with the view to keeping the bowels regular, which will in a short time restore the body to a state of sound health.

EDUCATION.

Mrs. C. E. Ratchford

BEGS to give Notice, that she intends opening a FEMALE SEMINARY, after the Christmas vacation, in the village of Amherst, for the instruction of young Ladies in the ordinary and higher branches of Education.

As Mrs. Ratchford will have the assistance of other ladies, highly qualified to impart the usual accomplishments, she offers her services to Parents and Guardians with the greatest confidence. It will, moreover, be a primary object to obviate those not unjust prejudices which prevail amongst Boarding Schools, by unremitting attention to the moral conduct of the pupils as well as to their social intercourse when out of School, in a word affording them the privileges of a well regulated home.

Amherst is a remarkably healthy part of the Province, and in that respect possesses advantage over a town residence, especially for children of delicate constitutions. Excellent medical aid is always at hand, and the Institution is within a few minutes walk of four different places of Public Worship.

Terms for Board and Washing and instruction in the usual English Branches £30 per academical Year. Extra charges, Music, Piano or Spanish Guitar, three lessons per week, £2 per qr. or half-term. French, three lessons per week, £1 15s per qr. half-term. There will be two terms per year, viz., from 15th January to 12th June, and from 15th July to 15th December.

March 2. JOHN KINNEAR.

To the Electors of King's Ward:

GENTLEMEN,—As the Annual Election for the Common Council is drawing near, I beg to announce my intention of offering for the situation of Alderman for King's Ward. Although this is the first instance in which I have sought the honor of being a public servant, I believe you all know me well enough to judge of my fitness for the situation. If, indeed, the office were a political one, I should think it right to declare my political sentiments, and tell you whether I am a Liberal or a Conservative; though, even then, I should not think a mere name of much importance. Because a man chooses to call himself a Liberal, it does not therefore follow that he is not a tyrant. A true Liberal is not one who is merely liberal of the rights of others, but one whose natural benevolence and love of justice make him wish to see those who are in authority dispensing equal justice to all; although he may not, at the same time, believe "too much love of change" the surest path to national prosperity. There is one sentiment, however, which I think it proper to avow on this occasion:—whoever accepts a public situation, is thereby bound faithfully to discharge the duties of that situation. He is the servant of the public, not their master; and if he will not discharge the duties, or will accept any other office or employment inconsistent with the efficient discharge of those duties, let him resign the situation. Public offices are established for the good of the people, and their interests are to be looked to, not those of the occupants of those offices. I may add, moreover, that it is the especial duty of those holding public situations to look after the interests of the poor, and to endeavour to promote peace and good-will among all classes. Whether these sentiments are tory or radical I will not undertake to say; but with these sentiments I intend to solicit your support at the coming election.—I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant, J. H. HARTT.

St. John, March 2, 1850.

To the Electors of Queen's Ward:

GENTLEMEN,—On the first Tuesday in April I shall, at the request of a large number of Electors of the Ward, appear before you at the Hustings, as a Candidate for the office of Alderman.

In giving public notice of my intentions at this early day, I do so for the purpose of affording you a sufficiency of time to judge of my fitness for the office, and should you think my humble abilities such as will warrant you to give me your support and vote on that day, I can only promise to do all that I can for the benefit of the Ward, and the City generally.—I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant, S. K. FOSTER.
