POETRY.

NEW YEAR.

BY ABBY ALLIN.

Up into the sunshine, soul of mine!
I brook no darkness here;
The sun is shining on the hills
In the first day of the year!
The glittering snow is on the pines,
Like frosted cones they rise,
And the earth below, and the sky above,
Are clad in a happy guise!

Up, up, my soul! no longer sit,
With folded hands alone;
The Future opens her arms to thee,
The Past is dead and gone!
The Future, with her luring voice,
Cries, "Hither, hither, sweet!"
The Past, a shadow of the lost,
Is tracking at my feet.

Up, up, my soul! nor glance behind;
Turn not one wistful look;
Leave all the Past to Him who gave,
To Him, again, who took!
Press on, press on, the year of life
Cannot be always May;
Yet the snow-birds sing on the leafless tree,
And why not thou as they?

Up, up, my soul! no longer sit
Inert with fear and dread,
Since nature's calm is all around,
And the sky shines overhead!
Up, up, and climb the mountain path,
With strong unfettered will!
And let thy motto ever be,
"Onward and upward" still!

To be Let, for a Term of Years, at a moderate rent,

And immediate possession given:—

The "DOUGLAS ARMS INN,"

ON THE NEREPIS ROAD.

As the Grand Trunk Line of the European and North American Railway must pass in this direction, and have a Station in the immediate neighbourhood of the Hotel, which has been built expressly for a large business, the Douglas Arms offers an excellent opportunity for a safe and profitable investment, to any person possessed of sufficient means, and who is qualified for the management of a respectable and genteel business. In the summer season, passengers by the Steamers from Indian Town, can be landed, twice daily, in from forty to fifty minutes, at Brundage's Point; and by carriage, in thirty minutes more, they may be comfortably seated in the Douglas Arms.—From the time of leaving the City it would only require about one hour and a half to reach the Establishment. The climate is delightful and remarkably healthy. The fog seldom reaches the valley of the Nerepis, even while this city remains for many days together enveloped in its cold and chilling embraces.

The Douglas Arms, being on the main road to Fredericton, which connects Saint John with the Seat of Government, has been long established both as a Summer and Winter Hotel: and is distant from the City eighteen miles by the land route and thirteen by the water. Its proximity to St. John renders it a most convenient and comfortable resort in the Summer season for private families and pleasure parties.

The country in the neighbourhood of the Douglas Arms offers many attractions to sportsmen and others. The House contains seven comfortable parlours, a large dining room, twenty-one bed-rooms, a grocery shop, or bar-room, a large brick and Roman cement tank for holding rain water, a well arranged kitchen, in which there are a brick oven, a large boiler, and an excellent cooking stove. On the same flat there are also a large hall stove, and a convenient frost proof cellar.

In addition to a sufficient number of Barns for the use of the Farm, a new one has lately been erected, forty feet wide by fifty feet long, for the accommodation of the summer and winter travelling.

The Douglas Arms has been re-built on a large and splendid scale, and is in every way suited to the situation and growing importance of that beautiful and picturesque part of the country. The Hotel will be let either alone or with the large and valuable Farm attached to it. For particulars apply to

ON THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF YOUTH AND MATURITY

Fortieth Edition, with Fifty Colored ENGRAVINGS.

Just Published, and may be had in French and English, in sealed Envelope, 2s. 6d., or post-free, from the Author, for forty-two stamps.

SELF-PRESERVATION:

A MEDICAL TREATISE ON THE PHYSIOLOGY OF MARRIAGE, and Disorders of Youth and Maturity usually acquired at an early period of life, which enervate the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the energies of Manhood. With practical observations on the Treatment of Nervous Debility and Indigestion, whether arising from those causes, close study or the influence of Tropical climates; Local and Constitutional Weakness, Syphilis, Stricture, and all Diseases and Derangements resulting from Indiscretion. With FIFTY Coloured Engravings, illustrating the Anatomy, Physiology, and Diseases of the Reproductive Organs, explaining their structures, uses and functions, and the various injuries that are produced in them, "by solitary habits, excesses and infection."

BY SAMUEL LA'MERT, M. D.
No. 37, BEDFORD-SQUARE, LONDON,
Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, Honorary Member of the London, Hospital, Medical Society, &c.

CONTENTS OF THE TREATISE

CHAPTER I.—On the Philosophy of Marriage, with its Hindrances and Obligations, and on Infelicitous and Unproductive Unions.

CHAPTER II.—On the Anatomy and Physiology of the Generative Organs, their functions, structures, and secretions, proving that great Mental and Physical power are dependent on their healthy action.

CHAPTER III.—On Solitary Habits; their various effects on the Animal Economy: the concealed cause of Debility of the functions of the Stomach, Lungs, and Brain, and general Weakness of the Mental Faculties.

CHAPTER IV.—On the Secret Disorders of Youth and Maturity, and the Treatment of Nervous and Local Weakness, Mental Debility, and Premature Decay.

CHAPTER V. and VI.—On the Disorders arising from indiscriminate Excess, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other Diseases of the Urethra.

REVIEW OF THE WORK

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil, which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness, be raised, and its true source in every instance disclosed, in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointments. Excesses are always injurious; the gift, which when used in moderation is fraught with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of mischief, and of greater or less injury to the constitution and vital powers. The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise professes to dilate are productive of greater misery to the human frame than any other to which it is subject.

This Work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions in health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the work, the means of escape, as well as the nature of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligble language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical capabilities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortunately, happens, that the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and vicious habits, whether acquired in early life, or from the follies of advanced age, while suffering from their invariable consequences, unwisely entertains a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief. Shame and the dread so frequently but erroneously entertained that these complaints are beyond the reach of art, alike restrict him, and prevent his seeking for assistance where alone it can be procured. In acting thus, he forgets that accurate discrimination in ascertaining the causes of disease, sympathy with the sufferer, and above all, secrecy invariably characterize the intelligent and practical physician, and to the medical man, who can show by his possession of the requisite legal qualification that he is entitled to esteem and respect in his professional pursuits the utmost confidence should be extended. DR. LA'MERT has obtained the highest medical honours as his diplomas testify, and the great extent of his practice for many years is a guarantee for his professional experience, which has reference almost solely to the treatment of these diseases.

The work may be had in St. John, of H. CHUBB & Co., price 2s. 6d. Stg.; Halifax, Messrs. MORTON & Co.; Quebec, Mr. NEILSON.
