Keating's Cough Lozenges.
A CERTAIN REMEDY for disorders of the Pulmonary Organs, Difficult Breathing, Consumption (of which COUGH is the most positive indication) are of meriting efficacy. In ASTHMA, and WETTER COUGH, they have never been known to fail.
KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES are free from every deleterious ingredient; they may, therefore, be used by the young and old, the male and the female; and the PUBLIC SPEAKER and the PROFESSIONAL SINGER will find them invaluable in relieving the irritation, trifling incidental to voice exertion, and consequently a powerful auxiliary in the production of MELODIOUS ENUNCIATION.
Prepared and sold in Boxes, and Tins, of various sizes, by THOMAS KEATING, Chemist, &c., No. 79, St. Paul's Churchyard, London. Sold by W. B.—To prevent spurious imitations, please observe that the words "KEATING'S COUGH LO-ZENGES" are engraved on the Government Stamp of each box.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONIALS.
Copy of a Letter from "COLONEL BARBER, of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, (now in the Army of the East Indies, and in the Command of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Regiment, at Calcutta.)
"I cannot resist informing you of the extraordinary benefit I have experienced in taking only a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough for several weeks, which defied all the usual remedies for me, and I got completely rid of it by taking about half a dozen of your Lozenges, which I find are the only ones I have ever used with such striking success, or of any other kind."
"I am, Sir, your humble servant."
"L. BARBER, 79, St. Paul's Churchyard."
"Melbourne, Perth, Philip, May 16th, 1852."
"Dear Sir—I duly received per Mail, the case of Lozenges, and in saying that they have done me the value of ten pounds, to be double the last sent, I do not mean to say that they are worth ten pounds, but that they have done me the value of ten pounds in the general way, and I assure you that the Lozenges have done more good in almost every case I have recommended them in, than I believe them better adapted to this climate than any other I have ever seen."
"I am, Sir, your faithful servant."
