CARD.

Citizens of Saint John and Vicinity,

FEELING grateful to you all for the extensive patronage you have bestowed upon me since my commencement in business, I now beg to inform you that I have been enabled to add to my present stock a general and well selected assortment of DRUGS, MEDICINES, Patent Medicines, and Chemicals of the very best quality; also, a large variety of splendid PERFUMERY, consisting of Lily of the Valley, Jenny Lind, Jockey Club, Extract of Flowers, Pachouli, Lilac, Rondeletia, Eau de Lavand, Eau de Millefleur, and many others, too numerous to mention, all of which have been imported this Spring, from one of the best establishments in London, and on trial will be found to be of superior kinds.

STANDING RULE.

In order to avoid mistakes or accidents, all Medicines leaving this establishment will have the name of the article attached to the package or phial marked in plain English letters, the London and Edinburgh Dispensatory being my guide.

MOTTO.

I am determined, if possible, to give satisfaction to all, and, if in my power, to please every one.

TO PHYSICIANS.

If entrusted with your prescriptions, you may rely upon having them properly dispensed, and no ingredient but those of the very best shall be used. I therefore hope, by strict attention and personal attendance, still to retain that confidence which you have so long entrusted me with.

Remember—the Medical Hall, No. 2, Saint Stephen's Building. R. D. McARTHUR,
