THE COLONIAL Life Assurance Company.

Head Office—22, St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh

GOVERNOR,

The Right Hon. The Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Governor General of Canada.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS IN ST. JOHN, N. B.:

The Hon. John Robertson, Merchant,
Charles Ward, Esquire, Merchant,
William H. Street, Esquire, Merchant,
John Wishart, Esquire, Merchant,
John Duncan, Esquire, Merchant.

The Colonial Life Assurance Company has been established for the purpose of affording to the Colonies of Great Britain the advantages of Life Assurance, and its regulations have been so framed, as to attain that object in the most efficient manner under the most liberal covenants. The progress of the business has been attended with complete success.

From the wide basis of its constitution, and the extent of its resources, the Company affords advantages which no local institution can confer; and it has good ground for asking public preference and support over other British Offices doing business in the Colonies, not only with reference to the facilities which it affords, by receiving premiums and paying claims in any British Colony where its Policy Holders may reside, but on the ground that, in seeking business out of Great Britain, it does so not as an after thought, its Colonial arrangements not being mere extension of or addition to a home business, but as part of its original scheme and intention.

The Profits of the Company for the period from 1846 to 1854, fall to be divided as at 25th May, 1854, and parties who assure during the present year will participate.

☞ Every information as to the Company, and its terms and conditions for Assurance, can be had on application to

DUNCAN ROBERTSON,
Secretary to the Local Board in St. John, N. B.

March 19th, 1853.

THE PASSING.

A MASQUE OF AUTUMN TIME.

Pipe!—red-lip'd autumn—pipe!—
Summer, she is dead, sweet maid:
Bear her through the listening glade,
Strew the way with berries ripe—
Nectarine and peach, rose-stained;
They at least may serve to show,
By the mirrored blush retained,
How her cheek was wont to glow.
I will come and weep beside her,
As chief mourner o'er her fate,
With a veil of gold leaves hide her,
As she lies in state!—
I have wooed her in the meadow,
When she was a sweet young thing,
Ere she in the rain-cloud's shadow
Parted from the spring;
Later, I have sported, blither,
With her in her sunnier hours;
She it was who led me whither
Spring those fays, the flowers!—
Bring, then, round her hallowed bier
Incense, from the dead leaves dry,
While the silent woods stand near
In solemn pageantry:
And the phantom mists shall weave
Cerements of the silver fold,
Ere the red-streaked sky at eve,
To the stars, turns cold.

Mr. Roney, Secretary of the Grand Trunk Railway, sails for England, in the steamer of the 15th instant. Upon his arrival Mr. Roney will receive from the Queen the honor of Knighthood, for his extraordinary and successful efforts in getting up the Dublin Exhibition which has done so much honor to Irish industry. Mr. Roney, like Mr. Dargan, is one of the remarkable men of these times, and well deserves the honorable distinction which is about to be bestowed upon him.—Ib.

The Barque St. John, Capt. W. H. Leighton, from Pernambuco, arrived in the Mersey, brings part of the crew and passengers of the ship Condor, burnt at sea on the 10th June last, in lat. 4° south, lon. 44° west, while on her homeward passage from Melbourne; and the captain and part of the crew of the schooner Matilda, wrecked on the coast of Brazil, near Pernambuco. One of the passengers gives a most gratifying account of the gallant conduct of the officers and crew of the Condor, and of their untiring exertions in saving the lives and property of the passengers, and conveying them on board the French barque Charles et Pauline, from which vessel they were safely landed at Pernambuco. The passengers also speak in the highest terms of the discipline preserved on board the Condor while on fire by her able commander, Captain W. H. Leighton, and of his affable conduct during their previous passage from Melbourne. The St. John also brings a few of the passengers of the barque Sir Fowel Buxton, wrecked on the Brazilian coast.

A Surgeon writes from the gold fields of Australia to say that he has now quite discarded the lancet, and opens the vein with a pickaxe.

The Arab Proverb says—"The habitation of danger is on the borders of security; and a man never runs greater hazards than when he least fears them."

Significant Reply.—"What is the best attitude for self-defence?" said a pupil to a well-known pugilist. "Keep a civil tongue in your head," was the significant reply.

"I say, Jim," said a ploughboy the other day, to his companion, I know of a new-fashioned macintosh to keep out the wet." "What's that?" "Why, if you eat a red herring for breakfast, you'll be dry all day."
