where shall we shop today?

In the women's shop of SCOVILL BROS. LTD., you will find many dainty garments which will serve excellently as Christmas presents, and which, at the same time, will relieve you of that very harassing question: "What shall I give her for Christmas?"

Underskirts are here in shot taffetas, jersey silks, plain satins and two-tone satins, some trimmed with a frilling of self-material, others quite plain, nevertheless very rich-looking. The tailored silk skirts come under this latter class and may be had in a variety of pretty colors.

The gay-colored silk knickers would be welcomed by any girl, and in these two new styles are shown. One has the double shirring of elastic at the knee and the others show novel petal frills, lined with a bright contrasting color. These are exceedingly nifty!

And the glove-silk vests and bloomers, the silk collars, night dresses and envelopes are here in abundant daintiness, together with the boudoir cap necessary to complete the finishing touch.

Lots of little novelty gifts too that fill the bill ever so nicely!

Grenfell Orphanage was read by her, telling of the gratitude felt for the sale.

Letters from Dr. Grenfell and his wife were received saying they could not come to St. John, on their return from England. It is hoped that Rev. Mr. Gordon, who began the Labrador School may be able to come later. He is on furlough this year.

The election of officers resulted in the retention of all the former officers, it being thought that a new society, just in its infancy should have those who understand the work at the head to get it well established. Mrs. W. H. Harrison, president; Mesdames A. L. Fleming and George K. McLeod, vice-presidents; Miss Frances Stetson, secretary; Mrs. Harold Partridge, as assistant secretary and W. L. Caldwell, treasurer, form the main executive, with the conveners from the churches as follows: Baptist, Mrs. Stammers, with Mrs. Lugsdin to represent German street, but delegated to secure a convener, if Mrs. Stammers cannot act; Anglican, Mrs. Gordon Macdonald, Methodist, Mrs. R. E. Barbour; Presbyterian, Miss Stella Payson.

The Eastern Trust company had allowed them the free use of a room in the McArthur apartment for the storage of articles for the bales, and Manchester, Robertson, Allison had packed the bales for them, when ne-

The Fall Weather
 Hard On Little Ones

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright, and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
