OF INTEREST TO WOMEN FOLK

MANY AND VARIED WERE SOCIETY ACTIVITIES DURING THE WEEK

Several Weddings of More Than Passing Interest to St. John's Social Circles—Other Events of Week Briefly Viewed.

The Daily Journal proposes to print the news of society from day to day rather than every Saturday as has been the custom of this and other newspapers in the past.

Readers of this newspaper may have noticed that events of particular interest to women—and men—in social circles have found a place in these columns every day, and those who have such news which they think is of interest to their friends will, by telephoning Main 1910 and inquiring for "Social Department," confer a favor upon the Editor.

* * *

The activities of society during the week have been many and varied, but by reason of so many removals to Rothesay and Westfield and other favorite summer resorts, there has been an unusual dullness in the city. This, however, has been varied somewhat by a number of weddings, including that of Miss Norma Fenton and Mr. Thomas McAvity, a delightful church affair of the West Side. Both young people were so well known and so popular with their friends that unusual interest was taken in the ceremony, the details of which have been printed in these columns. The newly married couple are now on their honeymoon and when they return will undoubtedly be made much of by everybody in the summer colonies as well as their friends who remain in the city.

* * *

The wedding of Miss Marion Gault and Mr. Willard Smith attracted much attention, and was an occasion of happy social reunion of a large family connection. The newly married couple are enjoying a camping trip, before locating in the city.

* * *

An out-of-town marriage that was of interest to many here was that of Miss Dorothy Phalen, M. A., to Richard C. Heartz, of Shawinigan Falls, Que. The grandfather of the groom assisted in the marriage ceremony, the Rev. Dr. Heartz, of Amherst. Many of the guests were from the Maritime Provinces, the whole affair being, as it were, a part of the provinces by the sea in an Ontario setting.

The wedding of Miss Frances Bogart and Douglas Wetmore Clinch was very favorably commented upon when the announcement was made. The bridal couple are coming north for their honeymoon, and will receive a hearty welcome when they make a short stay in the city in the latter part of July, en route to their home in Chicago, where Mr. Clinch is a trusted member of the firm of Messrs. Howe, Queenburg & Co.

* * *

The home of Mrs. Charles Delahunt, Moncton, was the occasion of a pretty wedding when her daughter Miss Ruby Aubrey Delahunt, was married to Elias Roy Wasson, of St. John. The St. John guests were Mrs. C. D. Wasson, mother of the groom, and Miss Florence, his sister. Henry Robinson and Arthur Ebbett. After a month's honeymoon, the happy couple will reside in St. John.

* * *

A very popular young lady of Sussex was united in marriage to Dr. Elmor T. Kennedy, in the Methodist church on Thursday last. The bride, Miss Marjorie Leighton Roach, was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, and the good wishes of her large circle of young friends.

* * *

Many other nuptial events have transpired in and around the city, as well as in the various parts of the Province, this month of June having been one of unusual activity in the bonding together of Cupid's victims. To one and all The Journal extends the heartiest good wishes for happiness and prosperity.

* * *

A School Teachers' Convention is not usually regarded as a social affair, there is so much real work about it, but the young men and women who did assemble here in their annual institute are well known throughout the Province by their interest in social matters and their devotion to those things that are really good in society. A teacher's vocation is undoubtedly the most respected service in the country, and if they at times vary the dullness of their work by social frivolities they really fit themselves better for the tasks that always lie ahead of them.

One of the most enjoyable gatherings of the week was the High School Dance. No persons know so well how to enjoy themselves as the girls and boys who are just emerging from their school days, and some of those who still have months of study ahead of them were permitted to join with their graduate elders in this enjoyable affair. The High School Dance is an annual event looked forward to by all the girls and boys of the graduating class, as well as by those who still retain very pleasant memories of the place where they obtained their education.

* * *

Golf and tennis have attracted many people during what fine weather there was this week. St. John is not faring quite so badly as some other parts of the Province in the matter of atmosphere, and yet there has been a foggy dullness at times that we do not care to admit. One or two days were very pleasant, and it was nice to have some sweet where ther has been so much bitter—all this about the weather.

A large number of people suffered an unusual depression since a week ago because of the continued disappearance of Mr. H. G. Marr, a gentleman who had more friends and acquaintances than anybody dreamed of, for very cheery and jovial nature when he was in good health, his greeting at all times to his friends and acquaintances, his love of the outdoors, of motoring, of the healthy enjoyments of life, always were in the forefront, and there is genuine sorrow not only among his friends who knew him so well, but among those who only had a passing acquaintance with him, that any indisposition had aim away from his family and associations.

A number of interesting events in Montreal and vicinity in which New Brunswick people are much interested find a place in the social and personal news of the Gazette of that city.

Lady Stavert and family, McGregor street, are leaving about July 12 for St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, where they will remain until the end of August.

The marriage took place yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Claremont avenue, of Miss Linda Aylen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Aylen, to Dr. Harold Randall Griffith, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Griffith, Peel street, the Rev. F. L. Orchard officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white crepe de chine trimmed with links of white corded ribbon, her tulle veil was held in place with a Russian coronet made of the lace worn by her great-grandmother on her wedding day, and she carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses. Miss Rita Maver, of Kansas City, Mo., attended the bride, wearing a gown of jade green canton crepe heavily beaded with a white georgette hat, and carried mauve sweet peas and sweetheart roses. Mr. Hugh Griffith acted as his brother's best man. Mr. Paul Scott played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Harold Mills sang "All Joy Be Thine." Mrs. Aylen, mother of the bride, was gowned in black satin with sequin trimming, and wore a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Griffith was in black lace with a black and white hat, and wore a corsage of roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held, after which Dr. and Mrs. Harold Griffith left for a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue crepe de chine dress with bands of grey velours and a large hat to match. They will spend a month at Lac des Isles, at the summer home of the groom's father, and later will leave for Philadelphia, where Dr. Griffith will take up work at the Hahnemann Homeopathic Hospital for a year. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Arthur Griffith, of Windsor, Ont.; Mrs. T. M. Brown, of New Bedford, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries, of Ottawa, and the Misses Walsh, of St. Andrew's East, Quebec. Dr. Griffiths, who recently graduated with honors at McGill, had an interesting military career. He served for three years overseas with the Sixth Field Ambulance and was decorated with the Military Medal for his services at Vimy Ridge. Later he was transferred to the navy, and until the end of the war served as surgeon probationer.

Mrs. William Mansfield, of Long Island, accompanied by Miss Miriam Iringer, arrived in town last evening. They are the guests of Mr. F. H. J. Ruel, the Boulevard, Westmount.

The marriage took place Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Frieman, of the latter's sister, Miss Lucy Bilsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bilsky, to Mr. Allan Bronfman, barrister, of Winnipeg. Rev. Dr. Abramowitz, of Montreal, assisted by Rev. Mr. Mirsky, officiated. There were a large number of out-of-town guests. The wedding trip will be to California and British Columbia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bronfman will reside in Winnipeg.

Reader Takes Newer Form of Iron—Feels Years Younger

"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grow old in looks and energy long before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown, an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks; the results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks, and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer on Nuxated Iron. We will make you the same guarantee. If, after taking the two week's treatment of Nuxated Iron, you do not feel and look years younger, we will promptly refund your money. Call at once for a bottle of Nuxated Iron at any good drug store.

German Workers Rally To Support Wirth Government

Berlin, June 29—The German republic seems likely to emerge strengthened from the ordeal to which Dr. Walter Rathenau's assassination gave rise. It is evident that throughout the country, while preserving their habitual disciplined behavior, the German workers are rallying with impassioned vehemence to support the Government. As was emphasized in previous despatches, there is no likelihood that the Monarchist elements are contemplating any immediate attempt to overturn the Government and the storm of anger now provoked among the workers may moderate their propaganda in future.

The order issued by the chiefs of Germany's armed forces' Ministry, mentioned in the Christian Science Monitor yesterday and published here last night, in which the troops and the navy were urged to rally to the side of the Republic has not removed the doubts and suspicions entertained regarding their loyalty to the Republic.

In a proclamation issued this morning by a committee of the Social Democratic Party of Germany the necessity is urged for "cleansing the army from the reactionary elements" which are known to be so powerful. The manifesto also calls upon the Government to take a hand seriously in the long-delayed task of democratizing the civil service, particularly the police force and the judicial bench.

Last night a demonstration of all parties in support of the republic took place throughout Germany and others are planned for this afternoon.

The police hunt for the assassins continues, it being realized that failure to effect the arrest of the criminals will create a deplorable impression abroad.

Opening of The Recreation Hut

Large Audience Present When Addition to Lancaster Military Hospital Was Formally Opened.

Brightness and cheer greeted the large gathering that attended the opening of the Recreation Hut, last evening at 8 o'clock, in connection with the Lancaster Hospital for returned soldiers. It was at once noticeable, that every face reflected the relief the well lighted room brought as one stepped from the dense fog into the welcoming atmosphere. R. T. Hayes, M. L. A., occupied the chair, and with him on the platform were the Minister of Public Health for N. B., Hon. Dr. Roberts, Dr. McCarthy, Medical Superintendent of the Hospital, Rev. Capt. F. S. Porter, and Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Convenor of the Hospital House Committee. The band of the 26th Regiment discoursed sweet music during the evening.

Mr. Hayes, in opening the meeting, gave an explanation of the peace time purpose of the Red Cross Association, and told how the funds that had been collected for the period over which it was thought the war would last, had suddenly, by the termination of war, been thrown on their hands, and, with its large membership of forty million, and its large resources, there seemed nothing else for this vast organization to do, but to adopt some new policy and pursue its work. He explained how the money was spent in New Brunswick. Too much could not be said of the House Committee, under the happy direction of Mrs. E. R. Taylor, the other members being, Miss Ethel Jarvis, F. B. Ellis, C. B. Allen and F. Neil Brodie. Regrettable, indeed, was the absence of Mr. Allen from the meeting, on account of illness, as he was the moving spirit in the plan of constructing the hut.

Rev. F. S. Porter was humerous, pathetic, and practical in the stirring address which he gave to his delighted audience, the boys being especially charmed to hear their old friend of the war days. He said the hut was a misnomer. It should be called a palace of pleasure, although the huts of the Ypres salient, and others, did much to win the war. The Hut was a symbol of the potency of the human touch, the mother's hand on the fevered brow and it was also the symbol of the peace time activity of the Red Cross Society, which activity stood for Promotion of Health; Prevention of Disease; Alleviation of suffering. Finally it was the symbol of the perpetuation of the patriotic spirit, which could never die and would ever prove that sacrifice and honor, were not in vain. To the men who have fought, to those who have died, and to those who were still with us to share life's burdens, was this building now dedicated.

Dr. McCarthy extended the thanks of his medical staff, of the military officials, and of the boys, not only for this gift, but for continued kindnesses, throughout the months and years since the war ended.

Mrs. E. R. Taylor was the next speaker and she thanked all the boys for their appreciation, and told them that this would be evidenced in the care they gave of their new place of recreation.

Dr. Roberts

Dr. Roberts spoke briefly, but pointedly showed how interlocked his department was with the Red Cross endeavor, and said that nothing was so necessary to the convalescent as recreation, because it gave one exercise, and exercise gave health.

Mr. Hayes gave the names of donors to the hut, and thanked them all, speaking in appreciative terms of the help the press had given during the past week in its accounts of all that had been done in the various meetings that had promoted the Red Cross idea.

C. B. Allan had contributed a new gramaphone for the hut ,and donations of money had been sent in by Mrs. George F. Smith; the Loyal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E.; Fundy Chapter; Seven Seas; Netherwood Junior Red Cross. Last, but not least, was the generous contribution of the Women's Council, in furnishing the kitchenette so completely, and also donating verandah chairs. The committee which had this in charge were nearly all present, the convenor being Miss Grace Leavitt, with Mrs. E. A. Young, Mrs. J. H. Doody, Mrs. F. E. Holman, and Mrs. J. D. Goldman, her ready helpers.

Mrs. R. J. Hooper, acting President of the Women's Council, was present, and the Red Cross Local Society was represented by their President, Mrs. F. S. White.

The kitchenette was visited by many and certainly is very well equipped.

The hut is finished in hardwood trimmings, light oak, and a good floor, that may be utilized for the light fantastic, if that seems desirable, and the small platform suggests good programmes that the loyal citizens of St. John are going to give the boys, very frequently. Services of a more serious nature may often be held, and now this old city has its opportunity to show its gratitude to the men who helped to win the war.
