Decide On Cenotaph As War Memorial

Sub-Committee Will Make Recommendation—Felt That No More Than $20,000 Should Be Spent.

A meeting of the sub-committee which was appointed to decide on the proper type of war memorial which is to grace King Square, was held yesterday, when it was decided to recommend to the main committee the adoption of a cenotaph design in preference to an arch. The main motive which led the committee to this decision was the question of price.

MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS

But I can bring thee freedom—I (thank God!) Who loved thee more than albatross or gull— Loved thee, and loved the waves thy footsteps trod— Dream'd of thee when, becalmed, we lay a-hull— 'Tis I, thy friend, who once, a child of six, To find where Mother Carey fed her chicks, Climbed up the boat and then with bramble sticks, Tried all in vain to scull.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

In Greece it is considered highly desirable to have the daughters of the house marry in the order of their birth. Thus an unattractive girl may hold up the matrimonial progress of her family indefinitely because her parents refuse to give their consent to the engagement of the younger sisters until the one next in line is disposed of. It is only when a girl is considered hopeless matrimonially that the established order is broken.

UNUSUAL FOLK

Boston, Mass., Aug. 18.—Miss Dallas Duane was talking one day out at her home in Carson City, Texas, about the career she intended to carve out for herself after she got a little older—she's only 13 now—when her brother remarked, scoldingly: "Career! Pooh! You'd starve to death if you didn't have a private income."

MISS DUANE friends in Boston, so to Boston the young woman came, in search of work. She could have found it with her friends, too, but feared her brother would say she was holding it through pull, not on her merits. That's why she accepted employment in a Charles-town quick-lunch restaurant. The manager says she's the best waitress the place ever had. Miss Duane declares she'll keep the position until her brother apologizes.

New York Hebrew Women Have Society

The Hebrew women of New York who have a society called the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropies, are offering to care for babies for mothers, who may wish to go away for a summer vacation. The opportunity is for any mother in New York City, who is in need of a holiday, who has children under nine years of age. The offer takes effect August 23, and the mother may remain away for two weeks, secure in the thought that her little ones are being well-provided for in the Brightside Day Nursery and Kindergarten, 39 Cannon street. They are told further that capacity reservations have been made for the remainder of the summer.

At Central Valley, N. Y., the summer place for mothers and babies is crowded. It is called the Ida Straus Home of the Recreation Rooms Settlement. Another place, maintained by the Young Men's Hebrew Association and the Educational Alliance, has been filled all summer, there being room now for fifty reservations for the last assignment of guests. Care of the children is the great slogan of the Hebrew people, and with that necessarily goes the care of the mothers.

Weddings

Harrington-Bardsley A very interesting wedding took place yesterday morning at the Cathedral when Rev. William M. Duke united in marriage, Miss Emily C. Bardsley, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late Robert Bardsley to Mr. Joseph Harrington, principal of St. Malchi's. Nuptial Mass was celebrated. The couple were unattended. After the ceremony they left on a tour of the Maritime Provinces and will reside in the city on their return. Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

Ellegood-Porter On Tuesday, at the Presbyterian Manse, Fredericton, Miss Marguerite Porter, daughter of the late Howard Porter and Harry N. Ellegood, formerly of Prince William, on of Boston, were married by Rev. Dr. Sutherland. After a repast was served at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Hamilton Woods, the happy couple left for Boston, where they will reside.

Balcom-Longley Bridgetown, Aug. 22—The home of Mrs. Israel Longley, Paradise, was the scene of a very happy event at noon on Saturday, when her youngest daughter, Edith Margaret, was united in marriage to Neal Gordon Balcom, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Balcom, of Paradise. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Balcom, assisted by Rev. W. S. Smith. About seventy guests witnessed the service among whom were relatives of the bride and groom from Dorchester and Malden, (Mass.), Halifax, St. John, and various towns in the valley.

Wood—Johnston Fredericton, Aug. 23—Leslie G. Wood, provincial poultry superintendent, and Miss Inez E. Johnston, daughter of Mr. J. V. Johnston of Nashwaaksis, were married at five o'clock this afternoon. The wedding was a quiet one, the list of guests being limited to relatives and immediate friends.

Rev. F. A. Wightman, was officiating clergyman. The young couple left this evening for Western Nova Scotia, for their honeymoon, and upon their return to the city, will begin house-keeping in Saunders Street.

Give Until It Hurts. So Portland sage says a man's generosity should not be measured by what he gives away but by what he has left.

A STUDY OF OLD AGE Is always interesting and reveals the fact that the blood is usually thin, and lacking in the strengthening properties of young folks blood. If you want to fill your blood with the fire of youth, build up your strength, restore your nerves, just use Dr. Hamilton's Pills. This wonderful medicine is a grand system regulator. Keep the bowels in good condition, keep the body free from waste and impurities. For young and old the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills is recommended. 25c at all dealers or The Catarrh-ozone Co., Montreal.

A house dealing exclusively in distinctive furs. H. Mont. Jones—and—Furs—They go together.

An August Showing Of Superior Furs At Summer Prices

For the remainder of August we will place furs—furs of real distinction and quality—within the reach of all. We have assembled an unusual assortment of coats, wraps, and fur pieces in general for this August event which we believe is worthy of your attention, and which we KNOW will excite your admiration. Our factory is working full force to prepare for the coming season, and we quote here a few examples that will prove to you that August fur-buying is a real investment. A small deposit will insure you having your purchase just when you want it—but purchased at an exceptional saving. Take advantage of the work we have done during dull season. Superior workmanship shows in these furs, but it DOESN'T show in price.

- Raccoon Coats Full furred and wonderfully colored, it is of becoming length and reflects the advance styles in its broad collar and deep cuffs. Made from especially selected New Brunswick skins and finished in that superior way that you have come to expect with coats bearing our label. $425.00
Muskrat Made from rich, dark, perfectly matched skins and beautifully lined. Some are self trimmed and some are trimmed with contrasting furs. All are fashionable and smart to a marked degree. $195.00 to $300.00
Persian Lamb Coat Fashioned by expert workmen from superior skins of the most attractive curl and either skunk or self trimmed. This coat is most desirable owing to its beauty and service-giving qualities. Like our other coats, it is lined and finished to correspond with its other high qualities. $285.00 to $550.00
Hudson Seal Made from skins of wonderful softness, their very "feel" is a delight. Broad collars and deep cuffs in all the contrasting furs such as sable, skunk, beaver, fox, and others. Quite a satisfaction to the woman who owns one of these coats to know that every seam, every button, and pocket, and the linings are fashioned by superior workmen in a superior way. $375.00 to $550.00
