KIN AID CLARA PHILLIPS

Clara Phillips is getting full moral support from her relatives in her trial at Los Angeles for the "hammer slaying" of Mrs. Alberta Meadows. Her husband, Armour L. Phillips, and her sister, Ella May Weaver, are here shown as they entered the courthouse to attend the trial. Phillips, in a statement during the trial, blamed himself for the tragedy.

Youth, 18, Weds His Grandmother

George Eye, 18-year-old Calais, Me., youth, is still a bachelor although he recently married his own grandmother, Rebecca P. Eye, a woman of 83. When the officiating minister learned of the relationship he broke up the wedding party by seizing the marriage certificate, annulling the union and returning his fee.

HUSBAND'S LOVE
SET AT $2,000

MRS. DORA PELTIER (ABOVE) AND CLYDE J. THOMPSON.

Clyde J. Thompson of Detroit is worth $2000 to his former wife, Mrs. Dora Peltier, according to allegations of Mrs. Thompson, his present wife, in her suit for divorce. Mrs. Thompson charges Mrs. Peltier had expressed willingness to buy Thompson back for $2000. Mrs. Peltier denies this and says it is the price Mrs. Thompson herself set on her husband.

First Picture At Spangler
Mine Where 80 Perished

WRECKED STEAMER HONOLULU

Twilight view of the wrecked City of Honolulu in the Pacific as the black hull lined against the sky made a target for the guns that sent her into the depths. As a drifting derelict she would have been a menace to other ships.
