

SPLENDID TRIBUTE TO PERSONAL WORTH OF SENATOR TURGEON

At Banquet Given in Honor of New Brunswick's New Senator There Were Eloquent Pleas for Better Understanding Between Different Races and Creeds Throughout Canada—Happy Home Gathering at Which Favored Son Was Highly Complimented for Work Done—Words of Warning from Angus McLean.

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Turgeon paid a high tribute of everlasting gratitude to the right Hon. The Prime Minister of Canada, Macdonald King, and to the Sec. of State Hon. A. B. Cope, the Minister representing New Brunswick in the cabinet for his promotion to the honored position in the Senate of Canada. It has been his chief aim to promote harmony, and while we can enjoy this achievement in the County of Gloucester and in the province of New Brunswick, Mr. Turgeon said that the culture of the many virtues of the French and English races will soon dissipate the few clouds which still darken certain points of the Canadian horizon, and we will live in an atmosphere pure, noble, strengthening a happy blending of a Canadian and Canadian bonhomie of French affection and British fair play which will not only generously grant every minority her legitimate right, but will make us forget that we have minorities in Canada. (Applause.) "We are all Canadians," (applause). Mr. Turgeon said he will continue in the Senate to give his best attention to the needs of Gloucester. Many names are mentioned as to his probable successor. Among others it is suggested that Mr. J. H. Ramsay, Minister of Public Works may leave the provincial arena for the federal. (Applause.) All I can say is that Hon. Mr. Veniot is well known as a marker of good roads, and he will soon make his road in Ottawa. (Laughter and applause.) If a man of foresight and perfection is elected, he can rely upon all my assistance until he may get himself acquainted. He shall never neglect the interests of Gloucester. No honor can take him away from them, only final decree of providence will separate him from the interests of Gloucester, and yet, if it be permitted to the human soul in the world above to cast a benevolent eye upon some portion of the territorial globe, I shall forever contemplate the developments of the industries of Gloucester, and the happiness of its people in harmonious action. Mr. Turgeon spoke of the mission of the Canadian Nation in the development of the Western hemisphere and showed what her duty may be in conjunction with the United States in the progress of civilization and Christianization of the several natives of the Orient, and claimed that to Canada is reserved a destiny similar to the great functions Great Britain has exercised with the European Nations. (Great applause.)

Mr. J. L. Ryan was to have acted as banquet chairman, but was called to St. John because of the serious illness of his father, Mr. C. H. Ramsay. Mr. Ryan, in sending his regrets to Chairman McKay, said he would like to have given public expression to the sentiments of high regard in which he holds Hon. Senator Turgeon. "That kindly gentleman who, by his splendid qualities of mind and heart, has endeared himself to his countless friends all over the Dominion and for nearly a quarter of a century so ably represented a great constituency."

George H. Boisvin wired from Grandby, Quebec: "Please convey to your honored guest congratulations and good wishes from his deskmate in House of Commons. Rejoice with you upon his well deserved appointment."

Canada, proposed in a happy speech by Mr. Storer, called forth a brilliant reply from Rev. Mr. Archibald, who concluded his eloquent speech by claiming that there was something of the Presbyterian in Senator Turgeon. (Laughter.) That honorable gentleman in his political career having shown so much determination and perseverance. (Great applause.) The Clergy was proposed by Mr. Gilbert, K. C., who mingled seriousness with humor, the toast being replied to by Rev. Father Superior of the Euclid College, Rev. Mr. Rice, who claimed that "Senator Turgeon was more of a Methodist than Presbyterian" (laughter) and by Rev. Mr. Cooper and Rev. Father Wheaton, all speaking in high terms of Senator Turgeon and of the broad spirit of good will and harmony among all classes and creeds of this country.

Other toasts were as follows: "The Province of New Brunswick," proposer, Mr. C. T. Richard, responded to by Hon. J. P. Byrne, K. C., Attorney-General; "The Town of Bathurst," proposer, W. H. Coffin, M. P., responded to by His Worship, Mayor Hinchey; "Our Industries," proposed by Mr. B. C. Mullin, responded to by Mr. Angus McLean; "The Press," proposed by Mr. E. P. MacKay, responded to by Mr. C. M. Mersereau and Mr. Michael McDade of St. John.

Angus McLean's Warning

In his speech Mr. Angus McLean said in part: "We are gathered together this evening to do honor to one of our esteemed citizens, who has recently been selected by his associates to fill a most important position in the affairs of our country. I am sure every man present in this meeting heartily approves of the appointment of Mr. Turgeon to the Senate, and that we all join in wishing him an this esteemed lady, Mrs. Turgeon, our most hearty good wishes, and pray that they may both be spared many years to enjoy the many pleasant things that are sure to come to them in the honorable position they now occupy in our land. (Applause.) I am quite sure the many friends of Senator Turgeon in Bathurst and Gloucester county can depend upon his taking the same deep interest in the affairs of his home county, and that he will never fail to do all in his power to further the best interests of his own province, as well as all things affecting the welfare of Canada as a whole. His training has well qualified him to fill his present position of trust, and I am sure we will always follow his career with a great deal of pleasure. (Applause.) Moreover, Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, the special topic that I am asked to make a few

CELEBRATION OF ARMISTICE DAY AT STONE CHURCH

Eloquent Sermon Preached by Rev. A. L. Fleming—Spoke of Horrors of War, and Our Thanksgiving for Deeds of Heroism and Victory Won.

With appropriate services and a very eloquent sermon by the rector, Rev. A. L. Fleming, Thanksgiving Day and Armistice Day were fittingly celebrated in St. John's (Stone) church yesterday. Taking as his text, "When thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee." The speaker said in part:

"As we look back to the point where four years ago the last shot was fired across the blood soaked fields of Flanders, we realize that this is the day of remembrance, the day of the largest ever seen in the North End, testifying in no uncertain terms to the esteem in which the deceased had been held. The members of the Knights of Pythias and Orange orders preceded the hearse and a very large number of citizens followed it. The attendance of Pythians was exceptionally large, members thus paying their tribute of respect to one who had been very active in the order. He was past chancellor of St. John Lodge, No. 30, and for many years captain of the guard, a position in which he had no peer. When Loyalist Temple was organized Mr. White undertook to drill the degree team, and he soon had a most efficient working company. While good health was his he was always at the command of the chancellor commander, and he will be much missed, not only by the members of his own lodge, but by all the city lodges. The floral emblems were many and beautiful. Service was conducted at the home at 3.30 by Rev. R. P. McKim, and at the graveside, Greenwood cemetery, by Past Chancellor H. W. Bromfield, who read the Pythian committal service. The pallbearers were Past Chancellors C. T. Green, H. W. Bromfield, Earl Kincaide, W. W. MacKinn, J. C. Mitchell and A. G. Brown."

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

Ironize More Foods

One of the body's daily needs is food-iron for the blood. Raisins furnish iron—the natural, organic iron which is most easily assimilated by the system. Add raisins, therefore, to cakes, cookies, breakfast foods, bread, etc., and you add this benefit as well as luscious flavor. Ask merchants for

Sun-Maid Raisins

Funerals

The funeral of Joseph A. White, held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 17 Metcalfe street, was one of the largest ever seen in the North End, testifying in no uncertain terms to the esteem in which the deceased had been held. The members of the Knights of Pythias and Orange orders preceded the hearse and a very large number of citizens followed it. The attendance of Pythians was exceptionally large, members thus paying their tribute of respect to one who had been very active in the order. He was past chancellor of St. John Lodge, No. 30, and for many years captain of the guard, a position in which he had no peer. When Loyalist Temple was organized Mr. White undertook to drill the degree team, and he soon had a most efficient working company. While good health was his he was always at the command of the chancellor commander, and he will be much missed, not only by the members of his own lodge, but by all the city lodges. The floral emblems were many and beautiful. Service was conducted at the home at 3.30 by Rev. R. P. McKim, and at the graveside, Greenwood cemetery, by Past Chancellor H. W. Bromfield, who read the Pythian committal service. The pallbearers were Past Chancellors C. T. Green, H. W. Bromfield, Earl Kincaide, W. W. MacKinn, J. C. Mitchell and A. G. Brown."

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

The body of David Moore arrived at noon Saturday from Peabody, Mass., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Moore, sister of the deceased, and Miss Kelly, his niece and his nephew, Mr. Moore, all of Peabody. The remains were met by relatives and friends and taken to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. There was a large number of beautiful floral offerings. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery.

Obituary

Frederickton, Nov. 5.—The death of Thomas Charters, a well known resident of Fredericton, occurred today at the Fraser Memorial Hospital. He had been ill for some time but had entered hospital but a few days before his death. The deceased had been in the employ of the Hart Boot and Shoe Company for upwards of twenty years. He was aged fifty-eight years. A widow, two sons, Robert and Roy of this city, and a daughter, Gertrude Rae, also this city, survive. Charles Charters of New Maryland is a brother.

Mrs. Daniel R. Hogan
Newcastle, Nov. 3.—After an illness of about a month, following childbirth, Mrs. Elizabeth Hogan wife of Daniel R. Hogan passed away at her home here on Wednesday evening. She was formerly Miss Elizabeth Smith of Duluth, Minn. and was 33 years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, and one daughter. The funeral will take place at 3.45 this afternoon. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Nan M. Ryan
The death occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon at the Victoria Hospital Moncton, of Miss Nan M. Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan of 24 St. David's street, formerly of Brookville, Miss Ryan was stricken with acute uremia on Saturday night and passed away Sunday afternoon without regaining consciousness. Apparently she was enjoying good health on Saturday and the news of her sudden passing will come as a great shock to her many friends. The late Miss Ryan was formerly employed with G. E. Barbour & Co., Ltd. and later with McDougall & Cowans,

Nancy Pegg
Nancy Pegg, of St. Andrews, died on Friday at the Royal Victoria hospital in Montreal. The interment will take place today in Mount Royal cemetery.

"I Was Terribly Weak After Baby Was Born"
Mrs. H. McClure, Norwood, Ont., writes:
"After my baby was born, I was terribly weak and run down, with pains across my back. I had heard so much of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I decided to try it. Three boxes proved enough to make me quite strong and well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for a rash which broke out on the baby, and the rash disappeared completely in a short time."

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD
50 Cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto

OF GREEK ARMY

PRINCE ANDREW

King George II. of Greece has named Prince Andrew commander in chief of the Greek army, now in a badly dilapidated state as a result of the disastrous campaign against the Turks.

At the time of her death she was accountant in the Moncton office of Johnston & Ward. Besides her parents, she leaves to mourn three brothers, William J., Clarence E. and Bernard M., all of this city; also three sisters, Misses Nellie M., of the Bank of Montreal staff, Montreal; Agnes Irene at home, and Mrs. W. C. Fewings, Wellington Row, St. John.

The funeral arrangements will be completed later.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Stop Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

On the day before her marriage the Egyptian girl goes to the bath in state, under a canopy drawn by four men. Following this, the bride and groom have a dinner for their friends. When the feast is over a quantity of henna paste is spread over the bride's hands and the guests make her contributions by sticking coins into the paste. When her hands are covered with money the paste is removed.

The entire plant of the Stephen Brick Co., Ltd., at Little River, was destroyed early this morning by fire. The loss is estimated at about $100,000. There was practically no insurance. Apparently there was nothing to the knowledge of the caretaker of Mr. Stephen near the vicinity of where the fire started, to cause it and there

System Run Down, Blood Out of Order

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is, when, as a rule, it is improper circulation of the blood.

All they need is a good tonic to build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing on the market today to equal

Burdock Blood Bitters

It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system.

Mrs. H. Poole, Port Dover, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order, and I suffered a great deal from pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. A friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got a bottle and before it was used I found it was doing me good. I kept on until I had taken three, and now I feel like a different woman."

My husband also took it and it has built him up."

For the past 41 years B. B. B. has been manufactured only by The T. H. Atkinson Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Bond's Holiday Special

THANKSGIVING DAY

Chicken Dinner, 50c.—12 to 2 p.m.

Turkey Supper, 50c.—5 to 7 p.m.

87.6 per cent. of Jurors agree on verdict

A CUSTOMER comes into your store where two similar articles are for sale at the same price. One of them is a nationally advertised article the other is not. Which does he buy? The National Retailers' Association found the answer to be:

- 87.6 times he buys the advertised goods.
- 3.6 times he buys the unadvertised goods.
- 8.8 times he does not have a preference.

When the unadvertised article is the lower priced of the two, which does the customer buy? on the same authority the answer is:

- 60.6 times he buys the advertised goods.
- 24.2 times he buys the unadvertised goods.
- 15.2 times he does not have a preference.

Branded and trade-marked, goods, nationally advertised in the columns of your Daily Newspaper, are most quickly turned over and most profitable. That is because manufacturing prestige has been tied up to local friendship and reputation for honest merchandizing.