Old Resident Passed Away

The many friends of Mrs. Albert Thompson, wife of the General Postmaster at St. Andrew's-by-the-sea, will sympathize with her in the loss of her mother, the late Mrs. Frances Clarke, who died suddenly at the home of her daughter recently. Mrs. Clarke was the widow of the late Captain William Clarke, who was well-known in shipping circles in days gone by and was highly respected in his home town. One by one the older citizens of the beautiful seaside town are passing away, and all are leaving worthy records behind them for the coming generation to emulate.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION PAYS TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO MEMORY OF THEIR DEPARTED MEMBERS

Session at Woodstock Brought to Close Last Night—Religious Service in Methodist Church—Officers Elected, and Moncton Chosen as Convention Place for 1923.

Special to The Journal.

Woodstock, Oct. 6.—The N. B. and P. E. I. W. C. T. U. convention finished its business this afternoon and a closing religious service is being held tonight in the Methodist church. A touching feature of the afternoon's session was the placing of bouquets in the form of a circle, around the open Bible in memory of the sisters who had passed away during the year. A splendid staff of officers were elected, after which Moncton was selected as the next place of meeting.

This morning's session opened at 7.30, Mrs. James MacWha conducted the devotional services. She gave a Bible reading on "Requisites for Workers" faith, courage, power and confidence.

The president took the chair at 8.00. Minutes of last session was read and approved.

Mrs. John Webster, secretary of Loyal Temperance Legion, presented her report. She was sorry to report that owing to the lack of leaders the young peoples' work did not show any increase. She saw how important it was that we should have our L. T. L.'s in connection with our W. C. T. U., because from this branch of the work we are to obtain our union members. It was generally agreed to combine the "Y" and L. T. L. work.

It was moved by Mrs. Lawson and seconded that "if the directories are all to be printed in the Dominion Tidings this year at the usual price that we forward ours. Carried.

Mrs. T. A. Clark read greetings from Mrs. R. B Gerard, former corresponding secretary, II Chro. 14:11.

Moved by Mrs. Lawson and seconded by Mrs. Geo. Wilson, that all annual meetings be held not later than the first of September.

The election of officers then followed:

Mrs. James MacWha, Sussex, president; Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Moncton, vice-president; Mrs. T. A. Clark, Newcastle, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Effice Bruce, Campbellton, recording secretary; Mrs. John Webster, Fredericton, "Y" and L. T. L. secretary; Mrs. John Ferguson, Fredericton, auditor.

An invitation to convention to meet in Moncton was extended by Mrs. Geo. Wilson. This was gladly accepted. It was moved, seconded and carried that a letter of appreciation be forwarded to Mrs. O'Neal, Mrs. Humphrey and Miss Ayer, for the beautiful banner provided by them.

The noontide prayer service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Conrod. On motion convention adjourned.

Session met at 2.00 this afternoon, devotional half hour was in charge of Mrs. O. D. Hanson. After the reading and adoption of the minutes the following ladies were elected as delegates to the Dominion convention which meets in Toronto shortly: Mrs. Jas. MacWha, Mrs. A. C. M. Lawson, Mrs. J. S. Perry, Mrs. H. R. Crocket and it was moved, seconded and carried that if any union feels like sending a delegate they may do so. Carried.

Mrs. MacWha and Mrs. Kennedy took charge of the "memorial service" and carried out the following programme: Reading of John, chap. 14; prayer by Mrs. Bruce, and singing of three verses of "Lead Kindly Light." The following departed sisters names were then read: Mrs. John Mondy, St. John; Mrs. C. E. McLean, Newcastle; Mrs Gray and Mrs. Grant, Woodstock; Mrs. Emma and Miss Murhead, of Summerside; Mrs. Agnes Hanselpecker, St. John; Mrs. Fred Harris, Sackville; Mrs. Mary Wilson, Campbellton. As the name of each sister was called, a member of the Union, to which she belonged, spoke a few words of appreciation and a bouquet of flowers was placed on the table to her memory. These bouquets were placed in the form of a circle around the open Bible. The last bouquet placed was in memory of the departed Chiefton Frances Willard. Mrs. Kennedy read a poem, The last words of Frances Willard, "How Beautiful to be with God." Mrs. MacWha followed with a reading "Does He Care." Mrs. Seymour closed with prayer.

Mrs. Seymour then read the report of the plan of work which was adopted.

Mrs. T. A. Clark read the report of county work for Westmorland county as prepared by Mrs. O'Neal, county president. Report of the counties committee was read and adopted.

Mrs. Lawson moved that the sum of one hundred dollars be paid by this provincial convention to the Provincial Alliance to help on the work of the Alliance. This was seconded by Mrs. Charters and carried.

Mrs Perry then presented the banner to the Woodstock Union as the Union which showed the highest increase in members during the year. Mrs. Slipp, of Woodstock, received the banner. The delegates and visitors then joined hands and sang one verse of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." The bouquets were handed over to the Woodstock ladies for the hospital.

Beautiful Costumes At Fashion Show

Audience at the Imperial Delighted—Formal Introduction of Cast of Blue Water.

Perhaps the general air of unrestraint and cordiality that greeted hte models was due in part to the informal introduction of the cast of Blue Water that opened the fashion show at the Imperial last evening. Applause was frequent and the effect was magnetic in bringing out the models in their showing of the beautiful costumes, suits, etc., and much credit was given to the make-up of the young ladies which was carried out by Miss Alice May and Pierre Gendron, with the assistance of Miss Jane Thomas and other members of the cast.

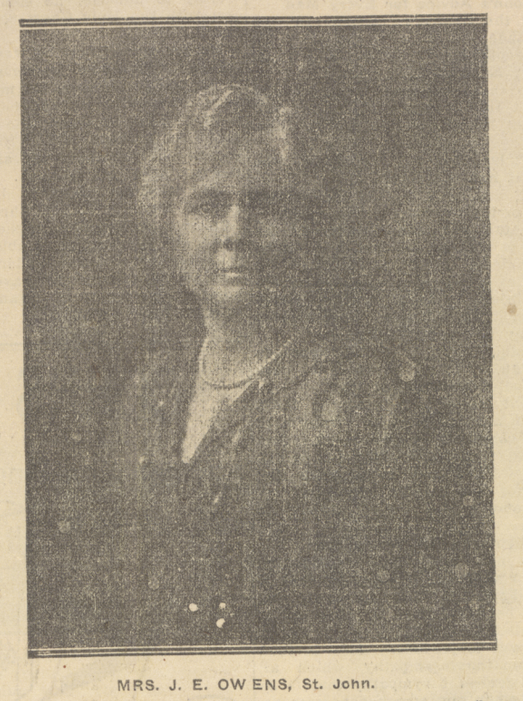

There was great enthusiasm as the young women pirouetted in a most graceful manner, showing to the best advantage even more beautiful wraps in Hudson Seal, Mink, Mole and Raccoon than on the evening previous, from D. Magee's Sons, Ltd., and H. Mont Jones. With the strangeness of the experience passed off, the models were at ease and in turning opened their coats and wraps to show beneath the most exquisite evening gowns, by F. A. Dykeman & Co., F. W. Daniel & Co., Ltd., and Scovil Bros. Ltd., who showed an evening gown of burnt orange lace that was delicate though bright. The black Spanish lace, over white satin, by F. W. Daniel & Co., Ltd., drew approving remarks of the choice of black and white, when minds were suddenly changed by the appearance of a turquoise blue that was rich and dainty at the same time. Afternoon gowns were from all the above firms, rich in embroidery or severely plain except for the soft flowing lines and one with circular skirt in black showed evidence of the need of ordering many more yards of material than have been the custom for some years. The hats were even more picturesque last evening, one of grey feathers being very chic, while the huge picture hats were especially attractive when exhibited by Messrs. James Harrison and Edward Fetherston, two of the leading characters in Blue Water. Never did fur wraps show to such advantage when with sang froid these young men did the vamp act in a manner to bring down the house.

Kept Busy.

Visitor (at a very quiet seaplace)—"And whatever do you people do with yourselves in the winter?"

Landlady—"Oh, we talks and laughs about the people what stays 'ere in the summer."—Punch (London).

IMPORTANT OFFICE FOR ST. JOHN WOMAN

MRS. J. E. OWENS, St. John.

Re-elected Third Vice-President of the Catholic Woemn's League of Canada at the Winnipeg Convention.

Credit to Women's Council

Credit is being given to the Local Council of Women at Sackville for their energy in initiating and carrying through the patriotic endeavor of the erection of the Cross of Sacrifice that has recently been placed in Memorial Park. The Park is situated at the corner of Bridge and Weldon Streets and is particularly suitable for the monument which weighs about fourteen tons. The I.O.D.E. Women's Civic Council and the Red Cross of Middle Sackville helped with the finances, but the Women's Council, formed only a few years has the honor of being the main supporters of this worthy effort. Large crowds gathered from all adjacent towns, the weather being ideal and the conditions all that could be desired. Over three thousand people were present and it is said with pride that not one accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the perfect day.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

to both.

You know a hostess rises to receive all introductions and offers her hand to all guests, men or women.

But a woman guest does not rise when presented to a man or when she is one of a number to whom a woman is being presented.

When she is introduced to an older or very distinguished woman she rises.

King's Daughters' Monthly Meeting

Reports of Hospital and Spiritual Committees Received—Will Hold Rummage Sale.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kings' Daughters was held at the Kings Daughters' rooms yesterday afternoon, the President, Mrs. H. W. Robinson presiding and leading in the devotional exercises. Mrs. Edith Stevens read reports of the hospital and spiritual committees and the rummage sale that is to be held on the twenty-first of the month was discussed and committees formed. It will be in the Assyrian Hall, Prince Edward Street, and will be controlled by the Opportunity and In His Name circles, the latter having charge of the tables and the former of the advertising, with both in general convenorship of the whole arrangements.

It was regretted that the Society could not assist as a body in the Tag Day, but to show their good faith and willingness to work, individual members were active wherever they could be most helpful. There are very few members at most, and many are away as yet, so it was not possible for them to do what was allotted to them by the General Committee of the Tag Day arrangements. They are always ready to assist in any good cause.

Alexandra I. O. D. E. At First Meeting

Having received its charter from the Municipal chapter recently, the Alexandra, I.O.D.E. has launched upon its mission of usefulness to make up the story of achievement that this society is continually enlarging upon. Last evening the first meeting that has been had since the full rights of organization were granted, was presided over by the regent, Mrs. R. A. Corbett, who welcomed the good representation of members to the meeting. Four new members were voted in, which gives a quota of twenty-six. A tea and sale will be held as soon as there is time available.

Mrs. Walter Gregg, the secretary, read the report from the Municipal Chapter, which embodied in it part of the report of Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson, and stated what was required of the new chapter. The members promised unanimously to do all in their power to uphold the work that was put forward by the head organization, and a formal statement that they would, as a chapter, consider the appeal of the Municipal body, was acquiesced in most heartily. The tea and sale was a serious topic of business and will be announced later as to time and date, when the general secretary, Miss Alward, is conferred with. The funds are nil as yet, but the energy and interest of the members will soon overcome this slight disability and there is every evidence that Alexandra, though young will soon be a very active body of workers, with all the equipment to do its share with the other chapters of the I.O.D.E.
