DECLARATION OF MICHAUD IN EVIDENCE

Statement of Man Who Died Said Ernest McEachern Struck Him.

THE SECOND TRIAL ON AT RICHIBUCTO

Little New Evidence Forthcoming—Case Grows Out of Quarrel Between Farmers Near Buctouche Last May.

Special to Journal.

Richibucto, Nov. 21—The declaration of Gordon Michaud that he was attacked by Ernest McEachern was put in evidence today at the second trial of the latter in the Circuit Court on a charge of murder. Justice Crocket is presiding. William Ryan, of St. John, appeared for the Crown and H. A. Powell, K.C., of St. John and Hon. A. A. Dysart, of Buctouche are defending.

The first trial came to an end when Judge Barry, who presided, became ill and had to dismiss the jury. The case is attracting much attention in the vicinity and a large number of spectators were in the courtroom this morning in spite of the inclement weather.

The death of Michaud occurred near Buctouche on May 1st last.

The jury selected follows: Hilaire Gallant, St. Pierre; Fred Vautour, St. Louis; Joseph H. Bourgeois, Cocagne; Edward McDonald, McKees Mills; Antoine A. Cormier, Cormierville; Geo. E. Warman, Bass River; James Callendar, Rexton; William Clark, Mill Creek; Jacques Johnson, St. Louis; Joseph B. Miller, Molus River; John A. Beers, Beersville, and Joseph Biggs, McKees Mills.

Robert Michaud, brother of the dead man, testified that he heard about Gordon's being hurt sometime in the forenoon of May 1. On arriving at his brother's place he found him lying unconscious on a bed in a room off the kitchen. He noticed that his face was bruised and his left ear cut. Upon closer examination he noticed a little perforation in the flesh just behind the ear. He was then lying on his back. He turned him over to one side and when he did so blood spurted out of his mouth and nose. He also noticed that his side below the breast was dark also the right arm above the elbow. He then went to Buctouche, and returned to the deceased's house with Robert Amos and his daughter, Roberta. Just then Dr. Delaney, Rev. Mr. Lewis and the accused came along in the doctor's car. Witness was standing near the door of the house and Robert Amos and his daughter were standing about forty feet away when the accused came up to the witness and asked me how the injured man was. The witness replied that he was dead or just about. Witness told McEachern he would attend to him later. He said "look out for yourself or I will put you in the same place and the whole family." The accused came in the house and the deceased's wife told him to get out. Later witness went to Buctouche to see Hon. Mr. Dysart to have McEachern arrested. Witness was present when his brother died on May 14th. The witness was with his brother, Charile, when the exhibits in court (the sticks) were found. There was fresh mud on the big end of the stick, but the grass underneath the small stick was withered and dead indicating that it had been lying there a good length of time.

In the afternoon the witness was cross examined by Mr. Powell. The witness said that as far is he knew his brother did not regain consciousness before the third day of May. This seemed to contradict the evidence given at the trial in October, when the witness testified that his brother regained consciousness on the evening of the second day. As far as witness knows the relations between the accused and deceased were quite friendly.

Donald Michaud, of South Branch, another brother of the deceased, was the second witness. He corroborated the evidence given by Robert as to the condition of his brother on the first evening when he got to his place except as to the injury to the left eye which seemed to be hanging out of its socket.

At this stage Mr. Ryan announced that he would offer a dying declaration made by the deceased to his brother, the witness. The judge thereupon ordered the jury to retire. Michaud was lying down with an ice bag on his head. Witness asked him condition of his eyes and the deceased said he was blind, but said it did not matter as he was dying. He wanted all his bills paid. Rev. Mr. Lewis and Dr. Delaney testified as to the deceased's physical condition so as to enable the judge to arrive at a decision as to the state of mind of the deceased with regard to his belief in his non recovery. These witnesses evidence, as given here, will appear later on in the trial of the main issue. After considerable discussion on the part of court and counsel the court declared that the Michaud declaration was admissable. He said that he was out in the field putting off a load of manure and he had his little son George with him, who was piling up sticks by the side of the wagon when somebody sprang on his back. He then looked over his right shoulder and saw McEachern's face. He said he hauled him around off his shoulder and they clinched. He put him down and held him there. McEachern tried to kick him on the back of the head and then began to beg to be let up. His wife came along and said "boys, don't fight." He said he let McEachern go and sprang to his feet and looked in the direction of his wife. He had made a stride in her direction when he received a blow on the back of the head. He fell to his hands and knees. He says he could have got up but received another blow directly on the back of the head. This time it was just as if a gun had gone off in his head. Then he knew nothing more.

INVESTIGATION OF LANCASTER SEWERAGE JOB

At Hearing Last Night Committee Voted to Have Engineer Prepare Statement of Work Done and Estimate of Amount Necessary to Complete Contract.

An investigation into the sewerage contract for the parish of Lancaster, ordered at the last meeting of the Municipal Council, was held last evening at the office of the county secretary and after some discussion it was decided to have the engineer prepare a statement of the work done to date and an estimate of the amount needed to complete the job, his report to be placed before the next meeting of the council. The investigation arose out of a resolution passed at the July meeting of the council, when an order was passed to have the figures in the contract of the Maritime Construction Co. verified before going ahead with the work, which it was contended was not done.

At the last meeting of the council a motion to increase the bond issue for this work was brought up and referred to a committee composed of Councillors Bullock, Wigmore and O'Brien for investigation.

Councillor Bullock occupied the chair last evening and Councillor O'Brien said he had asked for the investigation because he understood the figures of the contract had not been verified and he wanted to know where the additional money asked for was going to. It was explained that the figures had been verified by the county secretary and the warden before the contract was signed. Councillor O'Brien contended they should have been verified by the engineer in charge of the work.

Councillor Campbell said he as chairman of the sewerage board had ordered the work stopped the day after the council meeting and Councillor O'Brien said the work was stopped because the season was too far advanced to pour concrete and the engineer had given the instructions for the work to cease.

G. W. Mullin, county auditor said there had been paid on the contract the sum of $4,192.96, leaving a balance due to date of $737.95. There was also needed for the work an additional $1,230 to pay for land and incidental expenses, making the total bond issue necessary $6,160.

Councillor Wigmore said so far as he could see this was what the bond issue should be for.

Councillors O'Brien and Campbell had an argument as to who was to blame for the work being undertaken. The latter said Councillor O'Brien had made the motion in the sewerage board and the latter retorted that he had done it to help his colleague out. During the discussion Councillor O'Brien said he had learned of the intention to hold investigation from Councillor Campbell and the latter came with a notice that all the investigations had not been held yet.

G. G. Murdoch, engineer on the work, suggested that he would furnish a statement of the amount of work done to date and an estimate of the amount necessary to complete the work, and this was accepted.

The county secretary brought up the matter of recouping the maintainance fund of the Parish of Lancaster for money spent on permanent work but it was decided that was not a matter to be dealt with at the meeting but must come before the finance committee.

BRISK BLAZE IN WATERLOO ST.

Dwelling Owned by Edward P. Hogan and Occupied by Mrs. T. H. Lydon Damaged —A Woman Taken to Hospital.

The fire department was called out at 2.25 yesterday afternoon to a fire in a house at 50 Waterloo street, owned by Edward P. Hogan, and occupied by Mrs. T. H. Lydon, while Dr. H. P. Travis has his dental offices in the main portion of the building. The fire started in the centre of the ell and was burning briskly when the firemen arrived, the flames shooting from two of the top story windows.

The fire had secured a good hold on the furniture and bedding in the rooms and three streams of water were brought into play. The salvage corps did good work in covering up the furniture in the main building and little damage was done in this part of the house. The firemen were forced to do a good deal of chopping and were busily engaged in flinging smoldering bedding and furniture from the ell windows.

It is not definitely known how the blaze originated, but one of the occupants of the house said that she had left the kitchen for only two or three minutes and on her return found it a mass of flames. Miss Alice Walton, an elderly woman, who was in the house when the fire broke out, became greatly affected and had to be removed to Donahue's stables across the street and later taken to the General Public Hospital.

The building is fully covered by insurance, but the loss entailed with destroyed furniture is quite heavy to the tenants. The all out sounded at 3.15 p.m.

TO WED SOON

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 21—The announcement in England of the engagement of Helen Moria, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Vernon Eaton, to Sir John Dashwood, has created interest here. Her father came to Kingston, from Fredericton, N. B., transferring from the R.C.R. to the Royal Canadian Horse artillery, and was later in command of "B" battery.

WOOLEN MILL OF TRAPPISTS IS DESTROYED

Plant of Religious and Highway Bridge Near Rogersville Burned.

LOSS IS ESTIMATED AT NEARLY $25,000

Large Stock of Blazing Wool Lights Up the Countryside for Miles — Road Traffic Not Cut Off.

Special to Journal.

Chatham, Nov. 21—Word has been received here of the destruction by fire of a woolen mill owned by the Order of La Trappe and a wooden high way bridge between the Trappist monastery and the mill. The property was situated near Rogersville. How the fire originated is not known, but when it was discovered it had gained great headway and nothing could be done in the absence of effective fire fighting apparatus to save the woolen plant and bridge. There was a large stock of wool in the mill and when the wool ignited it made a blaze that was visible for many miles.

The burning of the bridge did not cut off highway communication as a bridge was built recently a short distance down the river.

The loss to the Trappist order is estimated at nearly $25,000.

FORMER ST. JOHN MAN GUILTY IN EXTORTION CASE

Evans Varbett, Who at One Time Lived in North End, Convicted of Writing Black Hand Letter to James W. Moir of Halifax.

Word was received here last night that Evans Varbeff of Halifax, formerly a resident of the North End had been found guilty by Stipendiary Magistrate O'Hearn in that city of attempting to extort money from James W. Moir by threats to kill. Varbeff was employed on the Valley Railroad when it was being constructed and later kept a small store here. He will be sentenced on Friday, but in the meantime it is understood that his counsel, J. E. Griffiths, will prepare a case for an appeal.

Before giving his decision of guilt, Magistrate O'Hearn pointed out that the evidence submitted against Varbeeff was purely circumstantial, but after a close study of all the facts brought out in the case he had found that all the evidence pointed to one conclusion—the guilt of the prisoner. Comparison of scenarios written by Varbeff with a letter received by Mr. Moir showed a similar pecularity of punctuation and the plots of his stories had always been on the "black hand" line. The prisoner had also contradicted statements made by one of his own witnesses. The story put up by the prisoner, that he had picked up a dummy package and put in his pocket without looking at it, and with the intention of taking it to the chief of police was too great a tax upon his credulity, the magistrate said.

Counsel for the defence observed that Varbeeff had been in jail for a considerable time, but the court asked did counsel think that the prisoner would be sent to jail. It was a serious offense and the maximum punishment was fourteen years in penitentiary.

Mr. Griffith then asked for a stated case based on the fact that there was not sufficient evidence to convict and thta the letter had been addressed to "Sir John Moir" who did not exist.

GIRL IS KILLED

Waco, Texas, Nov. 21—Grady Skipworth, aged 19, was shot and killed and his young woman company attacked last night, near Lovers' Leap on the Bosque River, near Waco. The couple were riding in an automobile. According to reports to the police, the assailant was a negro.

System Run Down, Blood Out of Order

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is, when, as a rule, it is improper circulation of the blood.

All they need is a good tonic to build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing on the market today to equal.

Burdock Blood Bitters

It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system.

Mrs. H. Poole, Port Dover, Ont., writes:—"My system was run down and my blood out of order, and I suffered a great deal from pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. A friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got a bottle and before it was used I found it was doing me good. I kept on until I had taken three, and now I feel like a different woman.

My husband also took it and it has built him up."

For the past 44 years B. B. B. has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. is a suspicion that it may haven been of incendiary origin. The complete story of the fire is on Page 8.

EXTREME LABOR RADICAL NAMED IN PARLIAMENT

Mr. Macdonald, who thus for the second time has been elected chairman of his party, is a strong Socialist as well as an anti-militarist. He has had a stormy career. He was rejected by a large majority at Leicester in the "khaki" election of 1918 owing to his anti-war attitude and was again badly defeated when he contested the Woolwich constituency in the by-election of 1921. Thus he did not sit in the parliament just dissolved.

He was re-elected for Aberavon by a large majority despite the fact that Mr. Lloyd George made a special journey to that constituency to speak against him and his war record, which the former premier declared unfitted him for parliament.

Mr. Clyness, in an interview while depreciating the action of the Scottish members, professed his hearty dislike for party quarrels and declared his intention loyally to co-operate with Mr. Macdonald for the advantage of the whole party.

In selecting James Ramsay Macdonald as its parliamentary leader, the British Labor party has picked a man from the more radical element of its make-up and, one who in the past, has taken an aggressive stand in pushing Labor's interests.

Macdonald is one of the picturesque figures in the Labor leadership. He is a man of much education, widely read and himself a writer of reputation on political and economic subAs a debater, he has the faculty for coustic and telling utterances with what might be called a pugnacious disposition in political affairs and a readiness in repartee.

In his views, Macdonald has been a Socialist of a rather extreme type, but not of communist tendencies. For years he was a leader of the Independent Labor party group, the more radical in the actual direction of the opposition.

MAIN ST. CRUSADE DAY SERVICE HELD

The annual crusade day service of the Main street Baptist Women's Missionary Union, was held last evening in the lecture room of the church and was attended by a large number of the members. The president of the union Mrs. David Hutchinson, was in the chair, and led the devotional exercises which were participated in by several of the ladies. A pleasing feature of the programme was a solo by Miss Brown.

The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Louis Duval, wofe of Rev. Louis Duval, who with her husband has spent many years as missionary in West Africa. Both Mr. and Mrs. Duval are St. John people, but the mission to which they are attached is under the American Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board. She told of conditions as they obtained twenty years ago and today. When they first went to Africa the City of Lagos was not much of a place, but with the aid of science the fever menace had been practically done away with and today it was a modern city, with all the up-to-date facilities.

There had been a big chance educationally. When they landed there very little was done in this line, but now they had fine schools for the young and colleges for the more advanced.

Twenty years ago there was only four or five missionaries, but this number was now thirty-five and there was a number of native churches served by native pastors.

The address was listened to with much interest. The Crusade Day offering amounted to over $42.

KNOX CHURCH FAIR OPENED BY PREMIER

Scene from Far East, With Its Beautiful Women and Girls Pleasant Surprise to Hundreds of Patrons.

There was a most delightful surprise for anyone who took the walk to Knox church hall last evening, for on entering one was transported at once to the Orient. The effect was instantaneous, of having entered the narrow, crowded street of the Far Esst, with its beautiful women, its open shops and beautiful wares. All that is sordid was absent and only that which was conducive to delight and happiness prevailed. In such surroundings money flowed from the pockets of those who, under the spell of the hour, forgot the strenuous toil of the day and the purpose of the fair is well on the way to accomplishment. There is no doubt that it will more than surpass its objective before the second and third days are over.

Premier Foster, who was invited to open the event, was introduced by the pastor, Rev. Moorhead Legate, and said in part that he was highly honored to be present again, after being asked, with Mrs. Foster, to participate in the solemn and beautiful service of the unveiling of the tablet. He realized that the present occasion had entailed much labor, for he could scarcely believe it possible that so fine a representation of the East could be given, as lay before him. Knowing that it was not for display of beauty alone, Premier Foster stated that he hoped most sincerely that the monetary purpose of the fair would be fulfilled, and he further stated that the beginning augured well for this accomplishment.

There were many of the leading people present, among them being beside the Premier and Mrs. Foster, Mrs. W. L. Caldow, Mrs. George K. McLeod, Mrs. W. Busby, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs H. H. McLellan and many others The young ladies, who were dressed in Japanese gowns served ices and tea, while they were replenished by others, who wore the dress of Persian women, and who were bewitchingly pretty in their veils, which added to their charm, being too transparent to hide what was beneath.

The curios from India were exquisite in design, from the small little trinkets of ivory and beads to the tapestry and other styles of fancy work, not to forget the strings of pearls that were very fine and of excellent quality, and the wonderful teakwood boxes with wonderful carving. Tea was dispensed in packages from another part of the market, of Mouski. The bewildering array of Persian embroidery is very attractive and the whole scene was very alluring from the balcony above, where fair maidens gazed upon the passing throng, or hastened to serve those who rested by the way.

Downstairs the Boy Scouts had a most unique museum, where Shakespeare's contemporary was set forth in bacon, and the home of Burns was also a marked feature. Many similar examples of this collection lured patrons to the scene, where a profitable hour can be spent with the original findings of the lads of the church, who have made themselves efficient through attention of the work of the Boy Scouts' movement.

S. L. EMERSON IS AD. CLUB HEAD

C. F. Crandall, President of Dominion News Bureau, Gives Address on "A Loyal City."

Stanley L. Emerson was elected president of the St. John Advertising Club at its annual meeting which was held last evening. The Club has just concluded the first year of its existence and the retiring president, R. A. Macaulay, was elected honorary president and a member of the executive ex officio.

The meeting was a very interesting and entertaining one. Two vocal soloists, F. J. Punter and David Higgins, rendered songs which were very much appreciated and C. F. Crandall, president of the Dominion News Bureau, gave an address entitled "A Loyal City," which while he described his impressions of St. John as he had found it after an absence of twelve years. He urged the members to get together and use their influence in the building up of a real community spirit. They recognized what advertising and publicity could do in their individual businesses and if they cooperated in a community publicity venture they might achieve much towards the end which they all had in view,—the progress of their city.

A vote of thanks, moved by F. W. Daniel and seconded by R. A. Macaulay, was tendered Mr. Crandall on behalf of the club.

The treasurer's report showed that the club was in a good financial standing. The secretary, T. F. Drummie, gave a comprehensive report of the club's activities for the first year of its existence. There was a large attendance of club members and guests.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—President, S. L. Emerson; vice-president, H. H. Scovil; secretary-treasurer, T. F. Drummie; executive—H. V. MacKinnon, H. Dev. Partridge, George B. Oland, Walter Golding, Geo. J. Smith, and Max Marcus.

A sub-committee to draw up plans for women's participation was authorized to be appointed later.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.
