Social Notes

JOURNAL READERS are cordially invited to send in items of personal interest for publication in this column. Kindly phone M. 1910 and ask for Social News Department.

The hostesses who entertained through the week were Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, who gave a delightful small bridge on Tuesday afternoon, and Mrs. Robert Paterson, who gave a card party for a large reception on Wednesday, and who entertained that same evening at bridge for those who assisted at the tea in the afternoon—they were Mrs. Kent Scott and Mrs. William E. Bowman, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mrs. J. E. Cowan, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Walter Gilbert, Mrs. William E. Golding, Mrs. Shirley Peters, Mrs. J. R. Haycock, Mrs. Charles Maguire and Mrs. William E. Golding.

Mrs. Murray MacLaren was also a hostess who entertained informally at the tea hour Tuesday.

Mrs. Hugh McLean, Jr., was also a hostess at the tea hour on Thursday, when Mrs. Holly and Mrs. Harold Stetson dispensed coffee and cake. They were assisted by Miss Annette Holly, Miss Barbara Jack, Miss Audrey McLeod and Miss Emily Sturdee.

Mrs. Edmond Raymond, Germain street, entertained on Thursday at the tea hour in honor of the distinguished Canadian author, Mr. Basil King, who had convincingly spoken before the Canadian Club in Halifax and Moncton before arriving here.

Mrs. Raymond's spacious residence was ablaze with lights and coloring, and a huge fire was brightly blazing in the reception hall. The drawing room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cedar and Columbia roses, and the dining room where Mrs. F. W. Daniel and Mrs. H. A. Powell presided at the beautifully appointed table. This was centered with an electric chandelier, on a marvelous work of art, a centre piece of Chinese embroidery surrounded by small cut glass vases filled with yellow roses. They were ably assisted by Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Mrs. F. J. Harding, Mrs. Leslie Peters, Mrs. Thomas Guy, Mrs. Parkyn, Miss Deryl Mullin, Miss Leslie Grant, Miss Kathleen Sturdee and Miss Mary White. The guests were well looked after by Mrs. W. B. Tennant and Mrs. Raymond received her many guests in a fashionable gown of periwinkle satin, heavily embroidered with steel beads and wore a large orchid at top of cascaded panel and amethyst jewelry. Included among the many guests were Mr. Basil King, Mrs. William Pugsley, Rev. Mr. Cody and Mrs. Cody, Canon R. A. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, all the officers and members of the Ladies' and Men's Canadian Clubs, and all who have assisted in any way to make the meetings a success. Mrs. Milner Wood, Mrs. Shives Fisher, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. Verner McLellan, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mrs. Anglin, Mrs. Walter W. White, Mrs. Culvert, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Arthur Carter, Mrs. McKewen, Mrs. Moffat Bell, Mrs. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. E. A. Schofield, Mrs. W. A. Clark, Mrs. W. H. Luggdin, Mrs. Howard Robinson, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, Mrs. Gilmor Brown, Miss Robinson, Mrs. DeB. Carrille, Mrs. Percy McAvity, Mrs. Wilfred Campbell, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Raimine, Mrs. Hope Grant, Mrs. George Kimball, Mrs. A. C. Fairweather, Miss Alice Fairweather, Miss Addy, Mrs. H. Good, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Spang, Mrs. William McAvity, Mrs. John McAvity, Miss Gilbert, Mrs. L. deV. Chipman, Miss Stewart, Mrs. W. F. Roberts, Mrs. Downing Paterson, Mrs. Harold Allison, Mrs. Clarence Henderson, Mrs. Sparling, Mrs. Arthur Adams, Mrs. Alfred Morrissey, Mrs. Alexander Wilson, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Bruce Burpee, Mrs. Douglas White, Mrs. Russell Sturdee, Mrs. Blake Ferris, Mrs. Walter E. Foster, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Beatrice, Mrs. Allan Beattie, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Miss M. Sidney-Smith, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Philip Nae, Miss Leavitt, Mrs. Stanley Bridges, Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, Mr. Horace Porter, Mr. Romans and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatheway and others.

Dr. T. D. McGregor left town yesterday for Crystal City, Michigan, where he will reside. Great regret is expressed at his departure, especially by the directors of the Protestant Orphanage at a meeting held on Thursday. Dr. McGregor has proved himself a distinct loss to the institution and his many friends.

Mr. Basil King dined with Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Raymond informally at the Royal Hotel before leaving for Boston Friday evening. Other guests were Miss Katharine Bell, Miss Leslie Grant and Mr. Cecil West, who is a godson of Mr. King.

Mr. Basil King lectured before the students at Netherwood on Friday. His simple talk was very interesting and most instructive. He encouraged the girls to read all the classics and not to spend so much time on the novels of today.

Mrs. L. deV. Chipman entertained delightfully in honor of Mrs. Graham, who is a sister-in-law of Dr. L. deV. Chipman, at the tea hour on Friday afternoon.

It was interesting to note that all the book stores were featuring Canadian authors this past week, not so much to boom their own wares as it is important for any country to arouse the consciousness of its own creative art.

Mrs. John Belyea held her post-nuptial reception on Thursday at the residence of her mother, Mrs. C. H. Dixon, Wright street, when a great many availed themselves of the opportunity to call upon the charming bride. Mrs. Belyea received in a lovely post-nuptial gown of navy blue georgette crepe and wore a corsage bouquet of orchids, and was assisted in the evening by Mrs. Dixon in a handsome gown of black canton crepe with touches of gray. Mrs. Griffith Bishop wearing black crepe de chine, trimmed with flame color and smart black velvet hat, and Mrs. Kenneth Gillies in a creation of blue and grey canton crepe and hat to match presided over the tea cups. The decorations in the dining room and elsewhere were yellow chrysanthemums, carnations and roses of many colors. Assisting with the delicious refreshments were Miss Marjorie Pearce, Miss Nina Thompson, Miss G. Seeds, Miss Hilda Belyea and Miss Edna Dickson. The ushering was accomplished very successfully by Miss Margaret Dixon.

Mrs. Daryl G. Peters returned on the Montreal train yesterday, after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carrille, in Detroit, Michigan, for two weeks.

Mrs. F. J. Harding will entertain tonight at her apartment, Germain street, in honor of her mother, Mrs. David McLellan. This being the latter's birthday her many friends unite in wishing her much happiness.

Mrs. Ward Hazen came to town Friday from Moncton for a brief visit.

Mrs. W. H. Nice, Hazen street, left this morning for Sackville where she will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Dorothy, at Mt. Allison, for Thanksgiving season. Miss Dorothy is taking the course at Mt. Allison Conservatory of Music in piano and pipe organ and Mrs. Nice is contemplating a great pleasure in seeing her daughter and getting a knowledge first hand of her progress. Mrs. Nice will return early next week.

Anti-Nuptial Reception
Mrs. Christie M. Belyea was at home for the first time since her marriage on Thursday of this week, from four to six. Mrs. Belyea received her guests in a most becoming gown of periwinkle blue canton crepe. She was assisted in receiving by her mother Mrs. J. T. Wilcox, who wore a handsome gown of black satin draped over with fillet lace. Miss Annie Wilcox, in pink satin gown, ushered the many guests to the dining room, where Mrs. Milton A. Belyea, gowned in black silk presided over the handsomely decorated table, while Miss J. Hazel Belyea, Miss Isabel Stevens, Mrs. Carleton Tilley, Miss Mary Wilcox and Mrs. E. P. Cuff assisted in serving.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Miss Margaret Wilcox, wearing a dainty pink georgette frock.

Weddings

Abraham-Shaban

Harcourt, N. B., Nov. 2.—A wedding of more than ordinary interest took place on Tuesday evening of the present week at Beersville, when Miss Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monsaur Shaban was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Abraham, of Truro, N. S. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church of Beersville, by the Rev. B. H. Penwarden, of Harcourt. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the young ladies of the congregation. The young couple stood under an arch of evergreen, while both sides of the altar were profusely banked with lovely flowers. There were many guests from Truro, Moncton and other places, the large auditorium being filled by the friends and well wishers of the bride and groom. They were attended by Mr. Harry Girvan and Miss Margaret Beers, both of Beersville. The bride was beautifully gowned in a very delicately shaded Oriental silk, and carried a rich bouquet of pink and white carnations. After the ceremony a reception was tendered them at the home of Mr. Shaban, the bride's father. Tea was poured by Mrs. Isaac Dunn and Miss Marion Massie. The Oriental dances given by some of the Syrian guests were a very pleasant part of the evening, these dances being wholly new to the Canadians present.

Mr. Abraham, the groom, is a native of Damascus of far off Palestine, and came to the land of his adoption nearly twelve years ago, and has become very successful in business in Truro. The bride, though of Syrian parents was born in Moncton, and was educated in our public schools, and is a young lady of high intelligence and very popular among her Canadian associates. They received a large number of valuable and useful presents. The groom's present to the bride was a cheque for five hundred dollars. After a short honeymoon spent in New York and a number of Canadian cities they will make their home in Truro.

Jonah-McArthur.

Harcourt, N. B., Nov. 2.—A very pretty home wedding took place in Grangeville on Monday evening, October 13th, when Miss Hazel MacArthur was married to Mr. Joshua Jonah. Both young people belong to Grangeville, and are very active in the religious and social circles of that place. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacArthur, and the groom is a son of the late George Jonah. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. H. Penwarden, of Harcourt. A dainty luncheon was served, tea being poured by Miss Edna MacArthur, assisted by a number of young ladies. A large number of guests were present, among others Mr. Arthur Vincent, the Baptist minister, who spent the summer preaching in Grangeville, and Miss Gertrude Jonah, of St. John, a sister of the groom. The young couple received a great many pretty and useful gifts. They will reside in Grangeville on what is known as the "Beecher Smith" farm, Mr. Jonah having recently purchased it.

Where shall we shop today?

Such a host of pretty new things that are being received at Oak Hall! I stayed in their "women's shop" much longer than I intended to. There was so much to see and to admire that I had overstayed my time even before I knew it. And still I stayed. They've a dear little afternoon frock of Havana brown canton with the new tight-fitting bodice and full flaring sleeves. This is trimmed with loops of moire ribbon on the skirt and sleeves terminating with tufts of the ribbon and yellow beads.

If you need an evening dress why not ask to see that charming little dance frock of jade georgette with silver trimmings? It has cascade drapes at the sides and the tiny sleeves are really nothing more than shoulder caps.

Perhaps, though, you would prefer your evening gown to be made of velvet? I noticed in this shop a very elaborate gown of turquoise chiffon velvet, trimmed so tastefully with pearl ornament and crystal beads. The uneven hem is long at the sides and the braided girdle of self is very charming. There are no sleeves to this gown and the whole shoulder straps are shirred.

I wish I could tell you more of what I saw, but shall I meet you there this afternoon and let us go over everything together?

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University.

1-2 cup butter
2 cups sugar
1-2 cup milk
2 1-2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder

1 teaspoon cream tartar
1-2 teaspoon soda
Whites 6 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
or
1-2 teaspoon almond extract

Cream butter and sugar together. Add milk and flour sifted with baking powder alternately, beating thoroughly.

Beat whites of eggs until stiff and lightly stir into the mixture. Add flavoring and bake in one pan 40 minutes or in layers 30 minutes.

In baking a white cake it is best to have a slow oven at first, increasing heat gradually as cake rises and browns slightly—then decreasing the heat to finish baking.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO'S

FAVORITE DISH IS

ITALIAN SPAGHETTI

Served like this:

(By Rudolph Valentino)

Put olive oil, the thickness of a finger, in a frying pan and then put in sliced onions, and garlic and brown them. Take these out of the flavored oil and put in a small Italian special extract of tomato, diluted with water. Pour this mixture in a casserole and add chopped onions, olives, anchovies in the salt, green peppers, salt and pepper and parsley, and a few leaves of rosemary. Cook very slowly for four or five hours until quite dense and thick.

In a big kettle of salty, boiling water throw the spaghetti and cook for seven to ten minutes, until it is firmly done. Then take out the spaghetti and put in a collander until it is drained fairly dry. Serve in guests' dishes in this way: Put a layer of spaghetti in plate, then a layer of grated Parmesan or Roman cheese, then a layer of the sauce, then spaghetti, then cheese, then sauce. Mix together once. Never break spaghetti in pieces, but leave in whole lengths.

ESTABLISH HOME FOR OLD PEOPLE

King's Daughters' Society Is Considering Such a Scheme—Possibility That Home for Girls Might be Abandoned—Matter Discussed Yesterday.

Consideration of a scheme to establish a home for elderly people is on foot in the King's Daughters' Society, which met yesterday afternoon in their residence on Prince William Street. Twenty-five dollars was voted to be paid to the Free Kindergarten Association and plans were completed for a Sweet and Sour Shower to be held very shortly. The Treasury reported all bills paid and balance on the right side from the house expenses and plans for the winter's work, in connection with the spiritual committee, of which Mrs. M. B. Auster is convener, were given by her, the committee having met previous to the general meeting.

Mrs. H. W. Robertson, President of the Society was in the chair and was ably supported by the secretary, Mrs. W. H. Nice, who read many of the reports, giving the report of Mrs. D. W. Puddington, who is convener of the hospital committee. The visiting has been carried on regularly and the patients have been faithfully cared for in every way possible.

Mrs. John Foster, convener of the house committee gave a most encouraging report, bearing out the record of the Treasurer, Mrs. George Dishart, as given above.

The plans for the semi-annual meeting is to be observed with the tea and sale that is to consist of sweet and sour commodities. Mrs. Puddington will be convener of the Reception committee, Mrs. Plumpton of the refreshments, and Mrs. H. W. Robertson of the programme and general convener.

There was a general expression of satisfaction expressed as to the efficiency of Miss Flower, the house mother of the Guild, who had brought the institution to a high standard, and who had won golden opinions from the girls who reside there.

In contemplating the home for aged people there was a possibility that the home for girls might be abandoned, allowing it to be absorbed in the Y. W. C. A., thus centralizing the work. The King's Daughters' would then

FLANNELET

You'll Soon be Using It for Pajamas and Underwear.

Eventually there will be cold weather—blizzards, icicles and other such things. The north wind will blow and we shall have snow and what will R. binetta do then, poor thing?

She will make herself flannelet pajamas with ruffles around the ankles like a Pierrot costume and be entirely and delightfully comfortable.

Flannelet undergarments are even attractive these days—they are made of plain white flannelet trimmed with colored piping, frogs and bits of smoking.

Identify themselves as distinctly undertaking the most necessary enterprise of caring for elderly people, who could live together comfortably and happily in the evening of life. There will be a meeting next week to further consult about this matter, and it is thought that they will come to some decision that will be for the development of the work in a definite way, regarding the home.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

You do not refuse food passed to you at a dinner party, because to do so implies that you do not like what is being offered.

It is much kinder to take a small portion and leave it on your plate if you do not care to eat it.

If you are on a diet you should accept any invitations with the stipulation that your refusal of food is not based on your own likes and dislikes but on the doctor's orders.

The fastest recorded day's trip by a sailing ship was 437 miles, made by the Sovereign of the Seas on a voyage from New York to San Francisco.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

A little game called "Helen's Hunt" follows the wedding ceremony in Wales. The bride mounts her horse and gallops away on horseback accompanied by one of the men of the wedding party.

The husband must follow and recapture her and take her to the home he has prepared for her. The coquettish bride often gives her husband a long ride before she permits herself to be overtaken.
