Hostesses who entertained through the week were Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, who gave a very smart luncheon Monday evening at their residence, Mecklenburg street, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard P. D. Tilley entertained on Tuesday at Carleton house, at a handsomely appointed inner, when covers were laid for fourteen.

Mrs. D. W. Harper gave a delightful bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her residence, Sewell street. Those playing were Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mrs. Shirley Peters, Mrs. Wilton and Mrs. William Rising. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with multi-colored crystalline.

Mrs. Percy Thomson was "at home" on Tuesday afternoon, when many took advantage of this occasion to call upon Mrs. Herbert Clinch.

Miss Clara Schofield was hostess on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons when bridge was played at four tables each day. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Gerald Furlong and Miss Portia MacKenzie.

Miss Catherine McAvity entertained at a very enjoyable bridge in honor of Mrs. Fraser, on Tuesday evening at which extremely pleasant functions were won by Mrs. Gordon Macdonald, Miss Dawson, Mr. Donald Skinner and Mrs. Hugh H. McLean, Jr.

The ladies of the Y. M. C. A. held a most delightful afternoon tea at the residence of the president, Mrs. G. W. Campbell on Wednesday, when she gave all a hearty address of welcome and urged the members to work even harder for such a worthy cause, and to encourage new members to join. Mrs. Campbell explained so explicitly the work of the ladies' auxiliary and what they are doing to help the good work along, that it was most encouraging, and an impetus to those who have not been so active. After the president's pleasing address, a programme was in order, which consisted of two songs by Mrs. Thomas Day, which were greatly enjoyed, and two selections by Mrs. H. B. Peck, who was obliged to respond to an encore after reading "The Boy Scout" which was most interesting, as well as enjoyable. Heartly thanks were extended to the performers. The house was lavishly decorated for the occasion. Lovely American Beauty roses were in the drawing room in abundance, while the dining room was a study in yellow, exquisite yellow baby chrysanthemums were used on the tea table, while yellow candles in handsome candlesticks were noticed everywhere.

Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones also entertained most enjoyably on Wednesday evening in honor of Colonel Herbert and Mrs. Clinch.

Mrs. John Gillis, Jr., held her post nuptial reception on Wednesday when she received her many visitors in her lovely wedding gown of white velvet with chiffon trimmings and looked very charming.

The Oriental Fair held in Knox church Sunday school since Tuesday evening, when it was opened by the Premier of the Province, Hon. Walter E. Foster, has proved a very successful affair in every sense of the word. It presented a brilliant scene on Wednesday when the Fair was again opened by Lady Hazen with a few well-chosen remarks. The crowds there, and the many people who were turned away at the door, testified to the popularity of the entertainment. The Fair was repeated last evening.

and drew a great crowd, Dr. Bonnell's orchestra proving a drawing card, and the Japanese drill was greatly enjoyed, in fact every feature was an unqualified success.

Mrs. Frank Peters and Mrs. Leslie Peters have cards out for a reception November 28, at the residence of Mrs. Frank Peters, Germain street.

Mrs. Hugh McLean entertained informally yesterday afternoon.

At the Eclectic Club, which met Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Queen Square, Mrs. Murray MacLaren was in charge of the programme, the subject being "Letters and Letter Writers," and gave a most interesting and instructive address. Mr. Hugh Bruce followed and quoted from Saintsbury on Letters. Mr. F. B. Ellis read extracts from the letters of Champlain, describing principally the discoveries entering into St. John and experiences he had with the Indians. Mr. A. C. Skelton delighted the large audience present with Lord Shaw's letters to his daughter, and Mrs. Macdonald followed with letters of Jane Austen. The last paper was read by Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson on Rupert Brooks' Visits to Canada, and the letters of Margaret Benson. Delicious refreshments were served and a hearty vote of thanks given the host and hostess for such a very enjoyable evening.

Engagement Announced

The marriage of Miss Mary Eileen Cotton, daughter of Mrs. Weston Brock, and the late Mr. Francis M. Cotton, Halifax, to Mr. Leonard Chester Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, London, England, is to be solemnized on Saturday, Dec. 16, at Grace-on-the-Hill and a reception will be held afterwards at Forest Hill Road. D. Hazen, Mrs. Peter Whelan, Mrs. J. B. Fraser and Mrs. W. M. Dunlop.

Her Excellency, Lady Byng of Vimy accompanied by Miss Walpole, Major P. K. Hodgson, Major H. Willis O'Connor, A.D.C., Captain the Hon. Francis Erskine, A.D.C., and Captain the

COSTUME FOR OFFICE

Correct

Incorrect

For the business girl the plainer type of costume is most appropriate. This girl is more correctly dressed for work or for shopping in the trim blue serge, with its trimmings of black braid and its detachable white collar, than she is in the fur-embellished silk costume, which is more appropriate for social affairs. Trimness and smartness are more apt to lurk in simple costumes than in fancy ones.

Hon. William Joliffe, A.D.C., occupied the vice regal box Wednesday night at the Russell Theatre, Ottawa, for the performance of "Marjorine."

Her Excellency, Lady Byng of Vimy, has graciously consented to open the bazaar in the Rose Room, Russell House, Ottawa, which will be given early in December by the Laurentian Chapter of the I.O.D.E.

At the reception and tea for the delegates to the National Council of Women executive meeting, being held in the new Biological Building, McGill University, Wednesday afternoon, those receiving were Sir Arthur and Lady Currie, Dean and Mrs. Gordon Laing, Prof. and Mrs. Lloyd, Prof. C. M. Derick, Dr. and Mrs. Willey, Prof. and Mrs. MacCallum, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Tait and Dr. and Mrs. Barbour.

Mrs. H. C. Sparling was hostess at the tea hour on Thursday, and again on Friday at a bridge in the afternoon. The dainty prizes were won by Mrs. George K. McLeod and Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones. Those present were: Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. W. H. Lugsdin, Mrs. George K. McLeod, Mrs. Mariner, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. J. H. Stevenson, Miss Jessie Steeves, Mrs. C. B. Allan, Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones.

Mr. Henry Joseph has left for Europe, where he will join Mrs. Joseph, who has been there for several months going over to visit her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph will spend Christmas in Rome.

"LARK"

Mrs. Oscar Roach of Sussex, has been visiting in the city and has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Freeze were also here for a day or two.

Mr. Walter J. Mills, manager of the Sussex Mercantile Co., who has long been identified with the social and public interests of Sussex affairs, has been laid aside with a tedious illness, but is again able to be about. It is hoped that he will soon be as well as ever and resuming all his former activities.

Mr. Howard Luke of Chatham, who has been under treatment at the General Public Hospital here has recovered sufficiently to return home.

Miss Gertrude Gallivan, who has been visiting friends in the city has returned to her home in Chatham.

Mr. and Mrs. James McElroy, of Sussex Corner, are entertaining their son, Mr. Percy McElroy, of the C. P. R. staff, Montreal, and who is enjoying a vacation with his parents.

Novelty Shower
About forty friends of Miss Frances Boyce tendered her a surprise novelty shower Wednesday evening in honor

Where shall we shop today?

All ready to go skating? I've been asked that question many times lately and I suppose you have too. Everyone's anxious for the rinks to open and the Lake to freeze over. And of course when the good news comes that the ice is ready for us, we must be ready to go on the ice.

In the Woman's Shop of SCOVILL BROS. LTD., there are some wonderful pullover sweaters that invite skating even on the coldest of days. They're white in color, and the very heavy quality defies Jack Frost. Some of them have the rolled collar, while others show the turned-over collar which can easily be buttoned snugly up around the neck when desired.

Scarfs and tams are numerous in this shop also, in pretty and harmonizing colors, and these may be had for the small skater as well as for the big one.

Any of these articles would make splendid Christmas gifts, and you know that the popular slogan this year is "Make this a Christmas of Useful Giving."

Mary Marie

and games were also a part of the pleasurable occasion, which is one of the interesting features of Mrs. Bunnell's work with her girls. Those present were: Misses Violet Graham, Doris Graham, Flossie Foley, Luella Bunnell, Ethel Simpson, Gertrude Byers.

Engagement Announced
