The Paris winter season is in full force and every effort is being made to provide that particular kind of amusement which will continue to make the French capital known as the gayest city in the world. So far there is nothing formal about the season, Parisians as ever seeming to avoid the heaviness and forced gaiety that often characterize the amusement of a big city. Entertainments in homes seem to have gone entirely out of fashion. Now one rarely sees an account of a big dinner of from thirty to forty covers, and a private dance in the society columns of the papers.

Then there is a scramble at the midnight dancing establishments to accommodate such parties for dancing, and since the vogue for bobbing up and down, like a cork on the water, shows no sign of abatement, there is nothing to be done but follow the fashion.

Mrs. Percy Domville left on Tuesday for her home in Montreal. She was greatly entertained while here and is very much missed.

Princess Louise (Dowager Duchess of Argyll) sent a diamond and pearl brooch as a wedding gift to Miss Diana Loder, daughter of Mr. Gerald and Lady Louise Loder, who was married recently at St. Margaret's Westminster, to Captain, the Hon. Donald Howard, heir to the barony of Strathcona, now held by his mother. Lady Strathcona gave her son a house and a grand piano as wedding gifts.

The Lieut.-Governor of Quebec and Lady Fitzpatrick have given their patronage to the dance which is to be held on January 24, in the new ball room of the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, by the Belgian Benevolent Society.

Mrs. Silar Alward entertained at the tea hour yesterday at her residence "Sunnyside," Mount Pleasant, in honor of Mrs. Chandler. The hostess was dressed in a handsome, Parisienne costume of navy blue, with a crepe and Mrs. Chandler, who received with her, wore a most becoming gown of black georgette, beaded and a lace hat of black and white veiled. Mrs. Rupert Turnbull, who ushered the guest to the dining room was lovely in gray georgette; Mrs. Eber Turnbull in a navy blue, crepe Romaine and black hat, and Mrs. Alfred Morrisey in a gray and blue gown and hat to match presided over a tea table centred with vari-colored chrysanthemums assisted by Mrs. Frederick Foster, Miss F. Stetson, Miss Celia Armstrong and Miss Winnifred Barker. The house was in Christmas attire with its lovely open fires and candles burning everywhere and spruce wreaths in the window. The guests included, Lady Hazen, Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. McMillan, Miss McLeod, the Misses MacLaren, Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. C. J. Kerr, Miss Annie Kaye, Miss M. Sidney-Smith, Mrs. J. Lupton McAvity, Mrs. Frank Hatheway, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Walter W. White, Mrs. Anglin, Mrs. H. A. Teed, Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Young, Mrs. MacLauchlan, Mrs. Hugh Bruce, Miss Bayard, Miss Hanford, Mrs. Arthur W. Adams and others.

Mrs. Thomas Nagle received yesterday for the first time since her marriage at her residence Germain street, in a beautiful blue satin gown and with her in a handsome gown of black lace trimmed with silver beads. The drawing room, where the reception was held, was a mass of yellow and lavender chrysanthemum blooms and a great many visitors were present during the hours from four to seven. In the dining room the beautifully appointed table was centred with crimson roses and greenery, and red candles in tall silver candlesticks added to the artistic setting. Mrs. Robert Ritchie in a very fashionable black chausseur, beaded gown and large black velvet hat presided. Mrs. John N. Flood cut the ices in a dainty gown of blue canton crepe; Miss Winnifred Ritchie, ushered the visitors from the drawing room to the dining room, looking lovely. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. George Flood, Miss Irene O'Brien, Miss Kathleen O'Brien and Miss Elizabeth Flood. Little Irene Nagle in pink organdy and pink hat trimmed with silver lace was a dainty figure at the door.

Mrs. Claire Gilmore, who has been in Boston and New York for several weeks, has returned and is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kerr left on Tuesday to take up their residence at Saranac Lake. Their departure from St. John is regretted by a large circle of friends. Mr. Kerr conducted a business college here for a great many years and had as his pupils many of the leading business men of this city. Rev. H. Miller and several members of St. David's congregation were at the station to bid farewell and wish good luck to Mr. and Mrs. Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hope and Miss Constance Hope, Dorchester street, Montreal, returned last week by the Montreal from a two months' visit to England.

After a Requiem Mass in the Cathedral, at which the Bishop of Cork officiated, the funeral cortege left for the family burial ground at Bandon. The streets along the route were densely packed with spectators.

MANY RECEIVE CERTIFICATES

St. John Ambulance Association of New Brunswick Makes Awards.

Mayor Fisher, Chief Justice McKeown, Col. Murray MacLaren, M. P., Hon. Dr. Roberts, minister of public health, and A. C. Skelton, president of the St. John Ambulance Association of the New Brunswick division, were all congratulatory in their addresses to Chief of Police Smith last evening at the annual meeting of the association held in the G. W. V. A. hall, with Mr. Skelton presiding.

Chief Smith was told that it was particularly commendatory that being from the ranks he had molded the force into such a fine body of men, splendid in manner, as well as in appearance. The 40 men assembled to receive their certificates for the second year's work in the course that they had made a special study have advanced to a point of efficiency through their attention to the teaching received. All this and much more was said by the various speakers and heartily endorsed by the audience, who applauded with vigor.

The report of Miss Irene Barbour was comprehensive, and the basis of the remarks that were made by Col. MacLaren in moving its adoption. He emphasized the objective of the society as given by Miss Barbour which was to carry the instruction first of all to those who were in most immediate need of first aid, and the co-operation of the Workmen's Compensation Board, the police force and the training of student teachers by the Department of Health.

The police were given their certificates and are as listed in the Journal a short time ago, when notice of their success was announced.

The Girl Guides of Rothesay Co. No. 2 were successful in winning the Wallace Nesbitt trophy, and No. 6 Boy Scouts, of East St. John, were the winners of second place. HEALTH CENTRE POSTERS UNIQUE

The Posters for Health that are everywhere in evidence at the Health Centre are as interesting as an art gallery and will be even more so to the boys and girls who see them on their trips to the various clinics. The humour of these designs and suggested themes will appeal to old and young, quite apart from the fact that there is in gained. What child will ever forget the curly-headed boy, who is reaching out for a bite of a cake that another boy has bitten into? Behind the former is a small dog, who is also reaching out for something that looks suspiciously like a very big bug, horribly gummy in his contour. The motto is almost unnecessary.

Sleeping in front of a closed window, the statement is printed in large letters. "Night air is the only air at night. Better open than closed up tight." There will be clean hands, ears, in fact the bath will be the main feature of each day's beginning, if the ideas of the pictures in Dr. Hamilton's room sink in, and there can be found a place in some of the crowded homes of some parts of the city, for the privacy of such a luxury, if the desire is created, no doubt, some way will be found.

Over the stairway at the head of the first landing, and back of where the speakers stood at the opening of the Centre, on Tuesday, is a very fine picture of the Imperial staff, with a beautiful girl on one side and a handsome boy on the other. Above the trio is a circular emblem with the words: "The quality of your children to-day, the glory of Canada to-morrow. Above all are the words, 'It's up to You.'" This was designed and produced by St. John's noted artist, Fred Sturges, of the Imperial staff. The figures are almost life size and linger in one's mind emphasizing the duty that is Canada's, especially after viewing the brave little Crusaders at the entrance.

BUSY SCENES AT Y. W. C. A. CENTRE

Nearly one hundred babies and juniors were grouped on the floor of the concert room of the Y.W.C.A. Recreation Centre, King St. East, yesterday afternoon, when The Journal reporter wandered in to see the pretty sight. Santa Claus was there and his wife and an impromptu program was in progress, each performer being from that interesting group before mentioned. After speeches the company lined up in excellent order, each armed with a small envelope that contained a present of money for one of the other groups, and each little donor received a red crepe paper package, that contained a box of beads.

Christmas games had previously been played and some very fine acrobatic dancing was given by the children. Above all glittered the tree and dear little eyes were always turned to it, with its burden of loving thought for others, in the very trust of Christmas spirit.

Milk, with dainty sandwiches and plain cake were served to the happy guests, who were called for by various older members of the family. It not already proud spectators of the afternoon's grand doings. Before the departure the game "Here we go round the Mulberry tree," was played and the vigorous rubbing when wash day came, denotes possible activity in many endeavors as years add experience to the small folk. Miss Kathleen Foster, Mrs. Lagedin and Miss Pirie guarding the interests of all. Mrs. W. H. Hayward officiated at the piano.

The Loyalty Club was entertained Tuesday evening, a group of charming girls from Corona Co., Ltd., and the next in order will be the Y.W.C.A. a large group of industrial girls, ranging from five years to the late teens. These are busy times for the Y.W.C.A. workers, who give unsparingly of their personality and ability to make the girls happy.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

by S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift.

In reviewing the year which is now fast slipping from our grasp we can rest assured that if we have gone through it without practicing thrift, it can be set down as a wasted period in our lives. For thrift is at the foundation of all substantial success in life.

It is a secondary matter whether one's income during this period has been greater or smaller than before. If one has earned more than previously and has nothing to show for it, his success is not equal to that of the person who has not been able to earn so much, but who has been practicing thrift, and therefore has something to show for the year's accomplishments.

Very few persons are purposeful or willfully thriftless. Lack of thrift is in most cases the result of procrastination. Many of those who are not thrifty feel that they have not reached a place where circumstances or where shall we shop today?

A more charming Christmas gift could not be invented than a frock from D. Magee's Sons, Ltd., either for a man to give his wife or a mother to give her daughter. The new flannel frocks which have only just arrived and which, by the way, are as pretty and girlish as one could wish for, are only twenty and twenty-four dollars, and this price for a whole dress is reasonable indeed. Isn't it?

These flannel frocks feature the popular smock effect. The waist is matisse-trimmed and the plain skirt is knife pleated. Colors are navy blue and two shades of brown.

Besides the flannel frocks there are tricotettes, serges, twills, cantons, taffetas, georgettes and velvets waiting to be chosen as Christmas gifts for whoever is going to be fortunate enough to get them.

And by the way, if Santa is going to give you a Mink coat there are one or two beauties here specially marked at three hundred and twenty-five dollars. Here's an opportunity you won't get again in a hurry.

DR. DOOLITTLE ENTERTAINED

Dr. P. E. Doolittle, of Toronto, who was here in the interest of the Trans-Canada Highway, was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McAvity on Tuesday evening. Dr. Doolittle was in attendance upon members of the McAvity family when they were in Toronto and is a family friend. The women of the I.O.D.E. will be interested in Dr. Doolittle, as his wife, Mrs. Doolittle, is one of the ladies who are prominently connected with the Order in Canada. Her name is often seen in the activities of the I.O.D.E. wherever it is promoting matters patriotic, and she is an authority upon various subjects that are under discussion nationally. Mrs. Doolittle is also active in the National Council of Women, being president of the I.O.D.E. for all Canada.

ALL THE FAMILY HAD BAD COLDS

"Did you ever notice that if one of the family contracts a cold it generally runs to all the other members?" Many people when they contract a cold do not pay any attention to it, thinking perhaps it will pass away of itself in a day or two. This is a great mistake for before they know it, it has become settled on the lungs. Never neglect the first symptoms; get a bottle of and see how quickly your cold will disappear.

Mrs. A. Coghlan, Magnolia, Alta. writes:—"Last Winter we all had bad colds in our family, and I didn't know what to do. Some friends told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I went and got a couple of bottles, and in a short while our colds were all gone. Now we always keep a bottle on hand in case one of us might catch a cold."

"Dr. Wood's" is 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

personal convenience will permit of their saving money. But do not allow yourself to be deceived by any such false reasoning. Generally speaking, it is just as easy to begin thrift one time as another. It may seem to you that in the future you will be better fixed for saving money, but as you go on, month after month, you will find that even though conditions may apparently improve with you the temptation to waste your financial resources is just as strong.

The coming New Year will be a most auspicious time for the beginning of a thrifty life. Do not procrastinate, no matter what your circumstances in life may be. Make the start. Resolve that when this period comes around next year you will have something to show for your time and labor. These end-of-the-year days constitute an opportune time for the start in thrift practices.
