NOT SKY-LINE BUT NEW YORK SKIRT LINE

New York, Nov. 12.—This is the first exclusive view of the great New York Skirt Line.

It was taken at great risk of life on the pavement of Fifth Avenue.

As the shopping hordes came sweeping down, the cameraman took one look and ran.

But he got his picture.

It shows that despite all decrees of fashion, the New York Skirt Line has not yet fallen—on the average.

It still ranges from eight to thirteen inches above the ground—

Without the wind blowing.

Genius

George Kratina, 12-year-old son of Joseph M. Kratina, a prominent New York sculptor, has aroused the attention of the art world with his figures. So that the boy's fame will be his own, his father has advised him to work under the name of "K. George." One of the boy's most famous figures "The Gorilla" is shown above.

A Belle of Washington

Miss Margaret Harding, daughter of W. F. G. Harding, former governor of the Federal Reserve Board, is one of the most popular members of the younger set in Washington.

In a Washington Park

Nuts are so plentiful in the nation's capital that squirrels have become lazy and fat. No searching for food. Life consists of waiting to be fed along with the pigeons. And both have many friends to contribute to their support.

British Peer Ejected

Being a British peer is no protection from a landlord. So Baron and Lady Auckland found when a dispossession notice was served on them in the house they had rented in Florham Park, N. J. Rent for August and September had not been paid, said the landlord. The photo shows Baron and Lady Auckland with their friend Baron Zezza.

Pershing Goes Duck Hunting

The leader of the A. E. F. is an expert with a ten-gauge shotgun. Here General Pershing is shown duck hunting at Pass a Loure, La. Up to the time this picture was taken, the general had made eight straight kills.
