Guy Porter, Ralph Waite, James Stewart, Geo. Davis, LeBaron Hopkins and Rev. A. F. MacLean.

Will we have a rink this year? For clean, wholesome, outdoor sport, skating and hockey are not excelled and a rink is much desired, especially by the younger element. We believe that we will have a rink and if Mr. Wright is willing to take a chance and operate another one this winter residents of Perth and Andover should encourage the project as much as possible in every way.

The Christmas tree shipping season is now well advanced. Creighton & Ridley, the largest exporters of the trees in Carleton county, have finished their cut and expect to have it all shipped out by the end of this week. Their entire product goes to the New York market, although some of the other dealers are also shipping to Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago. Some of the trees arriving at these centres are disposed of locally while others are reshipped to surrounding towns.

The largest seizure of liquor in Carleton county in some time was made early Monday morning between Upper Woodstock and Jacksonville Corner, when Preventive Officer Edward Whalen seized a large Buick car with 100 gallons of alcohol. The car was driven by Roy Sonier and was enroute from the North shore to the Maine border. Sonier was arrested and brought to the Woodstock jail. He appeared before Magistrate Augherston on Tuesday and was remanded to jail for a week.

History repeated itself Tuesday night when Preventive Officers Whalen and E. R. Finnamore seized another 100 gallons of alcohol on the river road about three miles below Woodstock. The driver, who is supposed to have been on his way from the North Shore to Maine, escaped. The officers spotted the car and ordered the driver to stop. He went along for about a quarter of a mile before complying, and then took to his heels, leaving the car and the alcohol.
