GOOD BUSINESS

The increased production of wheat this year was good business for our farmers and has placed many of them in a better position for winter than they were a year ago.

Above all, as the price of potatoes seems to be advancing to a profitable point, we must not forget the past two years.

MRS. J. D. BUCKLEY

The death of Mrs. J. D. Buckley, which occurred at Hotel Dieu Hospital, St. Basil, on Tuesday last came as a shock to her many friends.

Mrs. Buckley, formerly Margaret Fitzgerald, Chatham, was the widow of J. D. Buckley, formerly a prominent lumberman of Newcastle.

LERWICK

AROSTOOK HIGH SCHOOL

(Too Late for Last Week) The regular meeting of Aroostook High School was held October 21 in the school room, with Mary Everett presiding.

Friday morning the following gave speeches: Vera Larlee, "Sir John A. MacDonald"; Belva Hitchcock, "Laura Secord"; Clara Boone, "Laura Secord"; Gerald Demmings, "James Wolfe"; Winnifred Demmings, "Allan McLeod."

No meeting was held Friday, October 28, as the high school was dismissed early.

Friday, November 4, the meeting was again held in the school room. Minutes were read and approved.

Growling Gert would like to know if Wilfred Crandemire's jaws run on hinges or with an electric motor?

OST: Earl DeLo and Fred Gaines' "Flying Octopus." The finder will please return the article and pay for this advertisement.

ANDOVER HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

There was no meeting of the Andover High School Association on November 11, that day being a holiday, but on Thursday, November 10, from the hours 11:30 to 12:30 a service was held in memory of Armistice Day.

Helen Delano should get claps to keep her sweaters down—they are always crawling up. Or is that why Don Ritchie had to move his seat?

We wonder why Bruce Clark always falls over when he is doing his physical drill?

Answer: Bob Bishop. We wonder if Chris Anderson has Reginald Mulberry yet, who was willed to her by one of last year's graduates?

Don Ritchie and Fred Titus have now become star gazers. Wonder if they'll see the comet?

Wonder why Betty Paul thinks the boys of Kilburn are cute? Edgar Ritchie seemed to be very fond of his class seat at recess. Or is it Miss Jackson?

Pat Murphy came to school with tears in her eyes Tuesday morning. Is Jim the cause of it?

Max likes to go to choir practice lately. Who sings in the choir that has such an attraction to him? Is it Viv?

We wonder why Ruth Cosman visits the postoffice so often? We

Thin and Nervous

Aileen Lee Tells Other Growing Girls How Dr. Williams' Pink Pills "Worked Like Magic!"

"I was thin and nervous," writes Aileen Lee, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Edith Lee, Dongola, Ont.

"The care of five children, combined with my school work, made me a nervous wreck. I would rave at night and even get up and walk all through the house in my sleep.

"I was still under weight. Mother bought me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They worked like magic. I have gained 9 pounds since September, and it takes a lot of noise now to bother my ears."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually create new rich, red blood which imparts health, vigor and vitality to the system.

Don't let nervous exhaustion blight YOUR growing daughter. Give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Equally good for ALL run-down conditions. 50c a package at your druggists'.
