NEXT WEEK'S PICTURES CAPITOL THEATRE

SAT.-MON., MAY 13-15

"KING OF THE JUNGLE"

Another of the sensational animal stories which seem to please everybody. This time featuring BUSTER CRABBE the Lion Man who has as his co-star FRANCES DEE. It is a story which imagines the wild animals of Central Park breaking loose in New York City.

TUE.-WED., MAY 16-17

"TOPAZE"

Said to be the finest thing that JOHN BARRYMORE has yet done for the screen and featuring also the exotic MYRNA LOY. "Topaze" is Barrymore at his best, a man of electric moods and brilliant satire.

THUR.-FRI., MAY 18-19

"SECRET OF MADAME BLANCHE"

IRENE DUNN, UNA MERKEL, PHILLIPS HOLMES and others are the stars in this beautiful picture known on the speaking stage as "The Lady." There are some splendid musical accompaniments running through the piece which is gorgeously dressed, sparkling written.

RADIO NOTES

The dumb-crackers, George Burns and Gracie Allen, returned from California on a crack limited called "The Chief." Ten minutes out from Los Angeles, Gracie called the porter over and asked if the train had a "papoose." The dusky attendant smiled and offered to bring her a pillow. Gracie rang for him three times, repeating the question. Each time the porter smiled, proffered a pillow, and moved away. Finally, he guffawed, "I know you're, Miss Allen; always foolin' on de radio."

Then Burns entered. "Gracie! Whad-ya mean, 'papoose'?" "Oh, George, you know—engine and papoose!" So, George says, he called the conductor who took her back to the rear car, the observation. Burns says they'll name a new train "The Gracie Allen, Limited."

Dexter Fellows, the circus' dean of press agents, is famed for his memory of names. Like his elephants, he never forgets. He can call off the monickers of reporters and their papers from coast to coast. So, everyone thought Dexter finally had slipped up with his dexterous tongue when he told his "Inside Story" to Edwin C. Hill the other night. Fellows addressed Ed as "my old friend, Bill Hill." But quick research proved him right. Hill is "Bill" to his old newspaper cronies. It originated in his high school days in Aurora, Ind., and he is "Bill" to his wife, rather than "Ed."

Major Edward Bowes of the Capitol Family is the husband of Margaret Illington, former Frohman star.

Richard Maxwell likes girls with freckles and dislikes girls with painted finger nails.
