

Around the Maritimes

The Nova Scotia Silver Fox Breeders' Association, of Bridgetown, N.S., has shipped more than 7,000 pelts and the season does not close until the last of March or early in April. This information is supplied by E. M. MacDougall, secretary of the Nova Scotia Fox Breeders' Association and is published as a correction of an item published in these columns several weeks ago.

Late fall shipments of seed potatoes from New Brunswick to Cuba amounted to 56,000 barrels, or around 140,000 bushels—about the same total as was shipped last year.

The new Moncton post office, at the corner of Main and Highfield Streets, was officially taken over by the federal public works department last week, and the new building will be ready for occupancy in April.

The oath of allegiance to King Edward VIII was administered by Lieutenant-Governor MacLaren in the Executive Council chamber at Fredericton last week to the members of the New Brunswick Government and of the judiciary.

New Brunswick so far has not changed its attitude in regard to a proposal to empower Canada to amend its own constitution, it was learned from Hon. J. B. McNair, K.C., attorney-general. At the recent Dominion-Provincial conference at Ottawa, New Brunswick representatives refused to agree to such a move.

A 36-mile-an-hour gale vent its fury over the southern part of New Brunswick last Thursday, blinding the coast with driving squalls of rain and later snow and disrupting ship movements. Sub-freezing temperatures put a keen edge on the blow and both ocean-going and coastal ships were coated with ice.

Following up their interest in Amherst civic affairs which last year resulted in election of one Labor candidate, Frank LeBlanc, the Labor Club announced Leo Allen would be a candidate in the contest on February 4. A full councillor's ticket will be placed in the field if one can be secured.

The Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival, is to be staged for the fourth successive year. Unanimous decision to this effect was made at a meeting of the 1935 executive, O. C. Jones, chairman of last year's festival, presiding. Election of a new executive was postponed following drawing up of by-laws, which will be submitted by a special committee.

Following the example set by towns from Windsor to Digby in keeping the main highway open during the winter, smaller communities in Kings County are organizing with a view to keeping some of the principal secondary roads open. A meeting for the purpose of keeping the road from Berwick to Somerset open will be held shortly at Somerset, it is stated.

School Board estimates for the coming year show an increase of $16,564.76 over those of last year, it was revealed at a meeting of the Moncton School Board when estimates totalling $317,644.10 were passed. It was explained by the chairman, J. Fred Edgett, that more than $8,000 of the increase of this year was taken up by teachers' and officers' salaries, due to additions to the staff, while the sum of $2,926.25 was added to this year's sinking fund.

A terrific snow-squall, accompanied by several brilliant flashes of lightning, swept over Amherst last week, the first electrical display seen in winter there for many years. The miniature hurricane, with clouds of snow, forced in one of the large plate glass windows in the showrooms of the Canada Electric Company, on Church Street. Flags were torn down and branches ripped off trees, but no serious damage was reported. Several inches of snow fell, again blocking the highways.

The action to be taken by the Transportation Commission of the Maritime Board of Trade as the result of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada rejecting the Maritime application for a reduction in the freight rate on potatoes will be the principal business to be dealt with at a meeting of the Transportation Commission at Moncton on January 31. The decision of the board will be carefully considered and it is expected that the commission will appeal the decision of the railway commissioners to the Supreme Court of Canada.

New Brunswick Preparing For Big Sportsmen's Show

First Contingent Leaves To Prepare Exhibit in Boston, Mass.

Fredericton, N.B.—Friday witnessed the departure of the flying squadron of the corps of New Brunswick guides who will this year have charge of the Provincial exhibit at Sportsmen's Shows in Boston, Hartford and New York City.

Members of the party assembled in the city of Saint John and took passage for Boston aboard the steamship Evangeline of the Eastern Steamship Lines. D. W. Griffiths, director of the New Brunswick Government Bureau of Information and Tourist Travel is in charge of the group. Included in its ranks also are some of the ablest and most experienced guides of the Province.

Arrived in the Hub of New England, the party will at once begin the erection of the extensive exhibit which will convey the message of New Brunswick to the thousands who will visit Mechanics Hall in Boston during the week of the New England Sportsmen's and Boat Show, February 1 to 8. Three carloads of material assembled from all parts of the Province went forward a few days ago. Included in these were live game animals, live Atlantic salmon and speckled and rainbow trout. There were also logs for the erection of three cabins and a good deal of other material calculated to bring the lore of the great outdoors to the city dwellers. Departure of the cars climaxed three months of diligent and tireless effort on the part of those responsible for the preparation of the exhibit.
