JOHN M'MILLAN, Bookseller,
Prince Wm. Street.

HAS for Sale a few Copies of LECTURES and SERMONS by the Rev. Dr. BURNS, of this City, which he will sell at the Subscribers price. Of this volume, the following Recommendations have been given by Ministers of different denominations.

From the Rev. Mr. BURNS, of St. Andrews Church, Montreal, Canada.

"The other day chancing to open the volume at the discourse on the character of Hazael, I was so struck with the beauty, elegance, and simplicity of one of the similes that I have since perused the whole volume and found it a continued feast. The Lectures are unquestionably the best specimens of Lectures in the English language, and of dignity of sentiment, elegance of composition, and accuracy of description, there is not a volume of pulpit Discourses that I would for a moment put in competition with it. It displays no common merit both to please and instruct, and this I think the author has happily attained. I perused the work with rapture and found it so fascinating that till I got through it I always laid it aside with reluctance." (Signed) JOHN BURNS.

From the Rev. Mr. FORSYTH, Rector of the Grammar School at Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

"This volume affords a specimen of Lectures the best that are extant, and which agree with the best Rules laid down by Dr. Blair in his Rhetoric. They likewise show a deep acquaintance with the human heart. The Sermons are excellent and well worth repeated perusal." (Signed) WILLIAM FORSYTH.

From the Rev. Mr. CAMPBELL, Minister of the United Secession Church, Peterhead, Scotland.

"I regard them as a volume of excellent Discourses highly creditable to the author, respectable for his Church, and calculated for general usefulness." (Signed) ROBERT CAMPBELL.

J. M'M. has also on hand, by the same author, 'Ecclesiastical Polity in British Colonies', being a reply to a Review in the Christian Remembrancer of a late Controversy in this Province—Price 2s 4d. Also.—Collections of Sacred Music by Stevens, Robertson, and Humbert.
