

PORT'S CORNER.

THE REMONSTRANCE.—CAMPBELL.
"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick."
Whoever reads the following pathetic lines, will recall to his mind the fate of Miss JOHNSTON and Miss VANHORN, the Stella and Venessa of the cold-blooded SWIFT. Their story is well told by SCOTT, in his life of SWIFT, and is most eloquently commented on, in the Edinburgh Review of that article. Both these interesting women died prematurely and broken hearted. If that hateful animal a male coquet, can be made to feel, let him do so while he contemplates the misery that such as himself can inflict. An artful woman may, indeed, assume the appearance of grief arising from unrequited love, and, for a time deceive the affection, blind the penetration, and mislead the sympathy of those around her. But she is soon detected; new objects, and a short absence, quickly healed the wounds of vanity, and the mortification arising from baffled artifice.—CAMPBELL does not allude to such as these.

Never wedding, ever wooing,
Still a love-lorn heart pursuing,
Read you not the wrongs you're doing
In my cheek's pale hue,
All my life with sorrow struggling—
Wed—or cease to woo!

Rivals banish'd, promise plighted,
Still our days are disunited;
Now the lamp of love is lighted,
Now half quenched appears,
Damp'd and wav'ring and benighted,
Midst my sighs and tears.

Charm, you call your dearest blessing,
Lips that thrill at your caresses,
Eyes, a mutual soul confessing,
Soon you'll make them grow
Dim, unworthy your possessing,
Not with age, but woe.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that an Inspection of the Military Allotments on the Saint Andrews Road and Mirimachi Portage, will take place in the month of June, after which a Grant will be passed, free of expection to the Parties, to all such Military Settlers as shall be found actually settled upon their Lands; and any Disbanded Soldiers who may be desirous of settling on any of those Allotments not already occupied, may obtain location Tickets for that purpose.

BY
ROBERT BAYARD, M.D. D.C.L.
Formerly Annual Assistant at the Lying-in-Hospital of Edinburgh, and subsequently Lecturer on Midwifery and on the diseases of Women and Children, in New York, &c.
N.B. Doctor BAYARD has been induced to offer his "Observations upon Obstetric Practice, from a conviction that many errors have long prevailed in it, and in the management of Diseases incident to Child-bed Women, which although sanctioned by the older Authors, and Practitioners in Midwifery, and perpetuated by prejudice, are nevertheless repugnant to reason, and admit of refutation by later experience, by the established operations of medicines, by the laws of animal economy, and by anatomical facts. But as the sale of a Medical Work would be very limited in this and the adjoining Provinces, Doctor BAYARD has forwarded a prospectus of the contemplated volume to New-York for Subscribers, and when sufficient encouragement is given to indemnify him for the expenses of publication, the Observations, which will engross a full-sized octavo "will be sent to the press."
