As the swift years steal away.
Beautiful, wavy locks grow so slim Lose fairness with every day.
But the still is queen and hath charms to

A CLINCHING STATEMENT.

A CURE THAT WAS PERMANENT.

The Medicine Used was Paine's Celery Compound.

Day after day home and foreign cures are heralded as the result of using this that medicine. It is safe to assert that many of the published letters are bogus, and others will hardly bear the light of investigation.

The cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound, and noted in the press of the country, have all the ring of genuineness and honesty about them, and the original letters can be seen at any time by an interested public.

It has also been proven in numerous instances that the cures made by Paine's Celery Compound are permanent. Another letter has just been received, this time from Mr. P. J. Kilham, of Boston, Mass., P. E. I., testifying to the permanency of his cure. His case was one of the most serious and critical ever given to the public, and his complete cure astonished his many friends and the residents of his town.

Mr. Kilham says: "Over three years ago I gave you a testimonial for Paine's Celery Compound after it had cured me.
"Today I am in splendid condition, and have not been sick a single day since I used the famous Paine's Celery Compound."

"I certainly owe my present health and strength to your medicine, and I am fully convinced it saved me from a condition bordering on insanity. I can now sleep and eat well, and I thank God for Paine's Celery Compound and the great change."

"I have received and answered 250 letters since my testimonial was published.
These letters came from all parts of Canada and the United States. It has been a pleasure answering these letters from sufferers, and I trust my recommendation of Paine's Celery Compound will help suffering humanity."

wall of St. Mary's, in the evening. Rev.

Gardner of N. S., preached at the Free Baptist, and St. Paul's pulpits in the evening was occupied by Rev. Mr. Manning.

years of age.

Christopher Johnston, of Little Settlement, tion. She was a bright young lady about 22 years of age, and much sorrow is expressed at her early death. Mayflower Division, S. T. of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body.

A turtle of the snapping variety was captured on Sugar Island last week by David Wilson of the Springhill hotel and a companion, and is now on exhibition at Wilson's store opposite the hotel, where it attracts many visitors. The turtle weighs in the vicinity of thirty pounds and is probably the largest ever seen in this part of the country. A few suggestions that it is the product of one of Mr. Wilson's turtle eggs.

Frank L. Cooper and bride who arrived will stay during her visit here. This is Miss Booth's first visit to Fredericton, and no doubt a large audience will be attracted to the barracks to hear her speak this evening.

THE NEW HOSPITAL WING.

Building Almost Completed and Already Partially Occupied.

A HERALD representative had the pleasure of inspecting the new wing of the Victoria Hospital recently, and was shown around by the courteous matron, Miss Morris. The building is about completed and only awaits the placing of the heating apparatus. The furniture has arrived and is of the most modern pattern.
The matron and nurses are already occupying their apartments in the new building and bright, airy, and cheerful rooms they are. The building is finished throughout in whitewash, with hardwood floors, and its general plan and fittings are admirably adapted for hospital purposes. There will be no inconvenience for half a dozen private life cannot be correct without right doctrine. The doctrine to be taught in a Baptist Sunday school are: The inspiration of the Bible; the ruin by sin; salvation by repentance, and faith in Christ.

The acknowledgement of Christ by scripture baptism; the doctrine of God's purposes. The reasons why doctrines should be taught are: that man requires some solid ground of belief; the infallible church and infallible reason are neither correct standards, but the infallible Book is; that in young minds are not pre-employed by scripture teaching, the devil will take possession; that the doctrines the Bible are the means of salvation. The address was discussed by R. M. Byron, Rev. W. E. McIntyre and Rev. F. D.
Davidson.

After music by the choir the meeting closed with benediction by Rev. Mr.
Carpenter.

Crushed to Death.

John May, aged 16 years, son of Mr.
May, was crushed between two cars at Snowball's mill, Chatham, Sept. 8th, and died next day. He was pushing an empty car, used in hauling refuse wood to the waste furnace, into the mill, when another car came down the incline from the furnace at high speed, unheeded by him in consequence of the noise made by the machinery, and struck him in the back. There are no buffers on these cars, and he was crushed between them. No bones were broken, but his internal injuries proved fatal.

Fred Lyle, an Ontario farm hand, has fallen heir to $350,000 in England.

GRIEST-COOPER.

A Kansas City Wedding in Which a Popular Young Frederictonian

WAS ONE OF THE PRINCIPALS.

Kansas City Herald, Sept. 3.—Miss Edith Griest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
D. J. Griest, of 722 Barnett avenue, and Frank Cooper of Fredericton, N. B., were married at one time engaged in the dry goods business in this city, during which time he made many friends. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper in this city will unite with the Herald in wishing them a full share of the joys and pleasure conferred by their new relationship.

Kansas City Tribune, Sept. 3.—Miss Edith Griest of this city, and Mr. Frank L. Cooper of Fredericton, New Brunswick, were married Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. A. H. Stote of the Baptist church (Dr. Mendenhall being out of the city) at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J.
Griest, 721 Barnett avenue. The wedding was rather a quiet affair—only relatives and a few most intimate friends being present.

The ceremony was most beautiful and impressive, introducing the ring service.
The bride looked sweet and charming in her white gown and traveling veil.

Immediately after the ceremony dinner was served, then Mr. and Mrs. Cooper left to take the 6.20 train for the east. They went first to Chicago and from there to Toronto, Canada, where they will remain a week, after which they go to Niagara Falls, and then to Fredericton, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Cooper was one of the most popular young ladies of this city, and has many friends who regret her departure.

Mr. Cooper is a highly respected and prosperous young business man of Fredericton, and has been here for some time, he resided some few years ago. Their friends wish them every happiness.

Commissioner Booth's Address.

Miss Eva Booth's appearance at a special meeting of the Salvation Army on Sept. 10, was greeted with applause by a full hall. Judge Steadman and other prominent citizens occupied seats on the platform. Commissioner Booth spoke from chapter 1, 1st Epistle of John, with marked power and eloquence that carried the audience with him. Little Willie sang some very pretty hymns which were very much appreciated by the audience. Thirteen persons came to the front and expressed themselves as having found salvation. At the conclusion of the meeting, Commissioner Booth said she was delighted with the city, the people and the kindness of the people while in the city, and hoped that in the future she would have the pleasure of visiting Fredericton again.

After some very interesting remarks by the retiring president, T. H. Hall, of St.
John, the convention was organized for the year. The Rev. W. E. McIntyre was elected president; Rev. J. H. Hughes, Rev. M. Addison and Havelock Co., vice-presidents; Rev. S. D. Ervine, secretary; Rev. J. Cahill, statistical secretary; Rev.
W. E. Noble, assistant secretary, and the Rev. M. B. Cottle, auditor.

The number of delegates was rather larger than in preceding years. We publish nearly a complete list:

Ervine McIntyre
Hughes McDonald
Coombs Howard
Curry
Barton Townsend
Blackney Hall
Chapman Cornwall
Titus Parent
Hayward White
Wilson Gardner
Davidson Davidson
Byron Sealey
Trotter Manning
Henderson Grass
Hayward Sprague
King Mabey
Sloat Fowles
Newcomb Addison
Sloan Wetmore
Alward Todd
McLean Brannen
Cottle Richards
King
Mrs. Strange Miss Fowler
Miss Vanwart Miss Gray
Miss Cox

After the election of officers for the ensuing year, the report of the committee on arrangements was read. This committee consists of Revs. Ervine, McIntyre, Davidson and Howard.

The Saturday evening session of the N. B. Baptist convention at Gibson, opened at 7.30, Rev. S. D. Ervine presiding. After music by the choir, Rev. A.
Cahill opened the meeting by scriptural reading and prayer.

Pastor R. M. Byron taught a model lesson from Romans 11: 9-25, which was a very able exposition of the passage.

Rev. Milton Addison followed with an address on the "Qualifications of a Sunday School Teacher." The qualifications necessary were regeneration, faith in the word of God, a knowledge of the individuals of his class, patience, perseverance, and faithfulness. The power of the Holy Spirit and prayer.

After the address a short discussion took place in which Rev. J. H. Hughes and Rev. J. Coombs took part.

The next speaker was Rev. J. A. Cahill, whose subject was "What doctrine should be taught in the Sunday school?" The doctrines that men believe, said the speaker, are the index of their lives, and

ABOUT MR. COSTIGAN.

Upper province papers hint at the possibility of the Hon. John Costigan contesting Ottawa for a seat in the Ontario legislature, but the suggestion seems to be very far fetched. Mr. Costigan would scarcely be willing to throw up a seat in the house of commons for the uncertainty of securing a less influential position. A few months ago the report was started that he was to enter the New Brunswick legislature but it was promptly denied by Mr. Costigan. Apparently about the only correct report current respecting the honorable gentleman is that he has broken with his old party and has become a warm admirer and friend of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. At the premier's reception in Ottawa the other night Mr. Costigan was a central figure on the platform, and his presence there has been the subject of more than one sneering remark by Conservative newspapers. There is another thing certain about Mr. Costigan, and it is that he feels no affinity towards Mr. Foster or Sir Chas. Tupper, and it will not be surprising if within the next few months he announces his full advice to the Laurier government and its policy.

There is no indication that the Stockton combination intend resuming their the failure in the up river counties, although the opposition newspapers are urging them to do so. The journalistic
