(OPERA HOUSE BLOCK) 207 Union Street, St. John, N. B. What Do They Say?

Is the question asked every day. Why, what could they say? People can't help but see the truth and say how wonderfully cheap and good our clothing is...

OUR $10.00 MEN'S SUITS are rivals. OUR $3.50 WORKING MEN'S SUITS are corkers. OUR $3.00 DRESS PANTS FOR GENTLEMEN are fine.

IN P. E. ISLAND.

People Are Preparing For the Old Home Week.

New Lobster Hatchery—Wrote to the Pope—Agitation for the Railway Station.

CHARLOTTETOWN, May 25.—The

Summerside Tourist Association are very busy completing arrangements for their Old Home Week early in July. They have been successful in booking excellent events by way of entertainment and as reduced fares have been granted by the different lines there will undoubtedly be immense crowds brought together during the week. It is then that our province looks its best and "the old home folks at home" are waiting to give genuine welcome to their sons and daughters returning from other lands.

Victoria Day passed off very quietly in Charlottetown. It was observed in true holiday style as all the places of business were closed and thronged with people left the town. Visiting parties were the order of the day.

A large number accompanied the Victorian and Abegweit football teams to Westville and Picton respectively. In both games the island team were winners. Victoria, 8-0; Abegweit, 3-0.

Arbor day was observed in the city schools on the 23rd inst. Interesting programmes were given by the scholars. The Summer School of Science is to be held in Charlottetown July 12th to 28th. It is expected that a large attendance from the sister provinces will be present.

Private Chappell of the 82nd regiment, Charlottetown, passed with honors at the examinations of the Royal

School of Infantry, Fredericton.

Neil Shaw, a native of West River,

P. E. I., is now one of the best known evangelists in Massachusetts. He conducts a highly successful mission in Peabody. Mr. Shaw went to Massachusetts fifty years ago. By trade he is a ship-builder. All the local clergy are his admirers. He is a member of the Massachusetts Board of Missions and has a speciality of caring for unfortunate men and in the winter season itinerates are permitted to sleep in the mission building and secure their meals free of expense in his home. He pays special attention to men addicted to intemperance, visiting them at their homes and acting as their friend whenever they are arraigned in court.

Rev. L. J. Wason, pastor of the Methodist church at Montague, expects to leave on a visit to England about the last of June. He has engaged Rev. J. W. O'Brien, a student from the Nova Scotia conference, to take his work for the remainder of the year.

The Sons of England held their annuual church parade on Sunday. Rev.

Leo Williams, rector of St. Paul's church, preached the sermon.

Abraham Letourneau, of Cavandish, and Mrs. Laird, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage recently at their home in Concord, N.

H. M. Laird is 82 years of age. His wife who is 70 years of age, is a na-

COUNTY COURT.

Criminal Cases Being Rushed Along.

Several Were Disposed of Yesterday.

All Prisoners Being Found Guilty.

The May sitting of the County Court opened Wednesday.

Owing to the absence of more than half the grand jurors the business of the court was delayed for an hour. His honour Judge Forbes said that he would impose the usual fines on those who were absent. He said that grand jurymen were absenting themselves too much. The thing was becoming too common and would have to be stopped. There were people just as busy as they, who gave part of their time to the good government of the community.

His honor dwelt on the indictment against Hurd Bluff Henderson, saying the evidence seemed sufficient to warrant a true bill. The other cases for the consideration of the grand jury were:

The King vs. Francis McGuire, charged with stealing a purse containing money.

The King vs. John Flaraty, charged with stealing $60 from one Magee.

The King vs. Jeremiah Marr, charged with assault.

The King vs. Fred Geary, charged with stealing a razor and a bicycle.

The King vs. Sam J. Chisholm, charged with stealing a coat at the depot.

His honor made feeling reference to the sad drowning on the Ormorton of Mr. Thomson and Mr. Foster.

The grand jurors are: John White, foram; Douglas McArthur, Wm. Tait,

John S. Armstrong, Jas. Ryan,

Timothy Collins, Edward Bates, Alexander

Watson, Wm. J. Salmon, Joseph

Hannay, Edward Walsh, David W. J.

Myles, Thomas Bell, Charles S. Philips,

Geo. M. Chamberlain, Frank Watson,

Alexander T. Paterson, John B. Eagles,

William J. Dalton, J. H. White, Wm.

Estabrook, J. A. Tilton, Donaldson

Hunt.

Following are the petit jurors: Reverly Steeves, W. Stanley Cody, John

Hannay, Edward Walsh, David W. J.

Myles, Mich. Higgins, Wm. H. Miles,

Peter McIntyre, Hugh Ryan, Patrick

Cassidy, James Dalzell, Brazill Van

Wart, James Whales, Thomas Logan,

John P. Richards, James Quinn, Solomon McConnell, Jacob H. Colwell, Caleph Belyea, Sanford H. Belyea, Stephen T. Golding.

The civil docket is as follows:

JURY CASES.

Clarke vs. Morrison; S. A. M. Skinner

Hevenot vs. Ham; Tilly & Smith.

Stephen E. Bustin, trustee of Charlotte vs. Segee, vs. Patrick Byrne; E. T.

C. Knowles.

NON JURY (CIVIL).

McLean vs. McEachern; Weidon &

McLean vs. Russell vs. R. Moore; G. S.

Shaw.

J. D. Driscoll vs. G. Collinson; Macdonald vs. R. Selfridge; J. B. M.

Baxter vs. Wetmore vs. F. Atkinson; A.

Wilson.

J. G. Seely vs. Rafferty; A. A. Wil-searched. He gave evidence as to going through some of his pockets. He found $3, which Magee said was not his. Magee had first suggested the search. The prisoner, who had been under witness' eye all the time, had made no effort to conceal anything. Prisoner told him Hazen Magee had the money.

Flaraty was then sworn. He described what happened prior to his going to sleep with Magee. He denied refusing to be searched. He had suggested that the money be searched for. He had him arrested. His reason for objecting to Capt. Jenkins searching him was that no charge had then been made against him. He was a ship laborer. He had $52.24 in his pocket when he left Carleton that morning. This represented his year's savings. He said Capt. Jenkins had taken money of him, but the money produced. His object in proposing his own arrest was to satisfy Magee. He did not say that Hazen Magee had the money.

Counsel then addressed the jury. Judge Forbes in charging the jury referred to the absurdity of supposing that the deputy chief would change the money found on prisoner. The jury after deliberating for a short time brought in a verdict of guilty. Judge Forbes highly complimented Edmund Ritchie on his defence. Sentence was deferred.

MARRIED IN THE WEST. The Oregon Statesman of May 15, published at Salem, Oregon, contains an account of the wedding of Rev. Edwin Bayard Lockhart, son of the late W. A. Lockhart, collector of customs, to a prominent young woman of the west. The account says: At 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, May 14th, at the First Methodist church of Salem, the presence of a few of their relatives and most intimate friends, Rev. Edwin Bayard Lockhart and Miss Jeanette Meredith were met at the altar by the Rev. J. W. Meredith, the well known and highly respected young lady gave the appropriate responses in a very brief but impressive ceremony which made them man and wife. The bride was dressed in white and white with white daisies. The bridegroom was dressed in a dark travelling gown and looked every bit the bride's cousin and the bride's friend. The bride and groom were accompanied by Rev. J. W. FATHER CARSON HAS ARRANGEMENTS. Practically completed and Funds Almost All Raised. Rev. Father Carson, of the Musquash-St. George circuit, is in the city completing arrangements for the erection of a church at St. George to replace the one destroyed by fire about a year ago. The foundation has been built and it is expected that John Styles will be awarded the contract for the balance of the work. The arrangements are being delayed in consequence of a dispute over an additional strip of land comprising nearly more than half an acre, that was recently acquired by the church. It is expected that this matter will be settled in a day or two and then the work will be rushed along.

ARE YOU DEAF? Why Not Use Catarthozone and Get Back Your Hearing? So many chronic cases of deafness have been cured by Catarthozone that you are compelled to cure yourself. From all parts of Canada come glowing accounts of its successful work. Mr. Geo. Warner of Wellesley St., Toronto, writes: "I was cured of years of total deafness. Nothing but Catarthozone ever helped him. It made a complete cure." In your case we guarantee Catarthozone will be satisfactory too. Try it. Price $1.00 at all druggists, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U. S. A.

FROM FREDERICTON. FREDERICTON, May 25.—Oliver G. Anderson, capitalist, Marshall St. G. Anderson, manufacturer; Aitken McK. Anderson, manufacturer of Newcastle; P. W. Gale, Loom, Eng., manufacturer, and James A. Wilson, Glasgow, Scotland, are seeking incorporation as The Anderson Furniture Co., Ltd., with head office at Newcastle and capital $150,000. The company propose to manufacture furniture and carry on a general lumber business. The promoters are English capitalists, who are recently located over this city as site for the proposed factory. Receiving exemption from taxation and bonus of $25,000 from Newcastle, they decided to locate there.

NOVA SCOTIA TRAGEDY. HALIFAX, May 26.—A tragedy is believed to have been perpetrated near Berwick. Two nights ago a house occupied by Mrs. Robinson and family was destroyed by fire and Mrs. Robinson's charred body was found in the ruins. She quarrelled with her husband a few days ago and some four foul play.

BURIED THOMPSON

Bodies of Mr. Foster and Mr. Thompson Laid to Rest.

Services Were Very Largely Attended and Were Most Impressive.

The bodies of John H. Thomson and R. P. Foster were Wednesday morning conveyed to their late residences from the undertaking rooms of T. Fred Powers, where they were taken after the arrival of the special train Tuesday afternoon.

Thursday in St. John was a day of mourning. During the afternoon many business houses were closed, while others, on the principal streets, with blinds drawn evidenced the general feeling of sorrow for the loss of prominent citizens and of respect to their memory. The funerals of Mr. Foster and Mr. Thomson, the latter especially, were more largely attended than any in recent years. All classes and creeds were present, and young and old assembled to join in the procession of mourners.

Mr. Foster's funeral was an hour earlier than that of Mr. Thomson. At ter a short service at the house, 19

Germain street, the body was taken to Trinity church, where Rev. Canon

Richardson officiated, assisted by Rev.

A. G. H. Dicker and Rev. R. P. Mc-

Kim. The pall-bearers were Dr. Mc-

Kim, Arthur P. Hazen, T. B. Blair,

O. A. Hornsby, John R. Armstrong and

A. W. Macrae. The funeral proceeded to the church by way of Union and Charlottetown streets, making a circular extending over two blocks. The church was crowded to the doors. The
