THAW'S MOTHER TAKES HIM AND HIS CASE IN HAND

Lawyers Dismissed by the Prisoner Again Reinstated in Command—Accused Man's Mother Would Not Speak to His Wife—Pathetic Scene in the Tombs

(Special to the Sun.) NEW YORK, July 11.—The meeting today of Harry Thaw and his mother in the Tombs was extremely pathetic. It was just after eleven o'clock that she drove up to the prison in an electric cab accompanied by her stepson, Josiah Thaw. Warden Flynn received her and gently told the broken hearted mother that Matron O'Brien must search her. This over, she was taken to the second floor by the elevator, herself a courteous consideration. Arriving there, her son's cell was pointed out to her and alone she went forward with a faltering step. Just as she reached the cell, Keeper Smith, seeing that she was feeble, opened the cell door for the purpose of getting out Thaw's stool for her to sit on. As the door opened, Mrs. Thaw rushed forward and in a moment mother and son were locked in each other's arms. "Mr boy, my boy," moaned the old lady who was crying bitterly.

HARDEST BATTLE IN HIS CAREER

Jack O'Brien Had to do His Best Last Night Sam Berger, California Heavyweight Set Philadelphia Fast Pace in Six Round Contest

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—Sam Berger, the California heavyweight, fought the hardest six-round battle of his career. Notwithstanding O'Brien continually sent his left to the chin and wind, Berger came back and forced the fighting in every round. O'Brien had all the advantage in the opening round and landed almost at will in the second round. Berger opened up a deep gash over O'Brien's left eye and the Philadelphia had Berger bleeding from the nose. Both men were covered with blood as they went to their corners. The third round was fast. O'Brien was forced to use all his cunning to avoid Berger's rushes, and the latter again opened up O'Brien's damaged eye with a vicious right. Just at the close of the round O'Brien's arm fell and Berger's jaw made the latter's knees knock together. Both men tired when they went to their corners. The fourth round was a repetition of the third. It was given and taken from the time they faced each other until the gong sounded. O'Brien did the greater part of the leading in this round, as in the previous ones, but his blows did not have the force of Berger's. Berger had the Philadelphia decidedly worried in the two closing rounds. When O'Brien led he would invariably jump in the air and swing his left arm around Berger's neck. When the fight ended both men were covered with blood and the referee's shirt was crimson from his efforts to separate the men. When they rushed to a clinch it was several seconds before the referee could make them break clean.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM CHATHAM

CHATHAM, N. B., July 11.—The ladies of the W. M. S. of the St. Luke's church provided a very pleasant surprise for Mrs. Strothard previous to her departure for Moncton. On Tuesday evening they called at the parsonage, and Mrs. George Tait, on behalf of the members of the society, read an address and presented Mrs. Strothard with a pretty five o'clock tea set, all an expression of the regret felt by all the society in the loss of an energetic member and capable president.

Mrs. Strothard was altogether taken by surprise, but the remembrance was all the more gratifying to her because it was unexpected. Hutchinson's mills at Douglastown are shut for at least 200 and 300 yards distance, aggregate to count, seven shots being allowed at each distance. Scores of Canadians were all for prizes. United States Influence Strongly Brought to Bear to End Sanguinary Three-Cornered War in South America—Combatants Respond Favorably

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The navy department was informed this afternoon by cablegram from Commander Mulligan of the arrival of his ship, the Marblehead, at La Libertad, from Panama, which port he left on Friday night. Before sailing, Commander Mulligan was instructed by the navy department to report to the American minister, Mr. Combs, at La Libertad, which is the port nearest San Salvador, the capital of Salvador. In the absence of Mr. Combs, who is detained at Champerico, awaiting next Friday's steamer, Mr. Brown, the American secretary and charge in Salvador, will communicate with Commander Mulligan, and that officer will place his ship at the disposal of the American legation, so that Mr. Brown will be in a position to carry out the instructions which were cabled him today from Washington to prefer to the governments of Salvador and Guatemala the use of this American warship as a place of meeting for the peace commissioners. Acting Secretary of State Adee has not attempted at this great distance from the scene of trouble to arrange all the details of the meeting of the peace commissioners, but will leave the task to the American legations. It is stated that neither Minister Merry nor Messrs. Coombs and Brown will act in the capacity of a peace commissioner to either country; they charged simply as good friends to both parties to endeavor to bring the hostile nations into friendly relations without further loss of blood. To that end they will interest themselves in the selection of peace commissioners by the Government to which they are respectively accredited and will probably conduct these commissioners to the Marblehead and go with them beyond the three mile limit to sea, and, if called upon, will advise them in a friendly manner. This is not the first time the deck of a United States man-of-war has been the scene of a peace conference; the Marietta was thus employed six or eight years ago in bringing about peace between Costa Rica and Salvador; the Philadelphia played a similar part at Panama during the revolution there about ten years ago, and more recently Commander Dillingham brought the Montecristi insurgents and the Dominican

TANTON LOSES HIS CASE AGAINST CH'TOWN COUNCIL

He Had Brought Action Against Them for Alleged Improper Use of Civic Funds.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., July 11.—In the case of L. P. Tanton vs. the city councilors for Charlottetown for 1904-1906, judgment was given on Saturday in the supreme court by Justice Hodgson, master of the rolls, in favor of the defendants; action had refused to pay civic taxes on the ground that the assessment had been improperly levied, because the councilors, acting beyond the powers granted by the city charter, had expended over $7,000 without authority in grants for exhibition associations, band music, funerals, refreshments, etc. The action was taken by Tanton to have the councilors pay the above amount out of their own pockets into the city treasury. The objection was taken by the city by way of demurrer on the ground that the attorney general only could bring such an action. The judge sustained the demurrer dismissing Tanton's bill with costs. Great interest had been taken in the case which is now settled so far as past payments of the councilors are concerned.

NEW BRUNSWICK MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting in Fredericton Today—Three Yachts Arrive at Capital

(Special to the Sun.) FREDERICTON, N. B., July 11.—The yachts Winogene, Lavina and Acciusta arrived about 6.30 this evening and anchored opposite the boating club house. They form the advance guard of the yachting expedition. The members of the party had not heard of the drowning accident until this afternoon, when they reached Oranmore. A number of the medical fraternity came in on this evening's train and registered at the Queen. They come to attend the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Medical Association, which opens here in the morning. This evening the council of the society met and transacted its regular routine business. Among the arrivals tonight were Dr. Thos. Walker, Purdy, Inchee, Aday, McLaren, McHenry, Skinner and Gaudet. Dr. Atherton returned from Montreal today, much improved in health.

Warper's Weekly. A Boston note of two ago—a dusty person from Nashua, N.H., presented himself at the hotel, stating that he was a "supper man" and he would be your low "a room to sleep in?" "If you leave at ten o'clock tomorrow morning," was the answer. "I wouldn't half a dollar about right?" demanded the person, producing a battered "See, you see, I'm all covered with dirt, and I expect to be here half the time I'm in
